Midland Bank Ltd.

Westminster Branch: Central Buildings, Westminster.

A BRANCH IS NOW OPEN AT CENTRAL BUILDINGS, WESTMINSTER, WITH ACCOMMODATION FOR FOREIGN AND COLONIAL VISITORS.

(A) Conference Room. For Trustees' and Directors' Meetings, Arbitrations, Travellers' Appointments, etc.
(B) Ladies' Waiting Room.
(C) Safe Deposit Room. For the Safe Custody (whilst Touring) of Luggage.

MAILS MAY BE RECEIVED AT THE ABOVE ADDRESS.

Special Facilities

Circuit Accounts.

Arrangements will be made for these accounts to be o ened at the above Branch. Moneys will be received for the credit of such accounts, and cheques paid, at any of the Branches of the Bank. Special paying-in books have been prepared, which will be supplied to local Treasurers, for each part of a Circuit. Arrangements will be made for Credits to be received by another bank in any district where the Bank has no Branch.

Ministers' Private Accounts.

The Itinerancy system need not necessitate a frequent change of Bankers. A permanent account opened at the Wesleyan Hall Branch may be operated upon through other Branches and Banks by arrangement.

Foreign Missionaries' Accounts.

Special financial facilities are given to Ministers leaving for foreign countries, and instructions accepted for payment of Insurance premiums and other periodical payments. Deed Boxes, Wills, and Documents held for safe custody without charge. Drafts on all places abroad are issued at the finest rates.

The London City and Midland Executor and Trustee Co., Ltd., will act as Executor or Trustee under a Will or Marriage Settlement, or as Manager of an Estate.

See Page 635.

The Wesleyan Methodist Trust Assurance Company, Limited.

(FORTY-FOURTH YEAR.)

The Attention of Ministers and Laymen is directed to the Position and Aims of this Company.

CONNEXIONAL INSURANCE.

The Company was established in 1872 for the Insurance from Fire of Connexional Trust Property only, and all its profits are held for Connexional Purposes. It now also grants insurances under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, and issues policies indemnifying School Authorities against their liability in respect of accidents to children, etc., etc.

RESERVE FUNDS.

It possesses Reserve Funds amounting to ten times the Annual Premium Income, a position of exceptional strength.

BENEFICENT CONNEXIONAL GRANTS.

It has given £47,900 to the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, of which more than half has been contributed within the last ten years. The grant at the recent Conference was £3,000.

ADVANTAGES OFFERED.

Losses are dealt with in the most liberal spirit, and the rates of premium are no higher than those of other offices. No other Company can offer greater advantages to Trustees—often less—and all insurances effected with such Companies are a distinct loss to the Connexion at large.

The Directors appeal to Ministers and Trustees for the Insurance of all Trust Properties for which Policies have not yet been effected with the Connexional Office.

HENRY PLUMMER, Secretary.

YOUR PENSION

BEGINS at age 60

if you take out a Deferred Annuity Policy with the

NORWICH UNION MUTUAL LIFE OFFICE.

For a man aged 25 next birthday the yearly cost to provide a Pension of £100 per annum at age 60 works out at only £16 5s. 10d.

A man aged 30 next birthday has to pay £21 0s. 10d. yearly for the same benefits—if his age is 35 next birthday the yearly premium he must pay is £27 16s. 8d.—or if his age is 40 he must pay £38 6s. 8d. per annum. Other amounts pro rata.

NO MEDICAL EXAMINATION IS REQUIRED.

ALL PREMIUMS PAID ARE RETURNED in the event of earlier death, and a CASH OPTION of £1,080 is given in lieu of the Pension should circumstances at age 60 make this more desirable.

For further information apply to—

DEPT. M., NORWICH UNION LIFE OFFICE, NORWICH.

6, Great Winchester St., London. WILLIAM H. MAYERS, Secretary.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

was the amount handed to the Quarterly Meeting by the Rev. J. T. Salisbury as the resulting profit for 1914 from the sales of the Durham Circuit Magazine.

The Inset used was

THE CHURCH RECORD

There is nothing phenomenal about the above profit. Any Church can do the same, given an equal amount of effort, such, for instance, as you would give to an ordinary business undertaking.

The Rev. A. J. Mathews writes, from Radcliffe-on-Trent, that with a circulation of only 500 copies, they have made a profit of £10 on the year, and, he says :—

> "The financial side is not the most important. Our magazine has done immense good throughout the Circuit, in creating Circuit interest, and strengthening Circuit spirit. The 'Church Record' Inset is very highly appreciated."

HUNDREDS OF OUR CHURCHES CAN TELL OF THEIR SUCCESS WITH THE "CHURCH RECORD."

When the time comes round again to consider your Magazine, be sure to write for our specimens.

The Best Prize for Games

Do you want to know of a prize for Games and Sports which will save you all the trouble of choosing, but which will delight every Scholar from the youngest to the eldest ?

MACKINTOSH'S TOFFEE-DE-LUXE

will exactly answer your purpose. It is the best prize you can give.

Because

Because everybody loves it. It is the most delicious sweatmeat ever made. The children's faces will light up with pleasure when you give them Mackintosh's Toffee. No other prize will be so welcome and so keenly enjoyed.

Because it is pure. Mackintosh's Toffee is made by the most scientific methods, from the best butter, the finest sugar, rich thick cream. The youngest child can be given Mackintosh's Toffee.

Because it is full of nutriment. Butter, sugar and cream are of great dietetic value, so Mackintosh's Toffee is not only a sweatmeat, it is a food of nutritive quality. Mackintosh's Toffee will not only please your scholars and do them no harm ; it will do them real good.

It is inexpensive. You can buy small or large tins at special prices by arrangement. If you give your scholars Mackintosh's Toffee you will be able to give more prizes than you have done at the same cost.

It is beautifully packed in attractively coloured tins. Each toffee section is a convenient size and wrapped up in a piece of paper so that sticky fingers and mouths can be avoided.

Give Your Scholars MACKINTOSH'S TOFFEE-DE-LUXE They Will All Love It

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-SECOND ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

RICHARD WADDY MOSS, D.D., President.
SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

THE Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists, in the Connexion established by the late Rev. John Wesley, A.M., assembled in Birmingham, on Wednesday, July 14, 1915, and concluded its sittings on Monday, July 26, 1915.

The number of the Legal Conference was completed by the election of Henry Curnow, George Sanderson, Walter Hawkins, Jabez Parkyn, and George W. Sawday, in the place of John Gould, John Bell (B), George Denton, Allen Rees, and John Baker, M.A., deceased.

The following Supernumerary Ministers, Thomas J. Choate, James Critchison, T. Galland Hartley, and William Armstrong Bracken, were declared to have ceased, by lapse of time, to be members of the Legal Conference. The following Ministers, Owen Spencer Watkins, Richard Bevan Shepherd, M.A., Joseph Harger Bateson, and (on the nomination of the Irish Conference) Pierce Martin were elected in their place.

The REV. RICHARD WADDY MOSS, D.D., was elected President of the Conference, and the REV. SIMPSON JOHNSON was elected Secretary.

The Representative Session assembled on Wednesday, July 14, and concluded its business on Monday, July 19. The Pastoral Session assembled on Wednesday, July 21, and completed its business on Monday, July 26. At each Session the Minutes of the Session were read. The several Minutes of both Sessions were adopted by the Legal Conference.

In the following pages, the business which belongs to the Representative Session is placed first; that belonging to the Pastoral Session, second; and then follows that which stands in relation to both.

The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Synods their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Laymen as were duly chosen.

For the names of those so chosen, see Appendix I.

The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to be present, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

SECTION I.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES.

Q. I. What are the Committees for Guarding our Privileges during the ensuing year?

A. 1. The ORDINARY COMMITTEE: which shall have full power to take action on all national occasions, and in all cases affecting the interests, duties, rights, or privileges of our Church, unless in its judgment, or in the judgment of the President of the Conference, it is deemed expedient to refer any case to the Extraordinary Committee named below. The Committee must act in conformity with any existing resolution of the Conference.

2. In all cases where proposed legislation or administration affects the interests of any Department managed by a Special Committee appointed by the Conference, the Committee of Privileges shall act in consultation with the particular Committee in such manner as the President of the Conference may direct; and a joint meeting of the Committee of Privileges and of the Committee of the Department affected may be summoned by the Secretaries of both Committees, if directed by the President of the Conference, in order to determine what action shall be taken.

The Ordinary Committee shall meet whenever it is convened either by direction of the President of the Conference or by its Secretaries.

(5) The General Committee and the Governors shall meet during the ensuing year on Friday, November 19, at Bath; on Friday, March 10, 1916, in Southport; and on Friday, June 9, in London.

2. Kingswood School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in September; but applications for admission at other times will always be considered. Such applications must be sent to the Rev. W. West Holdsworth, M.A., B.D., 2, Friary Road, Handsworth, Birmingham, or to the Head Master of the School. Boys are not admitted before the age of ten, except after direct vote of the Governors.

N.B.—In the case of boys admitted by vote of the Governors under the age of ten, or at any other period of the year than September, the parent may be required by the Governors to pay for the portion of that year at the rate of £25.

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to boys of about the age of eleven. A graduated age allowance will be made for younger boys, while older boys will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard, and boys above the age of twelve will be expected to show some knowledge of Latin and French. A specimen examination paper will be sent by the Head Master, Mr. WALTER P. WORKMAN, M.A., B.Sc., upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

(3) Residence. The ordinary time of residence shall be six years, provided that the Education allowances have either not been received or have been returned (see § 4 (4), p. 19).

(4) Scholarships. The terms of election shall be fixed by the Governors. So far as is consonant with the trusts affecting them, the Scholarships shall be awarded as a general rule to boys in their seventeenth year. Some shall be reserved for those who have already held one Scholarship. The Exhibition upon the Foundation of the late John Fernley shall be tenable at any place of higher education.

(5) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows :

Sons of Supernumeraries and Widows ...	£22
For all others	£25

Such payments shall be due in three equal instalments, one at the close of each term, and shall be paid to the school direct.

Ministers whose sons hold Scholarships or have secured an extra year shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(6) Notice of Removal from School. Parents having children at the School shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents not giving such notice, the officers of the Fund shall be authorised to withhold three months' allowances, which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children. If a boy to whom an extra year has been granted be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

(7) The School Year shall be divided into three terms.

(8) The application of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows shall be left to the discretion of the General Committee.

(9) Travelling expenses shall be paid out of the General Fund; viz. third-class fare each way, for all pupils, between Bath station and the railway station nearest their homes as recorded in the Minutes of Conference, or nearest the place where the holiday is to be spent, whichever shall involve the smaller payment.

N.B.—The above Minute is limited to England and Wales, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Isles.

3. Trinity Hall School.

The Conference directs:

(1) Not later than October 15 the name and age of every applicant for admission shall be sent to the Rev. FREDERICK M. PARKINSON, The Manse, Eccles, Manchester. Girls shall not, in general, be admitted before the age of twelve.

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination in November will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to girls of about the age of twelve or thirteen years. A graduated age allowance will be made for the candidates, and older girls will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard. A copy of a specimen examination paper will be sent by the Head Mistress, Miss CAROLINE H. PEET, upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

Candidates left over from one year to another shall be entitled to admission without re-examination, provided that 12 per cent. be deducted from their marks obtained in the examination of the previous year. Such Candidates shall be allowed to sit again for examination if this course be preferred.

(3) Residence. The ordinary term of residence shall be four years for girls on whose behalf not more than two educational payments have been made previous to their entrance at School. Every such payment in excess of two shall diminish the time of residence at the School. In special cases, when in the opinion of the Governors and the General Committee it is deemed desirable, the term of residence "on the foundation" may be extended from four to six years.

(4) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Daughters of Supernumeraries and Widows ...	£22
For all others	£30

Such payments shall be due in three equal instalments, one at the close of each term, and shall be paid direct to the school.

Ministers whose daughters hold Scholarships or have secured an extra year shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(5) Leaving Scholarships. A sum of £60 per annum shall be available from the General Fund for Leaving Scholarships, to be awarded to necessitous and eligible candidates, in a sum, or sums, of not less than £10; on the recommendation of a small committee composed of the Local Treasurer, Local Secretary, and the Head Mistress. Such Leaving Scholarships to be held at some approved place of Higher Education.

(6) Notice of Removal from School. The Regulation for Kingswood School (§ 2 (6), p. 16) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to Trinity Hall School.

(7) Vacations. The School Year at Trinity Hall shall be divided into three terms.

(8) Travelling expenses shall be paid out of the General Fund; viz. third-class fare each way, for all pupils between the Southport station and the railway station nearest their homes as recorded in the Minutes of Conference, or nearest the place where the holiday is to be spent, whichever shall involve the smaller payment.

N.B.—The above Minute is limited to England and Wales, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Isles.

4. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.

The Conference directs:

(1) Payments shall be made at Conference for the calendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents who have once begun to claim shall receive their payments annually. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Entrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

(4) Return of Educational Allowances. Any Educational Allowance may be returned within the calendar year in which it is received. Educational allowances received in previous years may be returned, provided (1) that Simple Interest is paid thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum for such period as they have been held, and (2) that the re-payment is made before the commencement of the term for which it is due.

N.B.—(i) A term's notice of intention to return Educational Allowances must be given, and in the case of a pupil who will be sixteen years of age when due to leave, permission to return the allowance must be obtained from the Governors.

(ii) All applications and payments in respect of the return of Educational Allowances should be made to the Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY, 102, Castle Street, Haulgh, Bolton.

(5) Circuit Schedules. Not later than March 1 each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY, 102, Castle Street, Haulgh, Bolton, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. Any claims delayed beyond the date of the May Synods are delayed at the risk of the parents. No claim to be entered upon this schedule for children at the Schools.

Memorandum of Agreement.

The Conference directs:

(1) That in view of the fact that, ordinarily, claims upon the Maintenance Section of the Fund do not arise during the first five years of a Minister's term of service; and seeing that the Memorandum of Agreement does not contemplate the case of married men being received into the Wesleyan Methodist Church who may have children born during their probation, the scale of payments be so as to meet the equity of such cases, viz. that for each year of probation in which no claim arises one-fifth of the amount charged for maintenance be remitted.

(2) That the amount charged for maintenance shall be fully paid up before such Probationer is received into Full Connexion, and before his child is admitted as a claimant upon the Fund.

(3) That a written acknowledgment of every such arrangement shall be signed by the father of the child, and be preserved by the General Secretary.

(4) That where desired, payments to the Education Section of the Fund, entitling a child to receive the usual Education Allowances, may be spread over a period of years until the child is nine years of age; simple interest, at 5 per cent., being charged until the full amount has been paid, and until such time no claim for Educational Allowance shall be admitted.

Remittances, whether Circuit Collections, Subscriptions, or Assessments, to be sent to the Rev. ENOCH SALT, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W. Other communications are to be addressed to the Secretaries—Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, Wesley Manse, Fareham, Hants.; and Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY, 102, Castle Street, Haulgh, Bolton.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. V. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee. (See Appendix VIII.)

2. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

3. Irregular Chapel Cases.—The Conference receives the Report.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send to the several District Synods the particulars of those cases in which, in the opinion of the Committee, it is desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time, until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled.

The Conference further directs the District Synods to call the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the proportion of debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the District Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendents.

4. Mr. WILLIAM MIDDLEBROOK, M.P., of Morley, and Mr. ALFRED BROOKES, of Manchester, are re-appointed Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

Cost of Mission Work in Ireland (terminable annuity)	800	0	0

III. Pledges to provide for Married Ministers.

Six Circuits in England are under pledge to provide for married Ministers at this Conference. Of these three make provision forthwith, and three will pay compensation to the Fund for delay at the rate of £40 per annum.

1. Providing this year (3).—Nantwich, Liverpool (Bootle), Grimsby (George Street).

2. Paying compensation (3).—London (East Ham Mission), Sutton (Surrey), Bournemouth.

3. Provision for a married Minister will be made in the London (Kilburn and Hampstead) Circuit at the beginning of the first year.

4. Provision for married Ministers will also be made in the following cases previously due: Preston (Wesley), Nottingham Mission.

5. Compensation will be paid according to usage in twenty-three other cases.

IV. Alterations, Amalgamations, or Divisions of Circuits.

1. Llanidloes (English) in the Newtown Circuit to be transferred to Llanidloes (Welsh) Circuit.

2. Wardle, Dearnley and Smallbridge to be transferred from Rochdale Circuit to Rochdale (Littleborough) Circuit. The second minister of the Rochdale Circuit to be transferred to the Rochdale (Littleborough) Circuit and to reside within the Wardle area. The above arrangement to take effect at the Conference of 1916.

3. Hanover Place to be transferred from the Leeds (Woodhouse Moor) Circuit to the Leeds Mission.

V. Special Mission Committees.

The Conference authorises the Synods in the cases aftermentioned to appoint Special Committees to advise and assist in the management, and directs the Quarterly Meetings concerned to act in harmony with the Committees so appointed. The last-named direction is to apply also in cases in which the Conference itself appoints Committees for the same purpose :

First London	London (Waltham Abbey and Hertford Mission).
First London	North-West Essex Mission.
First London	London (Highbury) Circuit.

The Conference refers the whole question of "Special Committees for management" of Local Missions in large towns and of "Central Mission Committees" appointed by the Conference to the Home Mission Committee for consideration. A report to be presented to the next Conference.

VI. Lay Workers' College, Gospel Cars, Etc.

The Conference receives with satisfaction the report of the Committee (see Appendix XVIII.), and again very cordially commends this important branch of our work to the generous support of the Methodist people.

VII. Prisons Committee.

The Conference receives the report of the Prisons Committee (see Appendix XXII.), and approves of the same.

VIII. Brotherhoods.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report on Brotherhoods, as follows:

As directed by the Conference, the Committee has carefully considered the relationship of the Brotherhood movement to our Circuits and Churches.

It has reviewed afresh the origin and aims of the Brotherhood movement, especially in the light of its development into a national and international organisation, numbering hundreds of thousands of adherents.

It begs to call the attention of the Conference to the report on this subject presented in 1908 (see Minutes, 1908, p. 41).

It considers that practically all the counsel and direction needed is contained therein, and recommends that paragraphs 4 and 5 of that report be reprinted in the Minutes. They are as follows :

EXTRACT FROM MINUTES OF 1908.

4. The Committee does not find that any evils have so far arisen from the lack of definite Conference rules and regulations for the conduct of the Brotherhoods. The defects brought under the notice of the Committee may in most cases be traced to initial errors in the choice of persons to take the lead and responsibility of the meetings. These errors might arise under any rules that could be devised, and can only be guarded against by wise and careful administration. Having regard to the varied conditions obtaining in different places, the spirit that on the whole animates the effort, and the provisions already existing to prevent abuses, it is unnecessary and undesirable for the Conference to frame detailed regulations, which, whilst applicable to one set of circumstances, might be unsuitable and even injurious in others.

5. To prevent, however, possible abuses, the Committee suggests that the following considerations should be steadily kept in view :

(a) The Brotherhood Meetings ought not to be regarded as separate organisations outside, and distinct from, the ordinary life of the Missions or Chapels with which they are associated, and on whose premises they are held. They should be treated as part of the great organisation whose supreme aim is to "spread scriptural holiness throughout the land," and all the arrangements for them should be in harmony with this purpose. There is already abundant proof that those Brotherhoods, in which evangelical teaching is the predominant note, and redemptive service the leading feature, are not only the most useful but also the most attractive and permanent.

If used for any lower purpose early decay may be confidently predicted.

(b) The provisions contained in our Trust deeds, if duly observed by the Superintendent Minister and the Trustees in their several capacities, are a sufficient safeguard that the meetings and services held will be in accordance with the general rules and usage of the people called Methodists. The Committee consider these rules adequate, that subject to them it is better this movement should in other respects be unfettered, and that each place should be free to work out its own methods in accordance with the varied needs of the localities concerned.

(c) The Committee is of opinion that great forbearance and conciliation may be necessary in certain cases in which there has been some lack of prevision in arrangements already made. The Committee confidently expresses the hope that as to existing Brotherhoods there will be no undue or unnecessary exercise of authority in relation to opportunities for usefulness so peculiar and delicate as those presented by this [new, and in some respects untried,] movement, but that the experience already gained will be of service in preventing evils in the establishment of future Brotherhoods.

The Committee is of opinion that:

1. It should be cause of deep thankfulness that many persons who, for various reasons, seem unwilling to attend the regular services of the churches, are ready to enrol themselves as members of Christian Brotherhood Meetings.

2. Inasmuch as familiarity with a place of worship tends to remove the sense of strangeness which it is alleged deters many from attendance at the House of God, the assembly of Brotherhood and kindred meetings upon our church premises should be encouraged.

3. Having regard to the definitely Christian purpose of the meetings, and the avowedly evangelical aim of the leaders of the movement, the endeavour to infuse Christian ideals into civic and national life, and to examine all developments of thought and action in the light of the Revealed Will of God, is cause for satisfaction.

4. The true view of the movement is that of an auxiliary to the Christian Church, not its substitute or supplanter. The meetings should be regarded as affording a favourable gathering ground whence, by personal influence, men and women may be drawn into the fellowship of the Church—a consummation as much to the advantage of the Brotherhood as of the Church.

5. Important as the movement undoubtedly is, it would be detrimental to the highest welfare of our Church if the time and energy of our ministers on Sunday afternoon were so absorbed in their attention to this branch of service as to prevent the proper visitation of the Sunday Schools, which is so fruitful a part of ministerial duty.

6. Moreover, in respect to the senior classes of our Sunday Schools, great care should be taken that scholars do not pass into the Brotherhood until they have attained at least 17 years of age—the minimum age for entrance recognised by the National Council of Brotherhoods. For their grounding in the Faith and in the teaching of Holy Scripture, the systematic instruction of the Sunday School is better suited than the occasional and non-consecutive addresses of the Brotherhood meetings.

7. In large towns, where the sitting accommodation of the Churches bears only a small proportion to the size of the population, it may be desirable to have Brotherhood and kindred meetings in all our Chapels ; but, in the case of smaller towns, if it is generally thought expedient to have one united Brotherhood, rather than a number of small and less efficient meetings, our ministers and members may find it advisable to co-operate with other Churches. Incidentally such a course may have value as affording a timely demonstration of real unity of sentiment among the various Churches.

IX. Spiritual Advance.

1. The Conference receives the Report (see Appendix XVIII.).

X. Officers and Committee.

1. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Committee for their services during the past year.

2. The Right Hon. THOMAS ROBINSON FERENS, M.P., and Mr. HENRY HOLLOWAY are re-appointed the Treasurers for the ensuing year; and the Rev. FREDERICK L. WISEMAN, B.A., is appointed Deputy Treasurer.

3. The following is the Committee:

SEAMEN'S MISSION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Seamen's Mission, and desires to place on record, with much thankfulness, its appreciation of the earnest service and the willing sacrifice made by the Ministers and members of the Staff during the year, especially during the months of great strain and anxiety caused by the War.

2. The Conference is gratified to learn that the Queen Victoria Seamen's Rest has been fully utilised for the benefit of the men of the Mercantile Marine and the Royal Naval Reserve since the outbreak of the War.

3. The Conference finds that the extra work has entailed increased expenditure which has caused some amount of financial strain. There has also been a decrease in the regular income due to the death of many old subscribers, and the diversion of subscriptions into other channels on account of the War. In these circumstances the Conference warmly commends the Mission to the friends of sailors to prevent serious embarrassment by special gifts, or by new annual subscriptions. The Conference is firmly convinced that there was never a time in the history of the Seamen's Mission when the work was more necessary than it is now, and earnestly commends it to the prayerful sympathy and support of the whole Church.

4. Treasurers, Mr. ROBERT GAMBLES and Mr. CHARLES J. O. SANDERS. General Secretary, Rev. DAVID ROE.

5. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year: the Trustees of the Queen Victoria Seamen's Rest; the Officers of the Home Mission Committee; the Chairman and Secretary of the First London District; the Secretary of Common Cash; the Ministers of the Seamen's Mission; the Seamen's Mission Stewards; and the Treasurers of the Mission, with—

CONNEXIONAL FUND.

Q. IX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Connexional Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Treasurers' Account for 1913–14, and the Statement of Income and Expenditure to June 26, 1915.

2. The Conference regrets to report a decrease in the total amount of the collections for this Fund, but hopes that in view of the benefit which it renders to Ministers and the Connexion generally, the interests of the Fund may not be allowed to suffer.

3. The Conference urges that when the Annual Collections are made an opportunity be taken to explain explicitly to our congregations the objects for which the Fund exists.

WORN OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. X. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. In view of the serious deficiency on the year's working occasioned in part by the exceptional circumstances of the country, and recognising that the measures necessary to placing the Fund on a secure and satisfactory basis cannot be adopted immediately, the Conference directs the September Synods to take into consideration the raising of £5,000 by a special subscription to be continued over the few years that must elapse before the necessary income can be otherwise provided.

3. The Conference believing that the Methodist people, whose kindness to their Ministers is well known, would not approve the reduction of the small grants now paid, and relying on the success of the special effort suggested in the foregoing resolution, directs the Committee to pay the grants during the ensuing year on the existing scale; and having regard to the largely increased cost of the necessaries of life, expresses the earnest hope that it may be found possible in the near future to improve the present scale.

4. The scale of allowances for the present year shall be, for Supernumeraries, 20s. for each year of active service, with a bonus of £18; for Widows, 10s. for each year of the late husband's service, with the same bonus.

5. The thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who have made special donations, and to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to Supernumeraries and Widows of Ministers who have relinquished or returned their allowances.

7. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY and Mr. JOHN LEES BARKER as General Treasurers, and the Rev. ENOCH SALT as Secretary.

8. (1) Allowances are paid half-yearly, in advance; the dates of payment being August 10 and February 10.

(2) Funeral allowances are paid for Supernumerary Ministers and for Widows of Supernumerary Ministers, only in cases of proved necessity.

9. The Conference directs the Committee of the Worn Out Ministers' Fund to increase the Bonus given to Supernumeraries and widows to such amount as may be possible up to £20 per annum.

10. The following are appointed the Committee of Management: The Rev. R. WADDY MOSS, D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY and Mr. JOHN LEES BARKER, the General Treasurers; Rev. ENOCH SALT, Secretary; together with the N.B.—For the Discipline Committees of the several Branches of the Institution, see Question XLI.

13. The Conference resolves that in the present national emergency one of the Colleges of the Theological Institution may be placed at the disposal of the Government, or some other public authority, on suitable conditions and for some well-defined national purpose, Handsworth College being first named as the one most likely, architecturally and in other respects, to meet the special requirements; and appoints a special Committee to deal with the question, including any re-arrangement such as would deal with Westminster College or any other Connexional premises. (For the appointment of the Committee see "Special Resolutions.")

14. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) Wherever it is practicable, two Collections shall be made annually in each chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Institution; and these Collections shall be made, if possible, in December.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all Subscriptions and Collections for the Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year; and instructs the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by inquiry at the May Synod, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference directs the President to inform the General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resignation of any Probationer, or of any Minister who has not been ten years in the Full Work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept and application made to those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their Institution training.

15. The Conference learns with satisfaction that measures have been taken to provide for the growing demands of the Connexion for a trained Ministry, and recognises the urgent necessity for an increase in the annual income of not less than £1,000. The Conference directs the General Committee to take such steps as may in its judgment meet this increased expenditure. The Conference authorises an appeal to the Connexion for an increase in the Annual Collections and in Private Subscriptions. The Conference also sanctions an appeal for Annual Subscriptions to Trustees of Chapels, and also to Ministers who have been trained in the Institution.

EDUCATION.

Q. XII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Wesleyan Education?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year, together with a Statistical Statement relating to Training Colleges and Day

4. Closing of Wesleyan Day Schools.—In the interests of the Methodist Church and of the Education of the Country (especially in rural districts), the Conference deeply deplores the giving up of any Methodist School, and would impress upon all our Managers that before any steps are taken towards transfer or surrender, they should lay the case before the Connexional Education Committee for its counsel and assistance.

5. Temperance Teaching in Wesleyan Day Schools.—The following resolution was adopted by the Conference of 1911 :

> "That the Managers of our Day Schools be requested to adopt the Temperance Syllabus of the Board of Education."

6. Grants to Day Schools.—In applications for grants coming before the Education Committee, the judgment of the District Chapel Committee or District Sunday and Day School Committee of the Synod, from which these applications come, shall be obtained and laid before the members of the Connexional Education Committee when such applications are being considered. This rule shall apply to ordinary applications, and not to those of special urgency.

7. Administrative Resolutions and Resolutions of 1891, 1895, and 1899 (see Minutes, 1905, pp. 64-68).—The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted :

(1) The Conference empowers the Wesleyan Education Committee to make grants towards expenditure incurred by structural and other alterations demanded by the Board of Education in Day-school premises.

(2) Day and Sunday Schools.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

(3) The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary not later than April 10 in each year.

(4) District Sunday-school Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

SECONDARY EDUCATION.

Board of Management for Wesleyan Secondary Schools.

(For Scheme, see Minutes, 1903, pp. 515, 516.)

1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Board of Management during the year.

2. The Conference has referred to the Secondary Education Committee the question of establishing all or any of the Wesleyan Middle-class or other Proprietary Schools on a strictly Connexional basis, either as separate institutions, or by bringing all or any of them under a single Connexional control. (For Scheme, see Minutes, 1903, pp. 516, 517.) A Connexional Trust Deed has been approved by the Conference. (Minutes, 1903, p. 515.)

NATIONAL CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

(Founded by Dr. Stephenson.)

Q. XIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of The National Children's Home and Orphanage ?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of The National Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix V.)

* On Active Service in H.M. Forces.

2. The Conference hereby authorises the President to affix his signature as Representative of the Conference to any sale of property recommended by the General Committee of The National Children's Home and Orphanage.

3. The Conference commends this beneficent work to the generous support of our people. It realises its national importance, especially in relation to the orphan and motherless children of soldiers and sailors. It is a matter of profound gratitude that already many children who have suffered as a result of this terrible war have been received into the Home.

4. The Conference rejoices to learn that over 300 Old Home Boys are serving their King, Country and Empire, commends them to God's gracious care and keeping, and assures them of its prayers.

5. The Conference emphasises the necessity for the speedy completion of the important extension schemes undertaken within recent years. It again asks that our people will render generous assistance.

6. In consequence of the death of a number of Trustees of the different Branches of the National Children's Home and Orphanage, and of the resignation of other Trustees, the Conference hereby appoints the Rev. William Hodson Smith, the Rev. John Hornabrook, the Rev. Marshall Hartley, Mr. John Robert Barlow, Mr. Francis Horner, and Sir Charles Cheers Wakefield, to be Trustees under the respective Trust Deeds of all properties of which they are not at present Trustees.

7. It having been reported to the Conference that the following Trustees of various Branches of the National Children's Home and Orphanage have expressed a desire to be released from their position as such Trustees, the Conference hereby accepts and consents to the resignation of the Rev. John Smith Simon, D.D., the Rev. Mark Guy Pearse, the Rev. John Hugh Morgan, Sir Thomas Barlow, Mr. Alfred Bentley, Mr. Isaac Alexander Mack, Mr. John Israel Parkes, and Mr. Peter Frederick Wood from their positions as Trustees under the various Deeds relating to the different Branches of the Institution and directs that all necessary steps be taken effectively to vest the said properties in the remaining Trustees. And the Conference hereby directs the President to execute all such Deeds and Documents as may be necessary to testify such consent.

8. In consequence of the death of a number of the Trustees of portions of the Branch at Ramsey, in the Isle of Man, held upon the trusts of the deed of January 28, 1881, the Conference hereby appoints the Rev. William Hodson Smith, the Rev. Marshall Hartley, the Rev. John Hornabrook, and Sir Charles Cheers Wakefield to be Trustees of the properties held upon the trusts of the said deed, and the Conference hereby directs the surviving Trustees under the said deed to execute such deeds and documents as may be necessary in order to transfer and effectually vest the said properties in the surviving Trustees and the persons hereby appointed to be Trustees to fill vacancies caused by death.

9. The Conference hereby approves of the proposal that the Board of Trustees for National Children's Home Purposes shall apply for a Certificate of Incorporation under the Charitable Trustees Incorporation Act, 1872, and directs that all necessary steps be taken for the purpose of carrying this proposal into effect.

10. Mr. JOHN ROBERT BARLOW, B.A., and Sir CHARLES C. WAKEFIELD are appointed the General Treasurers. The following are appointed Local Treasurers for the ensuing year: Mr. E. LINDSAY BLEE for the London Branch; Messrs. JOHN ROBERT BARLOW, B.A., and C. ERNEST WALKER for the Lancashire Branch; Mr. CHARLES H. BRAMPTON for the Birmingham Branch; Mr. W. T. RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the Religious Observance of the Lord's Day?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Lord's Day Observance Committee.

2. The Conference commends the work of the Committee to the support of the Methodist Church, and especially asks all Ministers and Local Preachers to seize the opportunity afforded by "Lord's Day Sunday" to draw the attention of all our congregations to the obligations and blessings of the Day of Rest.

3. The Conference strongly deplores the publication of two Sunday picture papers. It regards this pernicious new departure as a more flagrant violation of the Lord's Day than the issue of Sunday newspapers, inasmuch as it cannot be palliated by the public anxiety for tidings of loved ones, but is obviously only a new development of the spirit of Mammon. The Conference urges the Methodist people to have nothing to do with this evil thing, and to do all in their power to defeat the purposes of the promoters.

4. Dr. RICHARD T. SMITH is appointed Treasurer; the Rev. J. EDWARD HARLOW and Mr. WILLIAM E. SKINNER are appointed Secretaries.

(1) Ex-officio Members: Rev. R. WADDY MOSS, D.D., President of the Conference; DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; the Secretary of the Temperance Committee; the Secretary of the Army and Navy Board; and the Officers of the Committee.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes of Conference. (See Appendix VI.)

2. The Conference recommends that, on the second Sunday in November, special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of Intemperance, and to the many advantages and blessings of Total Abstinence. The Conference rejoices to recognise the steady growth of the Wesleyan Methodist League of Abstainers, and recommends that an endeavour should be made on Temperance Sunday to enrol the senior scholars of our Sunday Schools, and the members of our congregations as members of the League; and further, that the annual re-enrolment of League members, as pledged to the practice of total abstinence from alcoholic liquors, should ordinarily be associated with the observance of Temperance Sunday. The Conference further recommends the appointment, by each local Sunday School Council, of a Sunday School Temperance Secretary, whose duty shall be to seek to obtain the enrolment of all the scholars as total abstainers either in the Band of Hope or in one of the sections of the Wesleyan Methodist Abstainers' League. The Conference recommends that the Secretary of the Band of Hope or of the Abstainers' League should ordinarily be appointed as the Sunday School Temperance Secretary.

3. The Conference recommends the appointment of a Circuit Temperance Secretary in every Circuit, and the Superintendents are directed to send the name and address of such Secretary to the Secretary of the Connexional Temperance Committee not later than the end of September. The Conference further recommends that in every Church a Secretary of the League of Abstainers shall be appointed.

4. The Conference directs that the following Resolution, adopted by the Conference of 1904, be printed in the Minutes of Conference :

> "The Conference was never more alive than at the present time to the dire results of the Liquor Traffic. It rejoices in the progress of Temperance sentiment and practice in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and recommends our people to keep from complicity with a traffic the results of which are so injurious to the interests of religion, morality, and social life. The Conference earnestly urges that this shall be borne in mind in the administration of our Circuits, and especially in the appointment of office-bearers."

5. The Conference deplores the frightful havoc which is wrought amongst uncivilised peoples by the introduction of intoxicating liquors, and directs the Temperance Committee, in co-operation with kindred societies, to continue its exertions for the protection of such races from the ravages of the drink scourge.

6. The Conference places on record its respectful appreciation of the decision of His Majesty the King "to set the example by giving up all alcoholic liquor himself and issuing orders against its consumption in the Royal Household," and rejoices in the widespread response amongst our people to the Royal example.

7. The Conference, in view of the general recognition of the menace which drink presents to national character and efficiency in war time, and of the legislative action which has been deemed necessary to safeguard national interests against the temptations of drink, earnestly appeals to His Majesty's Government to deal firmly and adequately with the national drink evil. The Conference, in re-affirming this demand, especially urges that the entire closing of public houses on the Lord's Day, the restriction of hours for the sale of drink on weekdays, the reduction of the number of licensed premises, the increase of the powers of local licensing authorities, the placing of proper restrictions on drinking facilities in clubs, the abolition of grocers' licenses, and the vesting of power in the people to protect themselves against the drink evil by the exercise of the vote, should be included in such a measure of Temperance Reform.

8. The Conference, recognising the need for united action on the part of all Christian Churches to obtain legislative Temperance Reform at the close of the war, welcomes the formation, for this purpose, of a Temperance Council representative of the Christian Churches of England and Wales.

9. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

(1) The Rev. R. Waddy Moss, D.D., President of the Conference; Dinsdale T. Young, Ex-President; Simpson Johnson, Secretary; the Treasurer and Secretary of the Committee; the Connexional Editor and the Book Steward; the Secretary of the Sunday School Department; one of the Secretaries of the Lord's Day Observance Committee; the Secretary of the Social Purity Committee; the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee; the Secretary of the Wesley Guild Council; the Principal of the National Children's Home and Orphanage; and the Secretary of the Army and Navy Board.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Q. XIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Social Purity?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference expresses its great regret that the Criminal Law Amendment Bill, introduced into the House of Lords by the Bishop of London on behalf of the London Council for the Promotion of Public Morality, failed to become law. It also expresses its strong conviction that the age of protection for both sexes should be raised by law.

3. The Conference reaffirms its unflinching opposition to every form of State Regulation of Vice, and strenuously withstands any policy for counteracting the effects of vice which involves such regulation. It will also oppose any system of compulsory notification, which can only be made operative by embodying the main principles of the now repealed Contagious Diseases Act.

4. The Conference directs the Committee to watch the operation of the rules and regulations laid down for the Army by the Government of India, and at other military stations, and to take such action as may be desirable to oppose anything in the nature of State Regulation, should it be attempted.

5. In presence of growing laxity of thought and practice in many quarters, the Conference urges upon all Methodists, and especially upon those who have to do with young people in Bible Classes, Guilds, and other Societies, the duty of exercising watchful care over all moral interests, and of exerting an influence which may tend to lessen temptation to evil by the strengthening of sound principles, the discreet communication of necessary information, and the repression of all social customs which are hostile to a high-toned morality.

6. The Conference rejoices in the progress that has been made by the international movement for suppressing the trade in girls for immoral purposes. It commends the efforts that are being made to the support of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and trusts that such help as can be afforded by Wesleyan Methodists to the care of girls, especially in the case of those who come to take up employment in strange towns, will be increasingly given.

7. The Conference is gravely concerned with the injury caused to society, and especially to the young, by the continued publication of various forms of indecent literature. It recognises the necessity for a strong and healthy public opinion on this subject, and calls on parents, Sunday and Day School Teachers, and guardians of the young to cultivate unceasingly in the children the habit of reading good and wholesome literature. It also appeals to the Press, and to the Publishers', Journalists', and Newsagents' Associations to unite in breaking up this unseemly and dangerous traffic.

8. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The ex-officio Members: the Rev. R. WADDY MOSS, D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; the Treasurer and Secretary of the Committee.

(2) Mr. MOSES ATKINSON is re-appointed Treasurer of the Committee, and the Rev. J. ALEXANDER CLAPPERTON, M.A., and Mr. ARTHUR A. RICHARDS are the Secretaries.

3. The Conference adopts the following Scheme for the better organisation of Local Preachers throughout the Connexion, so that their services may be available outside their own Circuits to assist those districts where there is difficulty in providing adequate pulpit supplies:

(1) Connexional Organisation. — The Connexional Local Preachers' Committee shall appoint annually an Organisation

Committee which shall be empowered to make arrangements to enable duly qualified Local Preachers to supply pulpits outside their own Circuits. This Committee shall be known as the Connexional Local Preachers' Organisation Committee.

(2) The Organisation Committee shall make its own financial arrangements, shall be responsible to the Connexional Committee, and shall consist of ten Ministerial and ten Lay Members.

(3) District Organisation.—In each District where it is necessary for Circuits to secure outside pulpit supplies, the Synod shall instruct the District Local Preachers' Committee to make suitable arrangements for Local Preachers to supply Pulpits outside their own Circuits. The District Local Preachers' Committee shall direct those concerned in pulpit supplies for rural districts to take care that Sunday travelling be avoided as far as possible by arranging hospitality from Saturday night to Monday morning.

(4) The District Organisation Committee shall appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer.

(5) In order that strong Circuits may render the most effective help to others, and that Local Preachers in such Circuits may be given the widest opportunities of service, it is recommended that District Local Preachers' Committees be directed to co-operate with each other.

(6) The Connexional Local Preachers' Organisation Committee shall communicate with the Committee for each District in order to advise those Committees in making adequate arrangements for pulpit supplies throughout their Districts. In any District where the Committee is unable to make all necessary provision, the Connexional Organisation Committee may assist any Circuit when desired to do so by the Superintendent Minister of that Circuit.

(7) The Connexional Organisation Committee shall from time to time at its discretion hold a Conference at which the general work of the Committee may be discussed. Such Conference shall consist of the Members of the Connexional Organisation Committee, and one Ministerial and one Lay Representative from each District Committee.

Annual Examination.—The Annual Examination will be conducted on Monday, March 6, 1916.

3. The Rev. Enoch Salt is appointed to ascertain, and to receive and forward to the respective Treasurers the payments to be made, in accordance with our Rules, to the various Connexional Funds, in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See Standing Orders, Nos. 36 and 37.)

4. The Rev. John E. Wakerley and John Elsworth are directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1916.

N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1916.

A copy of the Agenda shall be sent to each member of the Representative Session.

5. Mr. William J. Davey is re-appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

6. The Rev. David Rycroft is re-appointed Convener of Scrutineers of all votes, other than those for the election of Lay Representatives, in the Representative Session of the next Conference; and, as such, is an ex-officio member of that Session.

7. The Rev. George Marris is re-appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

8. The Rev. Wesley Woolmer is re-appointed to act as Precentor at the Conference of 1916, and as such is an ex-officio member of the Representative Session of that Conference.

9. The Rev. Herbert Brook Workman, M.A., D.Lit., D.D., is appointed as our Representative to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of America in 1916.

10. The Conference appoints the following Ministers and Laymen as our Representatives to the World Conference on Faith and Order: Revs. William Crawford, M.A., W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., John H. Ritson, M.A., D.D., John S. Simon, D.D., John G. Tasker, D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; Messrs. Tilden J. Bisseker, Richard W. Booth, J. Vanner Early, Sir Norval W. Helme, M.P., William Middlebrook, M.P., Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart. The Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., is the Convener.

The late Rev. Richard W. Allen, M.V.O.—The Conference places on record its high appreciation of the life and service of the late Rev. Richard W. Allen, M.V.O. By his long labours for the spiritual welfare of soldiers and sailors he won the respect of officers and endeared himself to the men. By the part he played in the establishment of Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes throughout the Empire, he contributed to the social and moral welfare of the whole Army and Navy. He rendered distinguished service to the nation by his unwearying labours. He was held in affection throughout the Church for his high Christian character and devotion to duty.

The late Rev. John Bell (B).—The Conference records with deepest regret and a keen sense of loss the death of the Rev. John Bell. In every department of the work of Methodism with which he was connected, his business aptitude, sound judgment, and unfailing fidelity were acknowledged by all who were associated with him. The Conference specially records with admiration and gratitude the valuable service which Mr. Bell rendered as the first Secretary of the Connexional Fund, the affairs of which he directed with such eminent ability for fifteen years. To his wise administration and assiduous care the present sound position of the Fund is largely due, while his fairness of mind and kindliness of heart in his official relations with his brethren have won unstinted recognition. His memory will long be cherished as that of a true man, an efficient administrator, a loyal friend, and a faithful Minister of Jesus Christ.

Dr. Arthur Vinter, M.A.—The late Dr. Vinter was a man of marked ability and high attainments. As a University student, a Master of the Leys, and Head Master of Woodhouse Grove School he acquitted himself with distinction. In the latter post especially, his powers of organisation and inspiration found adequate scope and were abundantly fruitful. The Conference records with unqualified satisfaction the high value of his services, extending over a period of many years, and is persuaded that a goodly company of past and present pupils will cherish his memory with gratitude and affection.

Mr. Samuel Leigh, B.A.—On his retirement from the Head Mastership of the East Anglia School after thirty-four years of service, the Conference records its high appreciation of the services rendered by Mr. Leigh, and of the irreparable loss which the School has sustained. Mr. Leigh was no ordinary Head Master, inasmuch as he was the father of the School, and under him it has grown and prospered for thirty-four consecutive years. The high religious tone and the Methodist atmosphere have been maintained to the great advantage of our Church. His priceless memorial is, and will be, the multitudes of honoured and influential men whose boyhood he trained and inspired.

The late Mr. Alfred W. Mager.—The Conference regrets to learn of the death of Mr. Alfred W. Mager. He was associated with Dr. Stephenson in the founding of the National Children's Home, and he served it with devotion and zeal for more than forty years. The Lancashire branch, of which he was the first Governor, is a tribute to his sagacity and industry, and throughout the world there is a large number of old boys and girls of the Home who owe their success, temporal and spiritual, largely to him. He was a great gift of God to the Home, and his noble Christian character has been an inspiration to many in the same service.

The Methodist Bureau.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee. (See Appendix XVII.)

2. The Conference repeats its former declaration in respect to the work of the Bureau, requiring all Ministers on the removal of any member to send to the Bureau Committee full details of the name of the member and the Circuit to which he is removing.

" Peter F. Wood.

The Rev. HENRY CARTER is the Convener.

The Allan Library.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-affirms its resolutions of last year, viz.:

(1) That consent be given to the sale of such books from the "Allan Library," and the additions thereto, as the Committee of Management may judge it wise to part with; provided that all valuable manuscripts and all early printed books be retained, as also all such books as would help to form a standard Methodist Library, and to preserve the continuity of the "Allan Library."

(2) That the sum of £1,000 be the limit to be realised by the sale of books during the year next ensuing.

(3) That any books which the Committee may decide to sell shall be disposed of through the Public Sale Rooms, as the only way of ascertaining their market value, as required by the Deed.

(4) The following are appointed the Committee of Management for the ensuing year: The Rev. R. WADDY Moss, D.D., President of the Conference; DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; J. Alfred Sharp, Book Steward; and

Rev. Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D.,	Mr. James Botteley,
,, Nehemiah Curnock,	,, Edward Crawshaw,
,, Dr. W. T. Davison, M.A.,	,, Arthur H. Kelly,
,, Marshall Hartley,	,, Edmund S. Lamplough,
,, John Telford, B.A.,	Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
,, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,	Mr. John Shepherd,
,, Dr. Herbert B. Workman,	,, George Stampe.

3. The Rev. J. ALFRED SHARP is appointed Treasurer; the Rev. NEHEMIAH CURNOCK and JOHN TELFORD, B.A., Honorary Librarians; and the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

Compulsory Supernumeraryship.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to negotiate with any Ministers whose cases may be referred to it by the Pastoral Session, with a view to their retirement from the Ministry.

3. The Committee is empowered to make financial arrangements to that end.

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. R. WADDY Moss, D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. James Critchison,	Mr. J. Lees Barker,
„ Marshall Hartley,	Right Hon. T. R. Ferens, M.P.,
„ George Marris,	Mr. Henry Holloway,
„ Enoch Salt,	„ Williamson Lamplough,
„ F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,	„ George Shrubsall.

The Rev. JAMES CRITCHISON is the Convener.

Financial Appeals by Strangers.—Considering the many abuses to which the Connexion is continually exposed by applications from unauthenticated strangers from abroad to use our Trust Property for financial ends, the Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the credentials of all such, and to express an opinion as to the advisability or otherwise of allowing the use of our Trust Property for the contemplated appeals: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the EX-PRESIDENT; the SECRETARY; and

Rev. Josiah Banham,	Mr. E. Lindsay Blee,
„ William H. Hart,	„ Isaac C. Griffith,
„ Marshall Hartley,	„ Alfred Hartley,
„ Thomas Kirkup,	„ Henry Holloway,
„ John E. Wakerley,	„ Ezra T. Wilks.

The Rev. WILLIAM H. HART is the Convener.

The Custody of Connexional Documents.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Custodian and Registrar.

2. The Conference directs that Memorials and Suggestions to the Conference be kept in the safe for two years only, and that all Memorials and Suggestions prior to 1912 be destroyed.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. Enoch Salt Custodian and Registrar.

Common Cash.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix X.)

2. The Committee shall consist of the Officers of all the Funds included in the Common Cash arrangement.

3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Treasurers of the Missionary Society; the Treasurers and Deputy Treasurer of the Home Mission Fund; the Ministerial Treasurer of the Children's Fund; the Secretary of the London Mission and Extension Fund; and the Secretary of the Connexional Funds Office (Convener).

4. The Tables of Profit Distribution and of Interest shall be printed in the Minutes.

5. The Conference agrees to the request of the Trustees of the Central Buildings, Westminster, for the inclusion of their accounts in the Common Cash system.

Conference Tribune and Platform.—The Conference directs that a small rostrum or tribune shall be placed, when necessary, in front of the platform, from which those who desire to address the Conference may speak. The Conference also directs that the platform be brought within as small a compass as possible.

National Insurance Act.—The Conference recognises the widespread desire, expressed in suggestions from many District Synods, for the formation of an Approved Society in association with Methodism, and whilst unable to assume responsibility for such an undertaking, cordially welcomes any proposals which make it practicable for our people to join a sound and well-managed society in connexion with their own Church or Sunday School.

Rearrangement of Circuit Boundaries in North London.—The Conference refers the whole question of the rearrangement of the Kentish Town and adjacent Circuits to the London Mission and Extension Fund Committee, and directs it to act in conjunction with the Quarterly Meetings and Synods concerned, and to report to the Conference.

Proposed Commission on the Present Position and Prospects of Evangelical Religion in England and Wales.—The Conference re-appoints the following Representatives to co-operate with the other Churches in taking the necessary steps to give effect to this proposed Commission:

Rev. Henry Haigh, D.D.,
„ John Hornabrook,
„ T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A.,
Mr. J. Vanner Early,
„ Isaac H. Holden,
„ Henry Holloway.

Co-operative Training of Methodist Ministers.—1. There has not been any meeting of this Committee during the year.

2. The following is the Wesleyan Methodist portion of the Committee: The Rev. R. WADDY MOSS, D.D., President of the Conference; DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. Dr. Davison, M.A.,
„ Dr. George G. Findlay,
„ Dr. J. Scott Lidgett,

Sir George J. Smith,
Mr. H. Arthur Smith, M.A.,
„ Ezra T. Wilks,
„ H. Kingsley Wood,
„ Peter F. Wood.

The Rev. J. ALFRED SHARP is the Convener.

National Union of Journalists.—The Conference receives and adopts the following Resolutions:

1. In the judgment of the Committee, the Conference in its Representative Session has in no way encouraged Ministerial reporting, but on the other hand has given full facilities to all authorised representatives of the Press.

2. While recognising that certain advantages from the Methodist standpoint have been secured by the provision of reports of the Conference for daily newspapers by men versed in Connexional procedure and familiar with the intricacies of Methodist administration, and remembering that the Conference has no power to prevent Ministers from contributing to the Press, nevertheless, in view of the serious issues involved, the Conference thinks it undesirable that Ministers should personally compete with professional journalists in reporting the proceedings of Conference for the Daily Press.

(3) The Committee is of the opinion that the remedy lies ultimately in the hands of the Editors of the newspapers themselves.

(4) The Committee further recommends that the appeal of the National Union of Journalists so far as it affects the reporting of matters dealt with in the Pastoral Session of the Conference, should be sent to that Session for its consideration.

Unification of Young People's Work.—1. The Conference re-appoints a Special Committee, "consisting of the Officers of the Sunday School, Wesley Guild, and Temperance Committees, together with ten Ministers and ten Laymen, to consider and report to the next Conference as to what steps should be taken to unify the work amongst the Young People in our Circuits and Missions" (Minutes, 1914, p. 106).

2. The following is the Special Committee: The PRESIDENT, EX-PRESIDENT, and SECRETARY of the Conference; the Officers of the Departments;

Rev. J. Williams Butcher,
„ Henry Carter,
„ W. Blackburn FitzGerald,
Mr. Alfred Brookes,
Sir Ernest H. Lamb, C.M.G., M.P.,
Mr. John I. Parkes,
„ J. Wesley Walker;

Rev. Edward J. Brailsford,
„ Alfred J. Costain, M.A.,
„ Josiah Flew,
„ T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A.,

„ E. Thornton Smith,
Mr. Herbert Barraclough,
„ J. Crowle-Smith,
„ George P. Hargreaves,
Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, M.P.,
Mr. William Middlebrook, M.P.,
„ Sidney H. Morgan, A.M.I.C.E.,
„ F. George Neave, LL.D.,
Mrs. Peter Thompson,
„ Charles Wenyon,
Miss Lena Wallis.

The Rev. J. WILLIAMS BUTCHER is the Convener.

Sunday Observance.—The Conference views with deep concern the granting of seven-day licences to places of entertainment, and is strongly of opinion that our protest must be made effective now, or we are within sight of having every place of entertainment and every form of popular sport making Sunday their chief day. The Conference urges our people who are members of County and Urban Councils to exercise all possible vigilance in assisting to prevent the granting of seven-day licences in cases which may lead to further secular entertainments on the Lord's Day. Further, the Conference calls the attention of the Board of Management of Book Affairs to the desirability of issuing some timely and concise publications on the privilege and duty of Sabbath Observance.

The Hamley Bequest.—The Conference repeats the instruction of last year authorising the President and Secretary of the Conference to take all necessary steps, with a view to the transfer of the legacy of the late John Hamley, late of Thruselton, Devonshire, to the Trustees for Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Purposes (Registered) to be administered by the Board in the interests of Methodism.

Supplementary Historic Roll.—The Conference approves the proposal to open a Supplementary Historic Roll, upon which the children and grandchildren of Methodists who signed the Twentieth Century Roll, together with other Methodists, may inscribe their names.

2. The Conference directs that the proceeds of the Fund be divided equally between the Trust of the Westminster Central Hall and Connexional Buildings and the National Children's Home and Orphanage.

3. The Conference authorises the Committee to take into consideration the claims of the Sunday School Department should the state of the Fund permit.

4. The Conference appoints the following Committee, with power to add to their number: Rev. R. Waddy Moss, D.D.,

President of the Conference; DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. J. Williams Butcher,
„ Marshall Hartley,
„ John Hornabrook,
„ J. Herbert Rider,
„ Enoch Salt,
„ W. Hodson Smith,
„ Thomas E. Westerdale,
„ F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,
Mr. Alfred Barriball, B.A.,
Mr. E. Lindsay Blee,
Lieut.-Col. Charles S. Denniss,
Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, M.P.,
Sir Norval W. Helme, M.P.,
Mr. Henry Holloway,
„ William Middlebrook, M.P.,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
„ Charles C. Wakefield, D.L.,
Mr. J. Wesley Walker.

The Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON is the Convener.

Methodist Union.—The Conference, in accepting the Report of the Œcumenical Methodist Commission, expresses its profound gratitude at the increasing desire for Unity among all branches of the Methodist Church; and being convinced that the time has come when a serious effort should be made to unite in one Church organisation the different branches of British Methodism, the Conference appoints a Committee to collect information and report to the next Conference (Minutes, 1913, p. 97).

1. The Conference receives an Interim Report.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee as follows: Rev. R. WADDY MOSS, D.D., President of the Conference; DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. John S. Banks, D.D.,
„ John Elsworth,
„ J. Edward Harlow,
„ Thomas Kirkup,
„ J. Herbert Rider,
„ William Wakinshaw,
Mr. Alfred Brookes,
„ Charles W. Early,
„ Isaac Foot, Jun.,
„ William Middlebrook, M.P.,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
Mr. William H. Smith.

The Rev. E. ALDOM FRENCH is the Convener.

Thanksgiving and Intercession Services.—1. The Conference directs that a solemn service of Thanksgiving and Intercession be held in every chapel, mission hall, and other preaching-place in Great Britain, and in all British Possessions on the Mission Field.

OF THANKSGIVING:

That we have been preserved from the horrors of invasion;
For the unity of the Nation and Empire;
For the loyal and loving response of our fellow-subjects beyond the seas;
For the full harmony between our Allies and ourselves;
For the measure of success which has already been granted to our common efforts:
For the devotion of those who have laid down their lives for their country and for the multitude of others who are ready to do so.

OF INTERCESSION:

For our King and Country, and for our Allies:
To give wisdom and strength to the Government and all who are in authority;
To grant success to our arms in our defence of righteousness and honour;
To grant that peace may be restored;
That the Divine purposes may speedily be fulfilled;
To grant to our Allies all the blessings that we ask for ourselves;
For our enemies, that God would graciously open their eyes and change their hearts.

2. The Conference affectionately invites the Irish and Colonial Conferences to hold a similar service simultaneously.

3. The Conference appoints the following Committee with plenary powers to arrange the date, and suggested order of service, and generally to consider and decide the best method of giving effect to the foregoing direction, and to meet at such times as the President of the Conference in his discretion may consider appropriate:

The PRESIDENT, EX-PRESIDENT, and SECRETARY of the Conference, and the VICE-PRESIDENT of the Irish Conference; and

Rev. Joseph H. Bateson,
" Henry Bett,
" Harry Bisseker, M.A.,
Rev. J. Williams Butcher,
" W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D.,

Rev. Joseph Dixon,
" Henry Haigh, D.D.,
" John Hornabrook,
" T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A.,
" R. Martin Pope, M.A.,
" J. Alfred Sharp,
" John Telford, B.A.,
" F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,
Sir George Hayter Chubb, Bart.,
Sir W. Howell Davies, M.P.,
Lieut.-Col. Charles S. Denniss,
Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, M.P.,
Mr. Gerald France, M.P.,
Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, M.P.,
Mr. Williamson Lamplough,
Sir Robert W Perks, Bart.,
Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, M.P.,
Sir George Smith, D.L.

The Rev. J. ALFRED SHARP is the Convener.

War Emergency Fund.—1. The Conference recognises with deep gratitude the generous and public-spirited manner in which our Circuits have consented to such Ministerial re-arrangements as have enabled our Church to contribute its share towards meeting the great National Emergency.

2. That inasmuch as these rearrangements have already created many financial responsibilities, and may create many more as the War proceeds, in relation to enlisted Ministers, and also to Chaplains who are not appointed to Circuits, the Conference resolves to deal with these financial problems by raising a special "WAR EMERGENCY FUND," to be administered by a War Emergency Committee.

3. The Fund shall be created by simultaneous collections in all our Chapels on the last Sunday in October, 1915, and it shall be administered so as to meet the equitable claims of Chaplains and enlisted Ministers, also of Circuits, Connexional Institutions, and Funds that have been directly affected by the special arrangements made by our Church during the period of the War.

4. The Conference appoints the following Committee :

The PRESIDENT, EX-PRESIDENT, and SECRETARY of the Conference ; and

Rev. Joseph H. Bateson,
" Samuel F. Collier,
" John Elsworth,
" Owen Evans,
" Richard Hall,
" Marshall Hartley,
" John Hornabrook,
" John Kinnings,
Rev. Thomas Kirkup,
" Edward P. Lowry,
" George Marris,
" Enoch Salt,
" J. Alfred Sharp,
" R. Bevan Shepherd, M.A.
" John E. Wakerley,
" C. Ensor Walters,

Rev. Owen Watkins,
,, Thomas E. Westerdale,
,, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,
Rear-Admiral William J. Anstey, R.N.,
Mr. John Lees Barker,
Brig.-General Sir John Barnsley,
Mr. Walter W. Berry,
,, James Botteley,
Lieut.-Col. Charles S. Denniss,
Mr. Charles W. Early,
Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, M.P.,
Mr. Ewen Harper,
Mr. Harold Hartley,
,, Isaac H. Holden,
,, Henry Holloway,
,, George W. Kenyon,
,, Williamson Lamplough,
,, William Mewburn,
,, William Middlebrook, M.P.,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
Mr. Arthur R. Price,
Sir John S. Randles, M.P.,
,, George Smith, D.L.,
Mr. H. Kingsley Wood.

5. The Conference appoints Mr. WILLIAM MIDDLEBROOK, M.P., and Mr. GEORGE W. KENYON as Treasurers of the Fund, and the Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary of the Conference, as Secretary.

The Methodist Church in Canada—Belgian Relief Fund.—1. The Methodist Church in Canada having raised a Fund for the aid of the Belgian Refugees in England and other Belgians suffering from the effects of the European War, the General Conference desires that such Funds should be administered by a Committee to be appointed by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference.

Already a sum of £2,000 has been received for the credit of this Fund, and has been placed on deposit at the London City and Midland Bank.

2. The Fund is to be applied: (1) In rendering some assistance to those Churches, Circuits, or individuals who have undertaken the responsibility of providing homes or maintenance for Belgian Refugees in their various localities.

(2) Assisting Belgians in their own country, should the Committee so determine.

(3) Assisting Belgians to return to their own country.

3. The Conference gratefully acknowledges the timely aid to the suffering Belgian people thus generously rendered by the Methodist Church in Canada, and appoints the following Committee approved by the Committee in Canada to administer the Fund: REV. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President of the Conference; Rev. Simpson Johnson, Secretary; Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart., Right Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, M.P.

4. The Conference directs the Committee to report regularly and in detail to the Officers of the General Conference of the Methodist Church in Canada.

5. The Conference suggests that as the Methodist Church of Canada comprises not only the Wesleyan Methodist, but also the Primitive and the United Methodist Churches, the Committee in administering the Canadian Fund should include within its scope all branches of the Methodist Church which have undertaken Belgian Relief work in this country.

Haymes Trust for Kibworth Beauchamp.—The Conference appoints the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., as Trustee in the place of the late Rev. John Bell (B).

William Thackwray Bequest.—1. In the residuary estate of the late Mr. William Thackwray, of Liverpool, a sum of £226 5*s.* 11*d.* was to be paid to the Treasurer of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. The Executors had paid the same to the credit of the Wesleyan Methodist Church into the London City and Midland Bank, Ltd. (Westminster Branch) in the joint names of the Rev. Dinsdale T. Young, Ex-President of Conference, and Simpson Johnson, Secretary, and the Executors were desirous to know that the Conference had apportioned the money to some particular Fund.

2. The Conference resolves that the sum shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.

3. The Conference tenders its special thanks to the Solicitors for their courtesy and help in this arrangement.

Organisation and Financial Basis of the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.—1. The Rev. ENOCH SALT is the Convener.

2. The Conference resolves that this Committee confer with the Committee to be appointed for the Quinquennial Revision of the "General Assessment."

3. The Conference refers to this Committee the following matters which the Conference of 1914 referred to the General Committee:

(1) Suggestion of Carlisle Synod (Representative Session):
That Standing Order (No. 24) relating to Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for one year be amended so that no deduction shall be made from the special grants on account of such Ministers not being members of the Annuitant Society.

(2) Suggestion of Manchester Synod (Pastoral Session):
That all Ministers in Full Connexion be recommended to become subscribers to the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, and that steps be taken in all Synods to organise a voluntary movement in this direction.

(3) Conference in its Representative Session directed the Committee to consider whether it can propose to Conference a scheme of Ministerial contribution to the Fund.

4. The Conference also refers to this Committee the following Suggestions from the District Synods:

(1) SECOND LONDON.—That an earnest effort should be made to prevent the diminution of the grants of the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund; and that pending the settlement of the Fund on a more satisfactory basis, a special subscription, in which Ministers and Laymen would unite, should be raised. The Synod pledges itself to do its utmost to further the success of such an effort.

(2) CARLISLE.—That it is neither just nor expedient to assess the Ministers in the interests of the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, inasmuch as the grants from this Fund are an integral part of the ministerial allowances. That the amount necessary should be raised by subscriptions, and by direct assessment of Circuits instead of the collection as at present.

Closing of Trust Property.—The Conference resolves that the words "or closed" be added to Question LVI. of the "Order and Form" so that it shall read: "Has any Chapel, Schoolhouse, or Soldiers' or Sailors' Home been opened, re-opened, or closed, of which no return has yet been made?"

The King's Example.—The Conference, having tendered to His Majesty the King its respectful and loyal appreciation of his example in prohibiting the use of alcoholic liquors in the Royal Household during the period of the war, affirms its united determination to follow the Royal example.

Central Mission and Special Mission Committees.—The Conference refers the whole question of "Special Committees for Management" of local missions in large towns and of "Central Mission Committees appointed by the Conference" (Minutes, 1910, pp. 42–46) to the Home Mission Committee for consideration during the year; a Report to be presented to the next Conference.

Constitution of the Army and Navy Board.—The Conference refers to the Home Mission Committee, for consideration during the year, the question of associating with the Army and Navy Board members of other Christian Churches who are rendering service to Methodism in connexion with this work.

Scarborough (Queen Street) Chapel.—The Conference expresses its deep sympathy with the Trustees of the Queen Street Chapel, Scarborough, and recommends the case to the generous consideration of the Methodist people.

Memorial Service for the Gallant Dead.—The Conference resolves that a permanent Memorial Copy of the Roll of the Gallant Dead, signed by the President, be sent to every home represented; and that the Army and Navy Board be asked to undertake the distribution of the same.

Theological Institution Affairs.—The Conference resolves:

1. That in the present National emergency, one of the Colleges of the Theological Institution be placed at the disposal of the Government, or some other public authority, on suitable conditions and for some well-defined National purpose.

2. That Handsworth College be first named as the one most likely, architecturally and in other respects, to meet the special requirements; and that, if it is accepted, the Principal shall remain in residence, and the other Tutors shall be appointed by Conference, if possible in the neighbourhood of Birmingham.

3. That, in the event of none of the Colleges being required for public purposes, no provision shall be made for filling the place of the Rev. Dr. Moulton during his absence in India, and the staffs of the other three Colleges shall be reduced by the withdrawal from each of them of one Tutor, who shall not be a Principal nor a House-Governor.

4. That in any case in which it may be possible for a Tutor to occupy the position of a Circuit Minister and at the same time remain in his present house, satisfactory arrangements shall be made between the Circuit concerned and the authorities of the Theological Institution.

5. That the following Committee be appointed to deal with the question of placing one of our Theological Colleges at the disposal of the Government, including any re-arrangement such as would deal with Westminster College or any other Connexional premises:

The PRESIDENT, EX-PRESIDENT, and SECRETARY of the Conference;

Rev. J. Williams Butcher,
„ W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D.,
„ Marshall Hartley,
„ T. Galland Hartley,
„ John Hornabrook,

„ Alfred Brookes,
Sir W. Howell Davies, M.P.,
Mr. J. Wilcox Edge,
Sir Norval W. Helme, M.P.,
Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, M.P.,
Mr. Isaac H. Holden,
„ Thomas S. Howorth,
„ Williamson Lamplough,
„ William Middlebrook, M.P.,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
„ John S. Randles, M.P.,
„ George Smith, D.L.,
Mr. H. Kingsley Wood,

The Rev. T. GALLAND HARTLEY is the Convener.

The Trust Properties of the National Children's Home and Orphanage.—1. In consequence of the death of a number of Trustees of the different Branches of the National Children's Home and Orphanage, and of the resignation of other Trustees, the Conference appoints the Rev. William Hodson Smith, the Rev. John Hornabrook, the Rev. Marshall Hartley, Mr. John Robert Barlow, Mr. Francis Horner, and Sir Charles Cheers Wakefield to be Trustees under the respective Trust Deeds of all properties of which they are not at present Trustees.

2. It having been reported to the Conference that the following Trustees of various Branches of the National Children's Home and Orphanage have expressed a desire to be released from their position as such Trustees, the Conference accepts and consents to the resignation of the Rev. John Smith Simon, D.D., the Rev. Mark Guy Pearse, the Rev. John Hugh Morgan, Sir Thomas Barlow, Mr. Alfred Bentley, Mr. Isaac Alexander Mack, Mr. John Israel Parkes, and Mr. Peter Frederick Wood from their positions as Trustees under the various Deeds relating to the different Branches of the Institution, and directs that all necessary steps be taken effectively to vest the said properties in the remaining Trustees. And the Conference directs the President to execute all such Deeds and Documents as may be necessary to testify such consent.

3. The Conference approves of the proposal that the Board of Trustees for National Children's Home purposes shall apply for a Certificate of Incorporation under the Charitable Trustees Incorporation Act, 1872, and directs that all necessary steps be taken for the purpose of carrying this proposal into effect.

4. In consequence of the death of a number of the Trustees of portions of the Branch at Ramsey, in the Isle of Man, held upon the trusts of the deed of the 28th day of January, 1881, the Conference appoints the Rev. William Hodson Smith, the Rev. Marshall Hartley, the Rev. John Hornabrook, and Sir Charles Cheers Wakefield to be Trustees of the properties held upon the trusts of the said deed, and the Conference directs the surviving Trustees under the said deed to execute such deeds and documents as may be necessary in order to transfer and effectually vest the said properties in the surviving Trustees and the persons hereby appointed to be Trustees to fill vacancies caused by death.

The Westminster Central Hall Trust.—The Conference adopts the following Resolution of Appointment :

> The Conference having previously appointed four of the Trustees in whom the legal Estate should be vested, and two of these, the Revs. Dr. Henry John Pope and Albert Clayton, having died, and Sir George Smith, D.L., desiring to be relieved of the responsibility, thus leaving Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart., as sole Trustee for legal purposes—

The Conference now appoints Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary of the Conference, in the place of Henry John Pope, deceased ; Rev. Frederick Luke Wiseman, B.A., in the place of Albert Clayton, deceased ; Mr. William Middlebrook, M.P., in the place of Sir George Smith, D.L., resigned.

Extended Ministerial Appointments under the Irish Conference.—1. The Conference receives the following Report from the Irish Conference :

The Irish Conference having taken Counsels' opinion on the question whether, and if so to what extent, the trusts under which the Connexional properties in Ireland are held, or the position of Trustees in relation thereto, may be affected by departures from the ordinary term of three years' appointments, and having been advised that appointments however made to the same Circuit for more than three successive years are invalid, but recognising that cases may arise in which it may be desirable to make extended appointments, and having appointed this Committee to confer with the British Conference as to how, if at all, such appointments may be made without prejudice to the position of Trustees or the interests of the Trusts; the Irish Conference appoints the following Sub-Committee or Deputation to meet such Committee as may be appointed by the British Conference to deal with the subject, with power to the Vice-President for the time being to appoint any other member or members of the Committee to take the place of any member or members of the Sub-Committee unable to act:

The Vice-President and Secretary of the Irish Conference; Rev. William R. Budd, Rev. William Corrigan (Convener of the Committee), Mr. R. W. Booth, Mr. A. M. Fullerton, Mr. J. B. McCutcheon, and Mr. Anderson.

2. The Conference appoints the following Committee to meet the Irish Sub-Committee and consider the question as affecting Ministerial Appointments to Irish Conference Trust Estates, but with the understanding that should its deliberations reach a point affecting Ministerial Appointments to British Conference Trust Estates, it shall report back to the Conference:

The PRESIDENT, EX-PRESIDENT, and the SECRETARY of the Conference;

Rev. Grainger Hargreaves,
„ John Hornabrook,
„ J. Alfred Sharp,
John S. Simon, D.D.,
Mr. John Cooper,
„ William Middlebrook, M.P.,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
„ George Smith, D.L.

The Rev. J. ALFRED SHARP is the Convener.

The President has authority to fill any vacancy caused by death or inability to attend.

Ministers Accepted for Service in Specified Countries only.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the following Report of the Special Committee appointed last year (Minutes, 1914, pp. 102, 103).

The Committee was appointed to consider the position of Ministers who have been accepted for service in specified countries only, and to advise the Conference whether, and if so on what terms and conditions, such ministers may be admitted to the ranks of those on whose area of service no limit rests. (Minutes, 1914, pp. 102, 103.)

After a full consideration of the varying conditions under which Ministers have been accepted for service in different areas the Committee resolved to make the following recommendations to the Conference:

(1) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN INDIA.—The Secretary reported that all the Ministers who had been received for work in India and who had made application for Full Status had made their payments in accordance with the financial arrangements made by Conference, and Full Status had been granted to them on those terms.

Inasmuch as each of these Brethren has paid the £160 for the privilege of entering upon a house on returning to this country, it was resolved:

> That in the event of such Minister not claiming a house in the Home Work (through death, not returning to this country, or from any other cause) the £160 be returned to him or to his heirs and administrators; and that meanwhile interest at the rate of 2½ per cent. be paid to him annually so long as the £160 is in the hands of the Missionary Society less any amount which the Society will be charged by any of the Home Funds in excess of what has been received from the Minister in question for that Fund.

(2) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN WEST INDIES.—The Committee recommends that the following payments be made by Ministers who have been received for work in the West Indies, and who desire to have the restriction which limits their area of service removed:

i. To the Home Mission Fund ... £160

ii. To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, for each child under 19 years of age ... ... £40 for each child.

(The above payments shall be made when the Minister actually returns to a Home Circuit. Whenever his return has been approved by the Committee appointed for this purpose the money shall be placed in the hands of the Foreign Missionary Society before the case is dealt with by the Pastoral Session of the Conference.)

iii. To the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund ... £7 for each year counted upon admission by the Conference.

(This payment to be made by the Foreign Missionary Committee on behalf of the Minister concerned.)

(3) In the course of the Committee's deliberations frequent reference was made to Ministers from other churches. It was the unanimous opinion of the Committee that such Ministers, if received by us, should make the payments in accordance with the Memorandum of Agreement now existing and printed in the Minutes of Conference, 1914, pp. 397, 398.

2. The Conference further resolves that so far as the payments to the Children's Fund are concerned, the Ministers in India and the West Indies shall be placed if possible on an equal footing, and that this question shall be referred to the Pastoral Committee already in existence.

Sunday School Programme of Advance.—The Conference resolves that Circuits shall continue the Sunday School Programme of Advance for another year.

Evangelical Free Churches' Concerted Action.—The Officers of the "National Council of the Evangelical Free Churches" having sent the following Resolution of its Committee:

> That this Committee requests its Officers to invite each of the Evangelical Free Church Denominations to appoint Representatives for the purpose of conference, as to whether preliminary steps can be taken to promote closer co-operation among the Churches, especially in the rural districts;

The Conference appoints the following:

Rev. John Hornabrook,	Mr. Walter W. Berry,
„ J. Alfred Sharp,	„ Henry Holloway,
„ F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,	„ J. Wesley Walker.

Gurney; the Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, M.P., and Messrs. Henry Holloway and William Mewburn. One Minister and one Layman to be elected by each Financial District Synod in September.

Rev. John G. Beauchamp,	Mr. George Corderoy,
„ Frederick H. Benson, B.A.,	„ William E. Farr,
„ William Collett,	„ Arthur P. Grubb,
„ James E. Dixon,	„ Ewen Harper,
„ John Grimshaw,	„ Alfred Hartley,
„ T. Galland Hartley,	„ Herbert A. Hartley,
„ John Hornabrook,	„ Edwin J. Hunt,
„ Frederick M. Parkinson,	„ Alfred Jermyn,
„ David Rycroft,	„ Thomas D. Leith, S.S.C.,
„ Enoch Salt,	„ Edward R. Lightwood, B.A.,
„ John S. Simon, D.D.,	„ William J. Marsh,
„ J. Havelock Thompson,	„ William J. Moss,
Mr. Henry Ball,	„ George McArthur Scales.

The Rev. John Kinnings is the Convener.

Methodism on the South Yorkshire Coalfield.—1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Commission. (See Appendix XVIII.)

2. The Conference re-appoints the Commission as follows:

„ D. F. Walker,
Sir J. Tudor Walters, M.P.,
Mr. B. G. Wood.

The Rev. Albert H. Walker, B.A., is the Convener.

Election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.—The Conference resolves that prior to the annual nomination in the Conference of persons for the sixteen vacancies, it shall be definitely told, either verbally by the Secretary of the Conference or by notice printed on the Nomination Papers, which of the thirty-five districts of Methodism in Great Britain have been unrepresented on the forty-eight representation for the previous three years.

Christian Evidence Mission Committee.—The Conference receives the Report and discharges the Committee.

Q. XXXI. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, fifty-seven:

(1) Thomas W. Jamieson: born at Channerwick, Shetland, April 3, 1870. His parents removed to Gateshead when he was four years of age. From childhood he lived in the fear of the Lord, and at fourteen, through the ministry of the late Rev. Thomas Cook, dedicated himself to the service of Christ and His Church. After three years at Didsbury, he began his earnest ministry in 1896, and in every place the churches under his care prospered, and many souls were won. He had great natural gifts, and they were diligently cultivated. As a preacher he was fresh and vigorous, and in the open air, as well as in the church, attracted large congregations. As a pastor he was eminently successful; his genius for friendship won and retained the love of both old and young; whilst his compassion for those in need made his home a house of mercy for numbers of distressed people. During his ministry in Liverpool he met with an accident, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. This, with his ceaseless toil, undoubtedly shortened his life. On July 21, 1914, while on a journey he was suddenly called to his reward, in the eighteenth year of his ministry.

(2) George P. Summerhays: born March 1, 1848, at Ingley Green, North Devon. He was converted at the age of fourteen in the Bible Christian Chapel at Petrockstowe, and from that day became an earnest worker for the Master. In 1871 he passed into our Ministry from the Bideford Circuit, and for more than twenty years laboured faithfully in country circuits. At Canterbury, Freshwater, and Colchester he was a power for good among the soldiers. His sermons were thoughtful and impressive. He was an ideal pastor, considerate and chivalrous in his treatment of others. He loved to present Christ in every sermon, had a high conception of duty, and valiantly struggled against physical weakness in order to fulfil his ministry. In private life he manifested a tender sympathy that was developed by his prolonged disability and pain. At the early age of forty-seven his health broke down, and he passed a long retirement in his native county, always witnessing for Christ by his unaffected piety and gentleness. He was regular in visiting the sick until his sight failed a few years before his death at Barnstaple on August 1, 1914.

(3) W. Rodwell Jones: born in London, May 30, 1834, of Methodist parentage. When fifteen years of age he found the joy of salvation during some special services conducted by a student at Richmond. His conversion awakened his intellect, he applied himself to study, became a Candidate for the Ministry in 1855, and after three years at Didsbury was appointed to Belper. For forty-six years he laboured with acceptance and success. He did the work of an evangelist and made full proof of his ministry. His sermons were thoughtful expositions of divine truth and charged with spiritual power and earnest appeals. His tenderness of heart and gracious wisdom peculiarly fitted him to "feed the flock of God" in diligent pastoral visitation. He was a faithful administrator who conserved and extended Methodism in his circuits. He was a member of the Legal Conference, and did faithful service as Financial Secretary in four Districts, and as Chairman of the Kent District for six years. In 1904 he retired from active service and settled at Ealing, winning in the eventide of his life a wealth of affection by his genial character and ministrations. His vigorous and cultured mind was unclouded, his spiritual experience was in the deep things of God, his life was beautiful in holiness, and his brotherly kindness made him welcome everywhere. The call came suddenly as he was talking with his family on September 7, 1914, in his eighty-first year and the fifty-seventh of his ministry.

(4) George Searle: born at Old Brompton, Kent, in the year 1852. Bereaved of his father in early childhood, he owed much to the simple piety and wise care of his mother. He was converted under the ministry of the Rev. I. E. Page when about fifteen years of age, and soon became actively interested in the work of Sunday-school and church. Accepted for the Ministry in 1876, he was sent to Tenterden, where he is still lovingly remembered. He had a singularly beautiful character, transparently sincere and lovable. He read widely and with discrimination in both theological and general literature. His preaching was thoughtful, his administration tactful and patient. After only a few days in his new sphere at Leeds, the sudden call came to higher service, and he passed from pain to peace on September 12, 1914, in the sixty-third year of his age and the thirty-ninth of his ministry.

(5) George C. Coad: born at Devoran, Cornwall, February 16, 1850. Mainly through parental influence he was led when quite a boy to trust in Jesus Christ as his Saviour. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry when only nineteen, and after three years at Didsbury College entered upon circuit work. His ministry was highly appreciated, and was fruitful of results among the more thoughtful members of his congregations. He possessed a well-trained and richly furnished mind. His personal qualities of gentleness and winsomeness gained for him a warm place in the hearts of those who knew him best. On account of failing health he became a Supernumerary at the Conference of 1906, and spent the remaining years of his life at Sandal, near Wakefield. But they were years of work and service. At the time of his death he was choirmaster and Sunday-school superintendent. Having spoken at the Circuit Quarterly Meeting on September 21, 1914, he was translated into the higher sphere of love and service.

(6) WILLIAM J. TUCKER: born at Menheniot, December 28, 1859. His conversion took place early in life, and after training at Handsworth College he began his ministry in 1882. Wherever he went he was greatly beloved for his personal piety, his pulpit ministry, keen sympathy with those in any sorrow, and scrupulous attention to the manifold duties of a minister and pastor. Preaching was his delight. His discourses were remarkable for spirituality and simplicity. In close personal touch with his Lord, he drew others to Him continually. As a Superintendent, his judgment was sound, and he never spared himself in the performance of his official duties. He rejoiced in the gifts and helpfulness of others and was genial and brotherly. He died in great peace at Southampton on September 21, 1914, in the thirty-third year of his ministry.

(7) WILLIAM J. BURROW: born at Ugborough, Devonshire, December 2, 1849. He was educated at Tavistock Grammar School, and feared the Lord from his youth. After being accepted as a Candidate he was sent to Oakham. His ministry everywhere was marked by great efficiency. He had a remarkable gift in prayer. As a preacher he was instructive, practical, and intensely fervent, and as a pastor most devoted and self-sacrificing. He was full of sympathy with the people, and delighted in ministering to the sick and poor. He was a brotherly colleague and a capable Superintendent. By his saintly character and personal charm he won the love of all who knew him. Though for some time his health had been failing, he did not spare himself, but seemed more than ever eager to fulfil his ministry. He passed away peacefully on September 27, 1914, at Stourbridge, in the sixty-fifth year of his age and the forty-first of his ministry.

(8) GEORGE DENTON: born in the parish of St. George's, Hanover Square, London, May 5, 1843. He was brought up in the Established Church, but having received spiritual blessing in his youth under the ministry of the Rev. Richard Roberts, he became a Wesleyan Methodist. He was a regular worshipper at Hinde Street Chapel, and a zealous worker in the Sunday school. His business life was spent in the Home Office, but he heard the Divine call to give himself to the work of the ministry, and when twenty-three years of age was accepted as a Candidate and immediately sent out as a supply. He laboured successfully in seventeen circuits, and enjoyed throughout his entire ministry much of the blessing of God. He loved to preach on the central truths of the Gospel, and his interest in the spiritual welfare of his hearers, especially the younger ones, is gratefully remembered by many. He was a sympathetic pastor, his cheerful and genial disposition combined with a keen sense of humour making him a welcome visitor and a helpful companion. He had a genius for friendship. He studied Methodism carefully, and served it with fidelity and success. The call to the higher service came to him in his retirement at Hale, Cheshire, on September 29, 1914, in the seventy-second year of his age, having just entered on the forty-ninth year of his ministry.

(9) ALFRED TUCKER: born at Stratford-on-Avon in 1843. In early youth he made the great decision. This was largely owing to the tender and gracious influences amid which he grew up. Entering the Ministry in 1866, he laboured for forty-seven years, closing his active ministry in 1913. Evangelical earnestness characterised all his service. He was a man of one aim, absorbed in his Master's work. He sought holiness, and lived in close fellowship with his Lord. As a preacher he was careful and lucid in exposition, intensely evangelical in spirit, forceful and fervent in delivery; and not a few in the circuits in which he travelled regard themselves as his "sons in the Gospel." His pastoral duties were faithfully fulfilled. In his administration he was painstaking, always exhibiting, even in the most trying circumstances, a wise and patient demeanour. He retired to Bexhill in 1913, and, as his health permitted, took occasional services in the St. Leonards Circuit. The end came suddenly on October 1, 1914, in the seventy-first year of his age and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

(10) CHARLES BRADLEY: born at Exeter, June 14, 1840. He was converted at the age of sixteen, and at once entered upon active Christian service. At eighteen he became a local preacher, and when accepted for the Ministry was sent to Didsbury, where he proved himself a diligent and successful student. He was a great lover of sacred music, and had considerable artistic gifts. His Christian faith was clear and steadfast. He was a man of strong character, but modest and retiring. His faithful and practical preaching was much appreciated by thoughtful hearers. As a colleague, he was most loyal and generous, and won the utmost confidence and affection. Owing to enfeebled health he became a Supernumerary in 1894, and spent a long and studious eventide at East Dulwich. The end came unexpectedly, but he was able to testify to his unshaken faith in Christ, into whose heavenly presence he peacefully passed on October 3, 1914, at the age of seventy-four.

(11) Edward J. Smith: born at Kedleston, near Derby, on March 24, 1839. From childhood he was the subject of religious impressions. Early in life he came under the influence of Methodist associations, was much impressed by the reading of Moore's Life of Wesley, and at a quiet week-night service realised the great change of his life. At the Conference of 1860 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and soon after was sent as a supply. His ministry extended over forty years. In all his circuits he gave of his best, and was highly esteemed. In 1904 he became a Supernumerary, and settled in the Rock Ferry Circuit, where for years he rendered valuable and much appreciated service. He was a faithful Methodist minister, forceful in preaching, strong and tactful in administration, wise in counsel, a great lover of books, a choice friend, a sympathetic and ever-welcome pastor. He had a fine modesty, never seeking praise for himself. Gradually his strength failed him, and after patiently enduring much suffering he peacefully passed away on October 3, 1914.

(12) Thomas Orton: born at Atherstone in 1843. His father and mother were devoted Methodists, and by their influence he was led in boyhood to decide for Christ. Whilst in business in London he became a valued worker at Great Queen Street. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1869, and next year was appointed to Ely, and laboured in the active ministry till 1905, when he became a Supernumerary. He was a brotherly colleague and a wise and faithful Superintendent, minding every point, great and small, in the Methodist discipline. His sermons were carefully prepared. His style was expository, his diction well chosen, his persuasive manner secured the attention of his hearers and won their hearts. He loved the Bible, and exemplified it in his life. He was devout, courteous, and ingenuous. His patient endurance of affliction and his Christian fortitude endeared him to all who knew him. To the end of his life his cheerfulness was unfailing, his hope in Christ radiant. He peacefully fell asleep in Jesus on October 4, 1914.

(13) RICHARD W. ALLEN, M.V.O.: born October 18, 1833, at Devizes, where his father, the Rev. James Allen, was then travelling. He entered the Ministry in 1859, and after eleven years of circuit life he was appointed to Army work, which became the one absorbing passion of his life. In all the garrisons, but especially Aldershot, the fruits of his labour are a memorial to his zeal. By his tact and perseverance he helped to lay the foundations of that fuller recognition of Wesleyan Methodism in garrison, camp, and man-of-war which is now enjoyed. With clear vision of the need of shielding soldiers and sailors from the temptations incident to their calling, he succeeded in securing the appointment of chaplains to several large garrisons and naval ports, and was also mainly instrumental in the foundation of our Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes. On his retirement, in 1909, from the secretaryship of the Army and Navy Board, an office he had held for twenty-seven years, His Majesty Edward VII. graciously decorated him with the membership of the Victorian Order, the first time such distinction has been granted to a Wesleyan minister. He took over the duties of the secretary of our Prison Committee with all the zest and zeal he had manifested in his former office, and it was largely due to his effort that to-day our ministers are recognised as chaplains to all prisoners claiming to be Wesleyans. He was a man of deeply religious instincts and high Christian ideals, accepting the truth in the full assurance of faith, and preaching it with the same confidence in its saving and regenerating power. By the kindliness and natural amiability of his disposition he made many friends; but amongst them all none entertained for him a warmer feeling of attachment than the soldiers and sailors for whom he had laboured so faithfully through a long course of years. After a few days' illness he peacefully entered into rest on October 8, 1914.

(14) William Earl: born at Witton, near Bath, June 8, 1849. His parents removed to London when he was a child. Accepted by the Conference of 1877, he was sent at once into the home work. He was of a retiring disposition, but firm in devotion to principle. As a preacher he excelled, proclaiming the Word with evangelical force and intense conviction. He was a diligent pastor, with much sympathy for the poor and suffering. As an administrator he showed conspicuous fairness, and laboured to maintain the best interest of the circuits committed to his care. A great student of nature, he was made a Fellow of the Royal Microscopic Society. After a month's work at Sleaford he passed to his reward on October 9, 1914, in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(15) Allen Rees: born at Hong Kong, October 25, 1844, where his father, the first Methodist class-leader in China, was serving in the Royal Engineers. He was brought up at Dover, and there became a local preacher. In 1865 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry and sent to Didsbury. Thirty years of his ministry were spent in London, including a term at Wesley's Chapel, City Road. He was a man of striking individuality and forceful character, who retained to the last in a marked degree mental alertness and youthful vigour. He was a man of wide reading and catholic interests, always awake to the intellectual movements of the day. He possessed pulpit gifts of a high order, uniting a modern outlook upon life and thought, with a tender sympathy and a true evangelical fervour. He was always faithful to the manifold duties and interests of circuit work. He became a member of the Legal Conference in 1908. Active to the last, he passed suddenly to rest on October 13, 1914, after conducting Harvest Thanksgiving Services at Abbey Street Church, Dublin. The subject of his last sermon was "From death to life."

(16) William H. Johnston: born at Hillsborough, co. Down, on August 10, 1835. He became the subject of religious impressions in early life, and at the age of sixteen was converted to God. He entered the Ministry from Kingswood School, where he was Second Master, in 1860. He was a diligent student, especially of theology and the Word of God, and possessed an intimate knowledge of Hebrew and German. He spent fifteen years in German work in London and Stuttgart. His preaching revealed a well-stored mind, and was fresh, incisive, and evangelical. He was of a very retiring disposition, and only those who knew him best had any conception of his intellectual resources. He took a special interest in young men, and laboured earnestly to bring them to Christ. Deep spirituality, moral courage, fervent zeal and untiring devotion were marked characteristics of his long and honourable ministry. He passed peacefully away at Oundle on October 14, 1914, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(17) J. Hawkins Pawlyn: born at Launceston in 1844. He became a member and worker at Ker Street, Devonport, was accepted as a Candidate in 1865, and sent to Richmond College. For forty-two years he ably and loyally served his Church in both town and country circuits. He had a quiet but earnest and cultured expository style, and many were the testimonies to the good received by his hearers. He was a man of much determination and strong character, yet of fine and sensitive spirit. He won general esteem in all the circuits in which he travelled, and was remembered with affection by all who knew him. He retired in 1909, but continued preaching until laid aside by a painful illness, borne with Christian patience. "I am not afraid to die" was his simple testimony. He passed peacefully away on October 15, 1914, on the eve of his seventieth birthday.

(18) Benjamin Smith (A): born at Whitby, January 18, 1825, a Methodist of the third generation on both sides. At an early age he surrendered his heart to God and took up

Christian work. At twenty-one years of age he was accepted for our Ministry, and after a course at Didsbury College, entered upon his first circuit at Whitchurch, Salop, in 1849, when the Reform movement broke upon the Church. After a night of prayer, he preached his first sermon from the text, "I determined not to know anything among you save Jesus Christ and Him crucified." A gracious revival began that day which spread throughout the circuit. A long course of strenuous service followed, spent mainly in the north of England. He was Chairman of the Macclesfield District, and in 1888 he became a Supernumerary at Stockport. He was a man of robust character, as gentle as he was strong, and gifted with a rare fund of humour. While he served his Church effectively by his pen, it was his loving personality, his force of character, strong common sense, administrative ability, and power in the pulpit which told most for good. He was a clear, strong, soul-winning preacher. In Stockport he fulfilled a frequent and quiet ministry, the influence of which is graciously remembered. He lived to be "the Father of the Conference," and just before he passed home on October 21, 1914, at the age of nearly ninety years, he said, "We do not know what heaven is like, but it is all summed up in these words, 'For ever with the Lord.'"

(19) JOSEPH NETTLETON: born at Norton, near Doncaster, December 6, 1835. At thirteen he joined a Society class in order that he might find and keep a sense of God's pardoning love. In 1858 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and entered Richmond College. In December 1860, he sailed for Fiji, which was just then emerging from cannibalism. There he was frequently "in perils by the heathen." After a short time spent in circuit work and in gaining knowledge of the language, he was put in charge of the Theological Institution for training native pastors and teachers. Here he did invaluable service, his genial manner winning the hearts of all, while his fidelity commanded universal respect. In 1873 he entered the home work, and for seven and thirty years served Methodism faithfully and well. He was an effective preacher, a faithful pastor, a charming conversationalist, and best of all a winner of souls. For several years he successfully filled the office of Chairman of a District. In 1888 the Conference recognised his varied services at home and abroad by electing him a member of the Legal Hundred. He was a great advocate of world evangelisation, and rendered efficient service to the British and Foreign Bible Society by assisting in the translation of the earliest Fiji version of the Scriptures, and in 1897 was made an Honorary Life Governor of that Society. In 1910, after fifty years of laborious service, he became a Supernumerary, but preached twice every Sunday, met a weekly class, and performed all the other pastoral duties in connexion with the Feltham Church in the Brentford Circuit. He was never unemployed, and after becoming a Supernumerary translated The Pilgrim's Progress into Fiji. His last illness was short, and on October 24, 1914, he passed into the blessed rest in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(20) WALTER J. GADSBY: born at Stanion, in Northamptonshire, in 1881. He came of a sterling Methodist ancestry, and had the advantage of a godly home. Converted in early youth, in 1906 he was accepted for the Ministry, and sent the same year to British Honduras. Malarial fever and ague caused a serious breakdown in health, and necessitated his return to England. After a period of rest, he spent a few months in the Theological Institution at Handsworth, and thence went into the home work. But he was called to wage a continuous fight against his malady, which ultimately compelled a further retirement. His genial and sympathetic disposition attracted the confidence of the young, and everywhere he established himself in the hearts of the people. In days of severe affliction his faith and patience did not waver.

Though he finished his course early, he fought a good fight and kept the faith. He passed into the presence of his Lord on October 28, 1914, in the thirty-third year of his age and the ninth of his ministry.

(21) A. KENRICK SMITH: born in Leeds in 1872. The gracious influence of his parents is evident in the fact that he gave himself to Christ at the age of nine. When fourteen he became a member of our Church, and at sixteen he began to preach. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1894, and in 1897 became assistant to the Rev. T. Galland Hartley at Blairgowrie. He was a faithful minister, an able preacher, a diligent and sympathetic pastor, a devout, sagacious man, cultured and reverent. His great natural gifts were all consecrated to spiritual uses. He had a genius for friendship, and in all his circuits was sincerely loved and walked humbly with God. For some years he laboured with growing acceptance, but in November, 1913, he was stricken with serious illness, and after a year of suffering, bravely borne, passed into the Eternal Home on November 3, 1914.

(22) JOHN REACHER: born December 20, 1825, in Bradford, Yorkshire. Converted at the age of thirteen, he immediately sought channels of usefulness, became a local preacher when sixteen, and a class leader two years later. He was accepted for the Ministry and entered Didsbury College in his twenty-first year. An indefatigable student and an intense lover of books, he regularly rose at 5 a.m. for reading and prayer. Preaching with him was a passion. He loved to exalt Christ. His preaching was evangelical, pithy, practical, and deeply spiritual. His last sermon was preached a month before his death. Pastoral work was faithfully and tenderly fulfilled. He loved his flock, and his presence in the room of the sick and dying was most welcome. Always bright, cheery, and self-sacrificing, his life has been an inspiration and benediction to multitudes. He was greatly beloved by a wide circle of friends, old and young. In 1890, after forty-one years of active service, he became a Supernumerary, settling at Kingston-on-Thames. He passed peacefully home on November 5, 1914, in the eighty-ninth year of his age and the sixty-sixth of his ministry.

(23) Francis E. Jones: born at Bangor, July 3, 1870. Early training in a true Methodist home led, by the blessing of God, to early decision for Christ and dedication to His service. In 1893 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry and sent to Didsbury College. His ministry was characterised by great devotion and usefulness. His sermons were fresh and rich in thought, and he grew in power and efficiency as a preacher. His power of sympathy enabled him to deal with insight and tenderness with those who were placed under his pastoral care. He was a steadfast and true friend, an agreeable and faithful colleague. For years he had been in failing health, but he carried his burden cheerfully and his Christian experience ripened. Last Conference he became a Supernumerary, and suddenly, on November 7, 1914, passed home to God.

(24) James Cooke (D): born at Temple Cloud, near Bristol, October 15, 1857. Nurtured in a godly Methodist home, he was early led to Christ, and with marked fervour and devotion gave himself to his Master's service. Entering the Ministry in 1882, he spent five years in the West Indies. For twenty-eight years he laboured in the home work with growing acceptance and power as a capable, faithful, and whole-hearted servant of Jesus Christ. He was full of kindness and humanity, affectionate in family relationships, brotherly and loyal as a colleague, sympathetic and helpful to his people. He put his best into pulpit and pastoral duties, and cared for all the interests that were under his charge. He loved Methodist institutions and usages, and preached and lived her doctrines. The truths of the Gospel were very real and dear to him, and he rejoiced to proclaim them. He endeared himself to many hearts. For thirteen years he bravely battled with the malady that at length proved fatal. There was reason to hope that "the year's rest" granted last Conference would restore him to his work, but he quietly "fell on sleep" at Plymouth on December 5, 1914, in the fifty-eighth year of his life and the thirty-third of his ministry.

(25) T. Moorhouse Thorp: born in 1835 at Ebson House, near Holmfirth, was converted to God in 1856 under the ministry of the late Thomas Akroyd in Pitt Street Chapel, Liverpool. His first appointment was to London (Hinde Street) as President's Assistant in 1860. He was elected a member of the Legal Hundred in 1901. When stationed in Luton, and again in Leicester, he became Chairman of the District. Even in his retirement, after forty-nine years' service, he was active in all that concerned the work of God. He had sound judgment, patience, and exquisite Christian courtesy. He could suffer nobly and forget self. His humour and delight in all things intellectual and artistic made him a charming companion. His library showed the breadth of his reading. His sermons instructed and nourished those who were spiritually minded, and he never forgot the great evangelical truths. Though he spoke but seldom of his own religious life, its flame gave an unmistakable glow to all he said and did. In his last days his communion with the Saviour grew in fervour and intimacy. "Heaven gets clearer and clearer," he said to those who watched by his bedside. He died at Nottingham on December 16, 1914.

(26) Charles Symes: born at Southwell, Portland, December 13, 1843. His ministry commenced in 1867, and in 1906 he became a Supernumerary. His last days were spent at Watchfield, in the Swindon Circuit. He had a keen and critical mind, was an excellent conversationalist, and delightful companion. He was truly catholic in spirit and an alert observer of all movements—intellectual, moral, and social. He passed through death to the better life, December 29, 1914. He had just kept his seventy-first birthday, and was in the forty-eighth year of his ministry.

(27) Joseph T. L. Maggs, B.A., B.D., D.D.: born at Clifton, July 25, 1855. When about sixteen he was led to decision for Christ through the prolonged illness and death of his father. In 1875 he was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry, and was sent to Didsbury College, where the influence of Dr. W. B. Pope and Dr. J. D. Geden determined the bent of his after life as a scholar and minister. He began his ministry in 1879, and in 1900 became Principal of the Wesleyan Theological College in Montreal. Throughout the Dominion he gained high esteem for his scholarship and pulpit powers, and personal affection for his Christian character and ministerial ideals. Returning to England in 1903, he resumed circuit work, and continued therein until his sudden call into the Master's presence on January 3, 1915. His natural gifts were developed by diligent habits of study. He was widely read in theology, and was specially attracted to the mystical writers. His expositions, The Spiritual Experiences of St. Paul, give a clear indication of the trend of his thought. His Introduction to the Study of Hebrew has been a great help to many students. As Superintendent, he displayed great practical powers as an administrator and adviser. His preaching was of a high order: to clear exposition of the Divine Word there was added the grace of intense evangelical fervour, whilst his reverence and dignified demeanour made his pulpit ministrations a benediction to many. Reticent in regard to his personal experience of the things of grace, his whole life and ministry proclaimed the reality of his communion with God.

(28) Samuel Kirk: born at Chapel-en-le-Frith, August 31 1853. He received his earliest religious impressions in a godly home, and while yet young openly professed decision for Christ during a mission held in his native town. He became a local preacher in the Whaley Bridge Circuit, and was accepted as a Candidate in 1878. During the thirty-seven years of his ministry he sought to do solid and abiding work. A diligent and sympathetic pastor, he was specially welcome in the homes of the sorrowful, where he proved a comforter to many. His conduct and conversation marked him out as a man of fidelity and devotion. During the brief illness which preceded his death his spirit dwelt in the unseen, and occasional words spoken to those watching beside him told that the veil was being lifted. He passed away at Beccles on January 9, 1915.

(29) THOMAS HORTON: born at Birmingham, March 10, 1840. Early in life he came under Christian influence and was led to a personal consecration to the Lord Jesus. Accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1863, he was sent to Rheims, and for forty-five years continued his circuit work. The eight closing years of his life were spent as a Supernumerary at the East Ham Mission. There he rendered most efficient and greatly appreciated service, being ever ready both to preach the Word, minister to the sick, and visit the fatherless and the widow. He possessed a charm of manner and a graciousness of disposition that were very winning. Right up to the last he had an intense interest in the work of God, and nothing delighted him more than to know of "souls redeemed, and sins forgiven." His patience in his own affliction was a striking testimony to his faith in the goodness of God. He passed to his rest on January 16, 1915, in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(30) ARTHUR STROTHER: born at Hawick, in a home where Christ was loved and goodness reverenced. Having offered for the Ministry he was sent to Didsbury, where he spent three happy years. In some respects his was a striking character. Sagacious business instincts were strongly developed in him. He was a man of prompt decisions, ardently sustained. He loved to preach in the open air, and was especially happy with children, both in public worship and at home. His preaching centred round Christ. He was steadily strengthening a fine character and enlarging his power and influence when he was called home on February 14, 1915, in the thirty-eighth year of his age. He will be remembered as a much-loved and worthy man.

(31) Thomas J. Thorpe: born in London December 26, 1855. When thirteen years of age he was converted to God under the preaching of the late Rev. Thomas Nightingale. He heard the call to preach, and began his life-work at Okehampton in 1879. Throughout his ministry he was an evangelist, and during most of it he rendered valuable service under our Home Mission Department. Perhaps the most fruitful years of his ministry were given to our soldiers, among whom he spent fourteen years. He loved them and they loved him. At Aldershot and Woolwich he had the joy of leading many of them to the Saviour. He was a man of winsome disposition and of saintly life. Simple, unaffected, faithful, and devoted, he adorned the Ministry to which he belonged. Undaunted by difficulty, he kept steadily before him the great purpose of his life, and led many to Christ. The outbreak of war brought him a large increase of military work, which, faithfully done, overtaxed his strength. He died suddenly at Woolwich on February 20, 1915, in the sixtieth year of his age and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(32) Frederick Hilton: born at Rickmansworth April 10, 1845. He was converted among the Free Methodists, but did not realise liberty and joy until he confessed Christ in the class meeting. He soon joined the Wesleyan Church, and in 1869 became a Candidate for the Ministry. His preaching was suggestive and fresh in thought. His power in prayer helped others to believe in it as he did himself. In 1908 he became a Supernumerary and settled at Barnsley, where, in spite of serious illness, he was both active and useful. In the last week of his life he said, "I am on my way to the last circuit, and it will be the best." After much suffering he passed home in his sleep on February 24, 1915.

(33) Joseph W. Clucas: born at Foxdale, Isle of Man, in 1842. He came from a godly Methodist home, and his love for Jesus Christ was the deepest reality of his life. The first eight years of his ministry, spent in Scotland, were very trying, owing to family bereavements, but developed richer and deeper affections that eminently fitted him for his future work. He had a capacity for love and self-sacrifice. He was a devout and diligent student of the Word of God, and his preaching was always helpful and stimulating. As a pastor he was faithful and sympathetic, wise as an administrator, and a most loyal colleague. He retired from active work in 1909, but continued to preach occasionally with great acceptance and power. After a short illness he entered into his well-earned rest on March 5, 1915.

(34) Harry G. Attwater: born at Faversham, November 5, 1864. Converted when a lad, he began early to preach. Studious, painstaking, faithful to God and his Church, his character and work marked him out for our Ministry. His personal devotion to Christ was whole-souled, his example spotless. His preaching was marked by careful exegesis, force and elegance of language, and dignity of manner. His week-night services were of peculiar enjoyment and profit to devout Christians. His systematic and devoted pastoral labours greatly enhanced the effect of his preaching. Loving and lovable, sympathetic, and tactful in the homes of his people, he greatly excelled as a pastor. He sowed much seed by the wayside, and often found fruitful soil there.

On March 7, 1915, just before evening service, he was suddenly called to his Master's side, in the fifty-first year of his age and the twenty-sixth of his ministry.

(35) Frank H. Ashton: born at Warrington, April 15, 1876. His character was moulded by the teaching, example, and holy influence of his parents, and at the age of twelve, on Children's Sunday, he gave himself to God. His early Christian life was full of activities, and in 1900 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry and spent three years at Didsbury. In all his circuits he won the esteem and affection of the people, and his ministry was greatly blessed. He was modest, genial, and cheerful. Those who knew him intimately could not fail to admire and love him. Blessed with a good voice, a manly and attractive manner of speech, his well-prepared and instructive and helpful sermons were appreciated by all classes of hearers. As a pastor he was diligent and sympathetic, and young people had in him a true friend. In 1913 he was appointed to Grimsby (George Street), but to the grief of the whole circuit, after seven months' labour he became seriously ill. His last audible words were, "Thou, O Christ, art all I want." He passed away after much suffering on March 9, 1915, in the thirty-eighth year of his age and the twelfth of his ministry.

(36) Henry Valentine: born at Leicester in 1841. As a boy he felt the influence of the Holy Spirit and was converted to God. He entered the Ministry in 1862, spending the greater part of his life in Lancashire and Yorkshire. He laboured with growing acceptance and power. He was a capable and faithful minister of the Gospel of Christ. As a preacher he was fresh, arresting, and evangelical. Perhaps his greatest work was done amongst the young men of his congregations. They were always the object of his closest interest and solicitude; there are many to-day who are thankful they came into contact with him as their minister. Fifteen years ago he was compelled to retire to Southport. The end came gradually and quietly on March 12, 1915, in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(37) JOHN FAIRBOURNE: born at Manchester in 1852, and died at Woking, March 18, 1915. He sprang from a well-known Methodist family, and from early years was steeped in the traditions and spirit of our Church. He entered Headingley College in 1874, and afterwards travelled with much acceptance for nearly thirty years. Ten years ago he was compelled to retire, and settled at Woking, where he continued to preach as strength permitted. To the end he was devoted to the interests of our Church, and was a loyal supporter of its polity and aims. He was brotherly, easily approachable, and courteous. Earnestness marked his preaching to the last. With a mind in touch with modern thought, his heart kept true to the evangelical faith. He was a punctual and methodical Superintendent, a sympathetic and eagerly welcomed pastor. He was mercifully spared acute suffering, and passed peacefully away in the thirty-ninth year of his ministry, aged sixty-three.

(38) FRANK H. BOBBY: born at Diss in 1857. He became a Candidate for the Ministry in 1876, and received his training at Didsbury College. His mind was well stored with theological and general knowledge, and in his preaching he always endeavoured to set forth the essentials of the Gospel in simple and direct language. He greatly loved his work, and his ministry was made a blessing to many. His pastoral visits were much valued, and young people especially were greatly benefited by his oversight. Failing health compelled him to become a Supernumerary in 1913, and he settled at Okehampton, where he hoped to render some service, but he was stricken with paralysis, from which he never recovered. He peacefully passed home on March 23, 1915, in the fifty-eighth year of his age and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(39) Thomas Stephenson: born at Garragil, near Alston, October 28, 1835. At the age of eleven, his father's death made it necessary for him to leave school, but with undaunted perseverance he reached a high standard of literary attainment. He became a Candidate for the Ministry in 1860, and received his first appointment under the Home Mission Committee. His work was greatly blessed in the saving of souls and the quickening of lapsed Christians. Early privation resulted in chronic illness, which hampered him throughout the whole of his active ministry. Nevertheless, he worked faithfully and courageously in wide country circuits. He was a capable and finished expository preacher and a first-rate business man. After thirty-nine years of active service he retired to New Malden, where he took pleasure in serving the Church as long as strength permitted. He entered into rest on April 6, 1915.

(40) Charles Burbridge: born at Richmond, Surrey, August 16, 1833. His parents were devoted members of our Church, and from his infancy he was conscious of a desire to serve the Lord, but it was not until his seventeenth year that he received the assurance of salvation. Accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry, he entered Didsbury College at twenty-three years of age. His ministry was fruitful both in winning souls and in the spiritual culture of believers. While scrupulously attentive to every part of his ministerial duties, preaching was his delight. His sermons gave evidence of diligent study and careful observation, and glowed with the light and heat of the Gospel. He was a genial man and a sagacious Superintendent. To an unusual degree he enjoyed the confidence, esteem, and love both of his colleagues and his flock. On his retirement from the active ministry he became Curator of the Wesley Museum, acting at the same time as assistant pastor of Wesley's Chapel. In 1912 he removed to Palmer's Green, where he spent a peaceful eventide. When too weak to leave his bed he was heard to say: "Praise Him for ever and ever." He closed his eyes to the things of this world on April 9, 1915, after an earthly pilgrimage of eighty-two years.

(41) JOHN BELL (B): born at Glasgow, February 17, 1845. In 1865 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry and received his training at Didsbury. He was a strong and helpful preacher. His sound and careful exposition of the Word and zealous enforcement of the great evangelical doctrines, whose truth was a deep reality in his own experience, were blessed to many. As a pastor he was rich in sympathy and helpfulness. After travelling for twenty years he was compelled by ill-health to retire for a few years, but happily recovering to a great extent, he found a sphere for his conspicuous business abilities in the service of the Home Mission Department, and also of the Connexional Fund, of which he was the first Secretary. His conspicuous integrity commanded the immediate confidence of all. To financial affairs he brought the same high qualities of thoroughness and order, diligence and discernment, which had marked his work as a pastor. He was as kind as he was just, and was peculiarly tender toward the suffering. The last call, though coming somewhat unexpectedly, found the faithful and wise steward ready for his Lord. On April 12, 1915, he entered upon the higher service.

(42) WILLIAM NICOLLE: born in Guernsey, of Methodist parents. He was converted in youth and was soon employed in Christian work. In 1858, at the age of twenty-two, he was accepted as a Candidate and sent for three years to the South of France, where many were converted under his ministry. Then he returned to the French circuits of the Channel Islands, where he remained all his life. He gave careful attention to every part of the work of a Christian minister, was a diligent and welcome visitor in the homes of the people, and gave special attention to prayer meetings and evangelistic services.

In 1887, an illness contracted in visiting the sick obliged him to become a Supernumerary, and for many years he lived a secluded life. He died in Jersey, April 17, 1915, in his seventy-ninth year.

(43) JOHN POLLITT: born August 19, 1837, in a small village near Bolton. He was converted in his seventeenth year, and at once gave himself to Christian work. When twenty years of age he became a local preacher and was accepted as a probationer in 1860. His ministry was chiefly exercised in Yorkshire and Lancashire, amongst those with whose life he was intimately acquainted, and for whom he had a great love. His preaching was characterised by directness, simplicity and evangelistic fervour, and was fruitful in conversions. He was a diligent pastor, who won the respect and confidence of the people, a wise and strong administrator, a loyal and brotherly colleague. He settled in 1904 at Edgworth, where, in addition to regular preaching and the care of two village churches, he gave cheerful and loving service to the Children's Home. A man of strong personality and high Christian character, he leaves behind him the record of a ministry graciously owned of God and blessed to the Church. He passed peacefully to his rest on April 19, 1915, in the seventy-eighth year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(44) RICHARD MORGAN (A): born at Llanrhaidr-yn-Mochnant, April 20, 1834. For thirty-nine years he exercised a useful ministry in the Welsh work. After his retirement he laboured in several circuits in succession as an English preacher. He was a man of marked individuality; strong in his convictions, upright in all his ways. The truths of the Gospel had the entire allegiance of his intellect and heart, and he proclaimed them with clearness and fervour. His manly character and well-balanced judgment won the confidence of the people, while his sympathetic disposition found a way to their hearts. The temperance cause received his zealous and life-long support. He retained his mental alertness and interest in the Work of God to the last. He entered the fuller life on April 23, 1915, in the eighty-second year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(45) JOHN R. BENNETT: born at Camborne in 1836. The son of godly Methodist parents, he decided for Christ early in life, and was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1860, and sent to Richmond College. In all his circuits his labours were distinguished by diligence and fidelity, by his zeal in the pastoral office, and by his helpful ministry to the young. He felt that his supreme calling was to preach the Gospel, and his broad and evangelical teaching produced lasting impressions upon a wide variety of hearers. A true-hearted Methodist preacher, he loved his work, and was reluctant to abandon it, but failing health compelled his retirement in 1899, and the last sixteen years of his life were spent in great weakness, but in the fearless confidence of the Gospel hope. He passed away on April 29, 1915, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(46) JOHN BAKER, M.A.: born July 7, 1856, at Bristol, where for a few years he was engaged in teaching. He entered the Ministry in 1875. Everywhere he threw himself into the interests of his people and made lifelong friends. His preaching was always interesting, deeply practical and consolatory, and revealing much knowledge of human nature. In pastoral work the quick sympathy and humour, which were marked traits of his character, were used with happiest effect. His soul went out toward everyone who was bereaved, in distress, or lonely. He was a great favourite with children and aged people; wherever he went carrying new brightness into life. As a Superintendent he was shrewd and wise, fair and considerate to others. For many years he undertook laborious work on behalf of the Ministers' Children's Fund, and at Trinity Hall he was deeply beloved. As Chairman of the Leeds District he deservedly won the confidence and affection of ministers and laymen by his geniality and faithful attention to detail. On Tuesday afternoon, May 11, 1915, he opened the conversation in the Synod on the Work of God, apologised for his few words on the ground that he was not feeling well, retired quietly from the chair, and in twelve hours "he was not, for God took him."

(47) Daniel H. Carr: born in London, May 13, 1855. Early in life he gave himself to the service of Jesus Christ and His Church. The influence of his home training remained a directive force with him to the end. He entered the Ministry in 1879, and fulfilled its duties in town and country alike with much earnestness. He counted the calling of a Methodist preacher high honour, and did not mend our rules, but kept them. His business ability, joined with evangelistic zeal, made his service in the Devon and Dorset and the Hertfordshire Missions specially fruitful. He took a keen interest in home and foreign missions, and delighted to serve those who needed him most. In the last two years of his life he resided at Enfield without pastoral charge; but he exercised his pulpit ministry with unabated ardour to the end, and filled his days with manifold labours for his Master. The last call came suddenly on May 16, 1915.

(48) James Henri Marquand: born in Guernsey, April 9, 1848. Converted in 1864, he was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Didsbury College. In 1871 he entered upon a fruitful ministry extending over thirty-eight years. He was a man of high Christian character, gentle, unassuming, refined, and loyal to our doctrines and discipline. A diligent and sympathetic pastor, he was a blessing in the homes of his people. His sermons were thoughtful, earnest, and evangelical, and were owned of God by many conversions. On his retirement in 1909 he spent a quiet eventide at Teignmouth among a people by whom he was respected and beloved. He entered into the presence of his Lord on May 19, 1915, in the sixty-eighth year of his age.

(49) JOHN GOULD: born September 18, 1850, at Loxhore, near Barnstaple. He began to preach at Ilfracombe, and after three years in Didsbury College was appointed to London (Kentish Town) in 1875. After fifteen years of fruitful work in various circuits, he was sent to Norwich in 1890, and next year became Chairman of the District. For fourteen years he rendered conspicuous service to our Church in East Anglia. He had a gift of organisation and a marked capacity for enlisting the sympathy of others. He loved country folk and felt keen sympathy with their special difficulties. He made them realise that the heart of Methodism was warm towards them, inspired them with his own courage, and became their leader in a memorable forward movement which resulted in the erection of sixty-eight chapels and the restoration of more than twenty-five. A new spirit was infused into the Methodism of East Anglia, and in many of its remote villages his name is still a household word. He was elected a member of the Legal Conference in 1902. Two years later the health of his family led to his removal to South Africa, where for five years he laboured with much success. He devoted special attention to the problems of our native work and took an active part in public movements in the Colony. In 1909 he returned to England and did valuable service in Nottingham and at Scarborough, where he was Chairman of the York District. He was a man of fine presence, and his genial temper won him a host of friends. He loved his brethren and enjoyed the warm esteem and confidence of our people. He was a true evangelist, who had a deep concern for the salvation of souls and a strong faith in his message, which he knew how to adapt to the needs of his hearers. God honoured him with many seals to his ministry. He had to undergo a serious operation, and died in a Leeds nursing home on May 28, 1915, in the hope and peace of the Gospel.

(50) W. Kimber Hardy: born at York in 1839. He was a Wesleyan Methodist of the fourth generation, and was articled to his uncle, Mr. John Spence Hardy, a well-known architect, in Lincoln. He began to preach at the age of eighteen, and was accepted for our Ministry in 1866. For thirty-nine years without a break he fulfilled an eminently gracious and fruitful ministry. A devout and cultured man, he preached the Word with much acceptance, and administered the affairs of his circuits with considerable tact and abiding success. He was an exemplary pastor and won in every place the confidence and affection of his people. He retired from active service in 1905 to Bury St. Edmunds, one of his early circuits, where he died in great peace on May 31, 1915.

(51) George J. Brett: born of Methodist parents at Canterbury, on May 8, 1849. After training at Didsbury College, in 1873 he was appointed to his first circuit, and throughout his ministry he could truly say, "This one thing I do." His personal life was characterised by sincere piety and humility and an absorbing devotion to duty. He loved to get into the homes of his people, and his visits were appreciated by rich and poor alike. He had a high ideal of the Christian ministry, and was loved as a cultured, Christian gentleman. In business he was methodical and exact, cautious and tactful, a capable and strong administrator, giving that strict attention to detail which only a man engrossed in his work could give, and with a fund of quiet, genial humour that smoothed away many difficulties. To partake of the Lord's Supper with him was a benediction. His sermons were thoughtful and incisive, and were born of a rich and ripe experience. His long illness was borne with undaunted spirit till, on June 8, 1915, he quietly passed away, in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the forty-second of his ministry.

(52) J. Wesley Keyworth: born at Rye, Sussex, in 1849. He was the eldest son of the late Rev. Robert Keyworth and grandson of the Rev. William Aver, one of the last preachers sent out by John Wesley. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove School, and early consecrated himself to the service of God. At the age of sixteen he began to preach, and impressed all that knew him with his genuine earnestness and undoubted gifts. After being accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry he spent a happy and profitable time at Didsbury College. In 1871 he was sent to Evesham, and subsequently laboured with great acceptance in all his circuits. He had an alert mind, and read widely. His preaching was expository and practical, and he was intensely loyal to evangelical truth. As a pastor he was diligent, kind, and warmly welcomed into the homes of the people. In all the concerns of his circuits he was a strenuous worker. In 1914 he retired from active work, and resided in the Woodville and Swadlincote Circuit, where he rendered valuable service. But it soon became evident that his bodily strength was fast failing, and he passed peacefully away on June 9, 1915, in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the forty-third of his ministry.

(53) William H. Dimmock: born February 4, 1890. He owed much to the godly training of a Christian home, and after an early decision for Christ, identified himself with the work of our Church at Old Hill in the Dudley Circuit. He began to preach at seventeen years of age, and was accepted for the Ministry in 1909. After three years at Richmond College and a year as supply, he was appointed to the Bilston Circuit at the Conference of 1914. After the outbreak of war he felt impelled to offer himself for active service and joined the Legion of Frontiersmen (Royal Fusiliers) in February, 1915. He was sent to British East Africa, and at Bukoba made the supreme sacrifice, being the first of our ministers to lay down his life on the field of battle, on June 23, 1915, in the twenty-sixth year of his age and the second of his ministry. Though he had only been in the Bilston Circuit six months, he had won his way into the hearts of the people. He possessed a most attractive personality, marked by independence and vigour of spirit combined with earnest personal worth, and his intellectual gifts were of a high order. His sermons were characterised by freshness of thought and vigour of delivery, and always contained a large element of "surprise power." Had he lived he would have rendered valuable service as a preacher. While we mourn that his service on earth has been so short, we take comfort in the thought that he now enjoys

> The eternal peace
> Wherein to reap the soul's increase.

(54) JOSEPH B. NOWELL: born May 2, 1858. He was the son of the Rev. John Nowell. After being trained at Didsbury he went to British Honduras, 1888, where his work was mainly among the Caribs of Stann Creek. He lived for six months with one of his native teachers, thus gaining an insight and sympathy with his people that markedly increased his influence over them. He worked with untiring energy, devotion, and courage, and passed unscathed through a yellow fever epidemic. He was methodical and thorough, combining the diligent student and the faithful pastor. He left the Stann Creek Circuit richer by a mission church and minister's house. He returned home in 1894, and in all his circuits laboured with marked success. He was a true friend and a wise counsellor to the young, and his preaching had spiritual vision and a quiet charm all its own. His later years were tried by painful disease, borne with great patience. He asked to become a Supernumerary at the May Synod, but dreaded an inactive life, and God's home call came on June 24, 1915, when he died in harness, as his heart desired.

(55) Enoch Biscombe: born at Kippax, near Leeds, on April 23, 1842. His conversion brought into his life a strong evangelical purpose which early found expression in his desire to serve on the Mission Field. Accepted as a Candidate at the Conference of 1870, he went to Richmond, where his missionary fervour received a further stimulus. He was then sent to British Guiana, and after three years came home with his health broken by yellow fever. The memory of those days remained as a gracious influence throughout his life. After a year at Calais, he was appointed to Gower in 1876, and for thirty-three years faithfully did the work of a Methodist minister. His faith in Jesus found a natural expression in his message. He was a careful student of the Scriptures. His preaching was marked by choice poetic imagery and a persuasive energy. In some of his circuits he had much success in winning souls. In his later years he concentrated his energies on building up the life of the church. Always a diligent pastor, he sought with constant zeal the careless and the fallen. In 1910 he retired to Staines, where he proved a blessing to many. The call came at the close of a meeting at Melton Mowbray, an old circuit. He lingered a few days and then went to see his Lord on June 26, 1915.

(56) Andrew I. Wharton: born at Bradford, September 14, 1842. Under the influence of a godly home and an earnest Methodist ministry, he was very early brought to a religious decision, and entered at once into the fellowship and activities of the Church. He was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1862, and after two years at Didsbury received his first appointment. For forty-three years, mainly in the busy towns of Lancashire and Yorkshire, he fulfilled a fruitful ministry. He was a man of deep spiritual feeling and insight, cultivated by wide reading in theological and general literature. His sermons were thoughtful and thoroughly evangelical, and were delivered with affectionate and intense earnestness. He ruled well and wisely in the household of God. As a pastor he will be gratefully remembered, especially by the poor, the afflicted, and the sorrowful. His last circuit was Beverley, where having finished the usual term of service, he became a Supernumerary. Debarred in some measure from the active work of the ministry, he found a compensating joy in the more quiet spheres of usefulness. His life closed in peace on July 8, 1915, in the seventy-third year of his age and fifty-first of his ministry. Almost his last effort was to dictate the obituary of his life-long friend, Rev. E. Biscombe; within a fortnight their friendship was renewed on the other side.

(57) Joseph S. Silcox: born in Bristol in May, 1842, was the son of Baptist parents, but was early brought into association with Methodism, which became the Church of his choice. Then came the distinct call to the ministry, and after training at Richmond College, he entered on active work in the Bridgend Circuit in 1864. Preaching was his joy, and his sermons, carefully prepared, thoroughly evangelical, and delivered with tender earnestness, were always impressive. He possessed considerable administrative ability, and served our Church with wisdom and fidelity. As a pastor he cherished a deep and affectionate solicitude for the poor, the sick, and the troubled. In 1909 he became a Supernumerary, in the Margate Circuit, where he rendered effective service, especially in the oversight of the church at Birchington. In 1913 failing health compelled him to give up all public work; and he went to reside at Herne Bay, where his visits to the homes of our people were much appreciated. There the Master whom he loved and served called him to higher service on July 20, 1915.

2. In Ireland, two:

(1) Gabriel M. Clarke: born at Magherafelt, April 1, 1836. His parents were members of the Church of Ireland; but when living in Lisburn he joined the Methodist Church. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1864, and laboured with great devotion and ability for forty-five years. He became a Supernumerary at the Conference of 1909, and settled in Belfast, where he continued to manifest the same devotion. His mind was greatly enriched by wide and constant reading. He brought his best, both of thought and utterance, to his pulpit ministry. His style was expository, and he sought to instruct the mind and to lay the easy yoke of the Lord Jesus upon the heart of those who heard him. A man of rare modesty and of a delightful spirit, he won not only the confidence, but the lasting affection of those to whom he was appointed to minister. He was an indefatigable pastor, and possessed a priceless gift of individual dealing with the souls of men. He did the work of an evangelist, and throughout his ministry there was frequently given him the joy of winning men for God; in some of his circuits he witnessed remarkable visitations of revival power. His last illness was brief. When some one said to him, "It is hard to bear," he replied, "Yes, but the Sun still shines," meaning the Sun of his soul. On March 22, 1915, he fell asleep in Jesus, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(2) Charles H. Crookshank, M.A.: born at Cayuga, Upper Canada, January 29, 1836. He came to Ireland at an early age, and when fifteen gave his heart to God. He was accepted as a Candidate by the Conference of 1859. From the first his fine intellectual gifts marked him out as a pastor and preacher of exceptional rank, and for forty-six years, until he became a Supernumerary in 1905, he laboured faithfully and successfully. His preaching was expository, and was always tender, chaste, and impressive. A great hunger for souls gave unction to all his sermons. As a pastor he had unusual gifts, and took a deep personal and prayerful interest in each member of his congregation. For nearly twenty years he was treasurer of the Supernumerary Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund, and in 1899 was Vice-President of the Conference. He was also Representative to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Los Angeles in 1903. He was editor of the Christian Advocate for six years, and his History of Irish Methodism is the standard authority on the subject. He was a man of most devout and saintly spirit. When physical weakness made it difficult for him to join often in public worship, he spent hours in repeating verses of the Bible and of hymns. His retiring modesty and the absence of all affectation were remarkable in one so gifted. He lived for the glory of God and the work of Methodism. He fell asleep in Jesus on May 28, 1915, in the eightieth year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, seven :

(1) JOHANNES MAHONGA : born in 1846 of parents who had just renounced their heathenism and accepted Christ. He was converted in childhood, and began at a very early age to preach with soul-converting power. Accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1867, he was ordained in 1873. After some forty-four years of active service, he retired in 1910, but still continued to do valuable work as a Supernumerary. He was a man of earnest piety, a diligent pastor, conscientious and faithful in the discharge of his ministerial duties. He is remembered with respect and affection. Ever faithful in reproving sin, he was yet tender towards the sinner, a true friend and counsellor at all times. His preaching has been the means of hundreds of conversions and of the building up of the Church in his native country. After frequent illnesses he passed away suddenly on April 13, 1914, in the sixty-ninth year of his age and the forty-eighth of his Ministry.

(2) DEVADATTA SATYAVIRA : born in Mysore City in 1861. His father was one of our early converts there, and laboured as an evangelist for many years. The son was educated in our High School in Mysore City. Early in life he gave his heart to the Lord Jesus, and throughout life was His faithful and devoted servant. He became an evangelist in 1882, and after twenty-two years of faithful service was received into the Ministry in 1904. He was a good man and a devoted pastor. In the early part of 1914 his health failed, and he spent four months in the hospital, where his patience, cheerfulness, and Christlike humility endeared him to all. Suddenly, on August 16, he entered into rest, aged fifty-three years. "He was not, for God took him."

(3) William M. Walton: born at Point Pedro, Ceylon, in 1844. His parents and relatives were staunch Saivites, and it was in a mission school that he first came under Christian influence. For some years he sought to steer a middle course between Saivism and Christianity; but the awakening of the sense of sin revealed the weakness of his ancestral faith, and he sought and found a Saviour in Christ. The Rev. William Walton baptized him, Dr. Kilner led him to feel the claims of the ministry, and in 1869 he was appointed to a circuit. His active ministry was continued without intermission for forty-four years. His character was strong, frank, and independent. He was an impressive and original preacher, who loved to preach in streets and bazaars, and excelled in the handling of the miscellaneous audiences that he found there. His pastoral intercourse with his people was marked by candour and faithfulness. No one could doubt his good will, and many found help in his counsel. He forwarded the movement towards self-support in the Tamil churches, and was one of the first of our Tamil ministers to become the Superintendent of a self-supporting circuit. Failing strength compelled him to retire in 1913, though to the end his mind was busy with the affairs of the kingdom of Christ. He passed to his rest suddenly on October 18, 1914.

(4) Charles Marke: born in Wellington in December, 1834. His parents were liberated Africans of the Nupe tribe.

Brought to Sierra Leone in 1822, they were soon converted to Christianity, and became staunch Methodists. The godly training imparted to their son prepared the way for his conversion in 1853, shortly after which he became a local preacher, and was admitted as a minister on probation in 1858. He travelled in all the circuits of the Sierra Leone District, and exercised a fruitful evangelical ministry. "Jesus Christ and Him crucified" was always the supreme theme of his discourses. He was faithful to the doctrines and discipline of Methodism. He was very diligent, patient, calm and dignified. As the oldest minister in the District, he was for many years the guide, adviser, and friend of his brethren. In 1910 he retired from the active Ministry. During his retirement he wrote and published his valuable History of Methodist Missions in Sierra Leone, a book which for a long time will be a standard volume of reference in all matters pertaining to Methodist history in that Colony. In 1914 his health began to fail. He lingered for some time in increasing weakness, and on December 4, 1914, passed away peacefully in the eighteenth year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(5) Stephen T. Murugasen: born in Madras about the year 1866, and died December 13, 1914. He was educated in a school of the Free Church of Scotland Mission, and was baptized when about fifteen years old. Five years later, under deep conviction, he dedicated himself to God's service. In 1903 he was received into the ranks of our Ministry and laboured with much earnestness and faithfulness. His sermons were always interspersed with apt illustrations and quotations from Indian poetry, and our own people and many from other churches flocked to hear him. He introduced lyrical services bearing on Biblical characters, and rendered them in such an attractive and inspiring manner that they became very popular among the Tamil-speaking Christians in Secunderabad. He was a man of God, whose cheerfulness, courtesy, and meekness won for him friends who mourn his loss.

(6) JOHN LONGDEN: born at Marple, Cheshire, September 27, 1827. The atmosphere of his home and the vigorous evangelical preaching under which he sat led to his decision for Christ when quite a lad. His love for souls urged him to undertake the work of preaching, and in this he was so signally owned of God that in 1849 he offered himself as a Candidate. He exercised a faithful and eminently successful ministry in England until his going to South Africa in 1857. The outstanding characteristic of his work there was a passion to lead the native people to Christ. His faithfulness and zeal were honoured by the fruits which he most coveted. He settled in Somerset East as a Supernumerary about twenty-five years ago, and as pastor and preacher consecrated his time and talents without stint to furthering the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom. In the homes of the people he radiated blessing, and in the pulpit he sought always to bring the great fundamental doctrines of evangelical religion definitely before the congregation. In private and in public he adorned the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. Where sorrow and need existed he lavished sympathy and help, while amid scenes of happiness none was more joyous than he. The last two years of his life were clouded by affliction, and on December 26, 1914, the messenger for whose coming he had longed called him, and without murmur or pain he exchanged mortality for life in the eighty-eighth year of his age and the sixty-fourth of his ministry.

(7) FREDERIC J. MARTIN: African Minister, died at Lagos, February 20, 1915, aged about seventy-five years. He was associated with the very beginnings of our work in the Lagos District. As a youth he came under the influence of the Rev. John Martin, from whom he took his name. As schoolmaster, catechist, and minister he rendered distinguished service during a period of fifty-one years. He laboured with great success in Lagos, Dahomey, and the Yoruba Interior Mission, and throughout his long career bore an unblemished character. Gifted in speech, mighty in prayer, intensely spiritual, filled with a burning zeal and devotion, he has left behind him a fragrant memory, and an example that will be an inspiration for many years to come. His passing took place on the eve of the Synod. His brethren and a vast concourse of people paid their tribute to his saintly life and work.

Q. XXXII. Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. XXXIII. Who have ceased to be recognised as Ministers amongst us?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

Their names are recorded in the Journals.

2. In our Foreign Missions,

Their names are recorded in the Journals.

Q. XXXIV. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial stationed for the ensuing year?

A. As follows:

[N.B.—1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 752, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. In the event of his death, resignation, or incapacity, the Minister next named, provided such Minister be in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, is the Superintendent. In case there is no Minister in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, appointed to or remaining in the Circuit, the Chairman of the District is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline in each and every one of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister and to the existing laws and regulations of the Conference.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XXXVI. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the Rev. R. WADDY MOSS, D.D.; or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers: the Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; the Rev. JOHN OLLIFFE PRICE and the Rev. WILLIAM R. BUDD, nominated by the Irish Conference; the Rev. SAMUEL F. COLLIER, or the Rev. FREDERICK LUKE WISEMAN, B.A.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated February 28, 1784.

2. The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG (the Ex-President), the Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON, and the Rev. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., are appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Belfast on Tuesday, June 20, 1916.

Q. XXXVII. What other Official Appointments are made?

A. (A) 1. The Rev. EZRA NUTTALL is appointed the President of the next South African Conference, to be held in the month of April, 1916.

2. The Rev. EMILE ULLERN continues to be the President of the next General French Conference.

(B) 1. The PRESIDENT of the Conference will preside at the Annual Meeting of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly of Wales, to be held in Newtown (Mont.), on Tuesday June 6, 1916. The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG (the Ex-President) and the Rev. J. T. WARDLE STAFFORD, D.D., are appointed to accompany the President. The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK and the Rev. Frederick Luke Wiseman, B.A., are ex-officio members of the Assembly. The Rev. John Felix is appointed President of the Assembly.

2. The Rev. Dinsdale T. Young is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man Synod, to be held at Douglas, in May, 1916.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the Examinations of Candidates for Ordination?

In the Synod.

A. (a) 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory.

2. Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves of our Discipline.

In the Conference.

(b) 1. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. An explicit declaration of his belief in the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XXXIX. What is the Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report:

The number of Probationers due to be examined on March 25 and 26 was 253. Owing to special Chaplaincy duties and enlistment, twenty-two of these were unable to present themselves. Seven were prevented from taking the Examination by illness, and, as in former years, medical certificates and statements of work done for the Examination were asked for, and, in all cases but one, obtained.

In the Honours List one hundred names appear. Seventy-six Probationers took one or more of the special subjects, and in this section four cases of failure occurred. In the ordinary subjects there were twenty-four cases of failure, an unusually large number, and the District Synods were requested to inquire into each case. Sixteen of the failures were in Greek Testament and one in Hebrew.

The Honours List for the year is given on page 331.

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS.—(1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be administered by a Committee consisting of the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY; the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; three General Examination Secretaries; the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., William H. Findlay, M.A., J. Shaw Banks, D.D., E. Thornton Smith, Alfred H. Vine, J. Alfred Vanes, B.A., John E. Wakerley, F. L. Wiseman, B.A., and Dr. Workman.

The Rev. CHARLES H. BEDALE, M.A., is appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

NOTES.

1—The names are arranged in order of merit.

2—1st Class = Average of 80 per cent. and over.
2nd Class = Average of 65 per cent. and over.

a = Both Greek and Hebrew.

b = Greek but not Hebrew.

c = English subjects only.

The Rev. JAMES CRITCHISON, Dr. THOMAS STEPHENSON, B.A., and CHARLES L. BEDALE, M.A., are appointed General Examination Secretaries.

(2) A Connexional Board of Examiners shall be appointed yearly to conduct the Examinations.

(3) The Examination shall take place annually near the end of March, or early in April. The date fixed by the Conference for each year shall be kept free from all circuit engagements for the Probationers.

(4) Every Probationer shall upon this day take two papers of three hours each, in Old and New Testament subjects respectively. The subjects shall normally be in Hebrew and Greek for all Probationers who have passed through the Institution, unless they are exempted from Hebrew on the authority of the College staff.

(5) In the Fourth Year every Probationer shall take on the day preceding a paper of two hours on the works of John Wesley, subjects to be chosen from year to year.

(6) The arrangements for the selection of Examiners shall be in the discretion of the General Secretaries. Two Examiners shall be chosen for each subject under section 4 above, who shall jointly set the paper, and jointly report on any Probationer whose marks fall below 35 per cent., as well as in any other case where the General Secretaries specially request it.

(7) The marks for all Examinations shall be returned in percentages, and not in grades. The result for each Probationer shall be determined according to his average percentage in the whole Examination. An average of 80 per cent. or over shall entitle to First Class Honours, one of 65 or over to Second Class; while an average of under 35 shall involve failure in the whole Examination.

(8) The General Secretaries shall send to all Probationers a special list of more advanced Greek and Hebrew subjects which may be substituted for those published in the Minutes of Conference. These subjects shall be chosen generally from those appointed for University Examinations in Divinity, but any Probationer is at liberty to take them. In special cases the Secretaries may accept a subject proposed by the Probationer himself.

(9) An Honours List shall be prepared each year, showing the names of Probationers in their several years who have (a) taken the special subjects and obtained at least a pass mark; or (b) attained Honours in the ordinary subjects.

(10) The September Synod of each District shall appoint a District Secretary, and a centre at which the Examination shall be held under his supervision, care being taken in selecting the centre to reduce as far as possible the travelling expenses involved. When the distances are too great, the Synod shall fix a second centre, under the supervision of an Assistant Secretary.

(11) Every Probationer may claim third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These and other expenses of the Examination, with the exception of local expenses, shall be defrayed from the Connexional Fund and the Theological Institution Fund.

(12) Probationers who are called out of College into the Home work before Christmas Day in any year shall take the regular April Examination of their year. Those who are removed from College after Christmas shall not take the Probationers' Examination, but shall be examined in subjects fixed by their College staff, and the results shall be reported to the Discipline Committee.

(13) Probationers who have not been to the Institution shall be examined according to their attainments at the discretion of the General Secretaries. Those who have not previously studied Greek shall be expected to take a paper in the elements of New Testament Greek grammar, with a few verses of translation. The Secretaries shall have power to exempt from this for sufficient cause, substituting two English Biblical subjects. The marks obtained shall be reported to the Institution Allocation Committee.

(14) The General Secretaries shall send to the May Synod a detailed report of each Probationer's work for the year. This shall show the subjects taken, the marks obtained in each, the average percentage in the whole examination, and the place in Honours, if any, together with any observations made by the Examiners or by the General Secretaries. The District Secretary shall receive these Reports and present them to the Synod, and subsequently transmit to the General Secretaries the Synod's resolution upon them.

(15) The General Secretaries shall prepare a Report to the Conference. This shall contain a brief account of the year's work, with reports on cases of failure and of absence from Examination.

(16) Should any Probationer at the time of the Examination be prevented from attending by illness or other imperative cause, he shall immediately inform one of the General Secretaries, the Rev. Dr. Thomas Stephenson, and must satisfy him that attendance at the Examination was absolutely impossible. The consent of the Chairman of the District and of the Superintendent of the Circuit, as well as that of the General Secretaries, is required for every such case of exemption.

(17) In addition to the Examination subjects, there shall be fixed year by year English theological works for special study. In the case of Probationers working for other theological examinations, or pursuing special courses of reading, the Secretaries may approve substitutes for these. Upon one of these books, or upon a subject suggested by its reading, an essay shall be written (of about 3,000 words in length) and returned to the Secretaries before the end of February. These essays shall rank equally with the written examination papers, and marks shall be awarded for them to count towards a place in the honours list. Each Probationer shall fill in a form describing his method of study of the second prescribed book, which shall be returned to the Secretaries together with the written papers. It shall be open to the Chairman of the District to make inquiry at the Synod with respect to these subjects. Probationers who have not been to the Institution shall write an essay upon a specially chosen book.

(18) Should a Probationer be compelled to be absent from the Examination, he shall send to the General Secretaries a detailed statement of the work done in preparation for it. The Secretaries shall report to the Synod their judgment upon these statements, and those described in section 17.

(19) A record of the whole of the examination work during probation shall be prepared by the General Secretaries and sent to the Synod, in the case of every candidate for ordination, showing the average percentage each year and place, if any, in Honours, together with general comments on the record as a whole. Should this record be deemed by the Secretaries unsatisfactory, they may recommend to the Synod that the candidate's ordination should either be deferred or made conditional upon his passing certain examinations before Conference. The number and character of such examinations shall be determined by the Synod upon the Secretaries' recommendation.

(20) When part of any candidate's probation has been spent upon the foreign field, the report to the Synod shall include a report supplied by the Missionary Secretaries as to his work while abroad.

(21) Should any Probationer have been absent from examination more than once during his probation, on account of health, the General Secretaries shall send to the Designation Committee, after the May Synod, a full report of the case, with medical statements, and the Designation Committee shall report to the Conference on the question of the candidate's ordination.

3. EXAMINATION FOR 1916.

(1) The Examination shall take place on Friday, March 31, 1916. For the Fourth Year there will be a paper on the preceding evening.

(2) The following are the ordinary subjects for the Examination :

4. Book List.—The Examination Committee is instructed to prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the scriptural doctrine of the Church. To the Examination centres in April shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year. This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. The Conference directs that when the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. The list for the year 1915–1916 is as follows (the Books are selected as representing different schools of thought, and must be read with discrimination):

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XL. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. (1) In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod.

(2) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District.

(3) It is required that in the written character of the Candidates for the Ministry that the Superintendent shall give information as to whether there has been fruit of the Candidate's preaching.

(4) For fuller particulars of the Examinations and for advice as to preparation for them, reference should be made to the "Manual of Directions for the use of Candidates for the Wesleyan Methodist Ministry."

(5) The Conference resolves that where Candidates are in temporary residence in any Circuit for the purpose of Special Theological Training, they should be recommended as Candidates by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they have resided and worked as Local Preachers, and not by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they are temporarily residing.

(6) The Conference resolves that no hindrance be put in the way of any accepted Candidate serving his country, either by enlisting or by engaging in necessary industrial work, and that such Candidates should suffer no disabilities in consequence.

Preliminary Examination.

2. (1) This Examination shall be conducted before the Session of the District Synod, and include (a) one three hours' paper on the English Bible, requiring a general knowledge of Scripture History, and of the nature and contents of the Old and New Testaments (see "Manual for Candidates," pp. 18-20, 24-26); (b) one three hours' paper including the following subjects:

(i) An Exercise in English Composition. Four alternative subjects shall be set, from which the Candidate shall choose one. Not more than three quarters of an hour shall be spent upon this exercise. The subjects will be varied in character, and will represent topics in which preachers should be interested. In marking, regard will be paid to quality rather than quantity.

(ii) English Grammar and Easy Analysis.

(iii) English History and General Geography.

(iv) Arithmetic up to Decimal Fractions.

The questions will be of an elementary character, to be more precisely described in the syllabus supplied to intending Candidates.

Superintendents of Circuits are instructed to impress upon Candidates for the Ministry the importance of a thorough knowledge of the English Bible.

(2) The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. The Examiners for this year are the Rev. William F. Lofthouse, M.A., Edwin C. Lansdown, C. Ryder Smith, B.A., B.D., and Wilbert F. Howard, B.A., B.D. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a), and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers appointed year by year by the Conference. The following are appointed for this year: Rev. E. Blanshard Keeling, George Marris, and George F. Rose.

The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday and Friday, April 13 and 14, 1916.

(3) Candidates who have passed an examination qualifying for admission to any British University, or an equivalent examination, are exempt from the preliminary Literary Examination.

(4) The maximum for paper (a) shall be 100, and for (b) 100; the marks to be reported separately. The maximum attainable shall be printed against each question. In paper (b), 25 marks shall be assigned to each of the four sections; viz. (1) English Composition, (2) English Grammar and Analysis, (3) English History and Geography, (4) Arithmetic.

The marks gained in paper (b) shall be subject to a deduction, not exceeding 10, for faulty spelling. Exemption from paper (b) shall be granted as heretofore. All Candidates must take paper (a). The marks and exemptions shall be reported to the Synods.

(5) The Conference directed (Minutes, 1905, pp. 368, 369) that the result of the Preliminary Examination be sent to the Synods, to be regarded by them as elements in the data upon which they express judgment on every Candidate's general fitness for the work of the Ministry, and that the average number of marks gained at the Preliminary Examination be also reported to the Synods.

Sermons.

3. (1) Every Preacher who is recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., 18, Margaret Road, Harborne, Birmingham.

(3) In the case of Candidates from the Zetland District, arrangements shall be made by the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the second trial sermon to be preached in England.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript.

(4) District Synods are empowered to examine by Special Committee those Candidates who, for exceptional reasons, are prevented from being present at the appointed time of Examination; every such case to be specially recorded in the Minutes of the Synod, and reported to the Conference.

July Committee.

4. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 9, 1916.

(1) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:

(i) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the EX-PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents living in the London and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Handsworth Branches; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; a Representative of the Home Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. John E. Wakerley, together with twenty-one other Ministers of the three London Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod in each of the said Districts.

(ii) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the PRESIDENT of the Conference, Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; a Representative of the Home Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. John Grimshaw; twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts; together with one Minister to be appointed by the Welsh Assembly.

N.B.—1. The elections shall in every case be by ballot.

2. The Theological Tutors shall as a rule conduct the Oral Examination of Candidates before the Committee, but the Committee in both Sections is empowered to ask any other member of the Committee to assist if so desired.

(2) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows: one for the Southern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synod of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synods of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

Each Manuscript Sermon shall be read by two of the Ministers so appointed, and a meeting of the Sub-Committee thereafter held, when the Reports of the readers shall be considered and the valuation fixed which shall be recommended to the Committee.

July Examination.

5. (1) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(2) The Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Richmond and Handsworth Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(3) (i) There are four papers in all, which may bear the following titles:

(A) THEOLOGICAL: Part I. (on the English Bible), taken in April.
Part II. (on Christian Doctrine), taken in July.

(B) LITERARY: Part I. (Composition, Grammar, History and Geography, and Arithmetic), taken in April.
Part II. (General), taken in July.

(ii) The written examination papers at the July Committee shall each be set for three hours, as follows:

(A) THEOLOGICAL, Part II.

The questions set shall test the Candidate's knowledge of the leading doctrines of Evangelical Theology as taught in our Church. Special importance will be attached to accuracy in quoting Scripture; and it will be assumed that Candidates have carefully studied Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament.

(B) LITERARY, Part II. The paper will include:

(α) English Language and Literature.
(β) General History.
(γ) Mathematics:
Higher Arithmetic,
Algebra to Simultaneous Equations,
Euclid, Bk. I.
(δ) Elementary Science and Logic.
Alternative questions will be set in various subjects.
(ε) Latin and Greek.
(ζ) French and German.

(iii) The marks in the two sections of the July Examination shall be presented to the July Committee like those of the Preliminary Examination, in percentage and not in grades, and without being combined with the Preliminary marks.

(4) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows: the Three London, the Liverpool, the Manchester, and the Bolton District Synods shall each appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing three Examiners for each of the two Sections.

(5) In connexion with each Section of the Committee two Medical Examiners shall be employed.

(6) The Rev. T. Galland Hartley, General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(7) All communications relating to Candidates, except the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Synods, must be addressed to the Rev. T. Galland Hartley, 8, Buckingham Avenue, Sefton Park, Liverpool.

(8) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. John E. Wakerley are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. John Grimshaw to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

6. System of Marking in Examinations.—In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted: number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest. The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

7. Candidates from the Three London Districts shall appear before the Northern Section of the July Examination Committee, and Candidates from the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts before the Southern Section.

8. Designation of Candidates.

The Conference resolves (1) That the Questions on the Schedules sent to Candidates after the District Synod shall read as follows:

> In offering yourself as a Candidate for the Wesleyan Methodist Ministry you are reminded that the Designation of Accepted Candidates for the Ministry to their sphere of labour is in the hands of the Conference, and takes place normally at the close of the Student's Second Year of residence at College. In offering yourself as a Candidate you are asked at the present stage to give a careful answer to the following questions:
> (a) Are you free to offer yourself unreservedly for the service of the Church to work either at Home or Abroad as you may be designated?
> (b) If you have any reserve or special conviction in the matter, explain it fully.

N.B.—The Schedule which has been in recent years placed in the hands of the Students during their second year at College shall be discontinued.

(2) That accepted Candidates who have expressed a preference for Foreign Work shall be sent, if possible, at once to College.

(3) That accepted Candidates, sent to the Theological Institution, shall not be designated for Home or Foreign work till after two years' residence there.

(4) The recommendation of the Local Discipline Committee regarding each man shall be sent to the Designation Committee; which shall thereupon prepare for Conference lists of men whom it recommends for Home and Foreign work respectively.

(5) In cases where the July Committee recommends a man for immediate service, that Committee shall also advise the Conference as to whether he should be appointed to Home or Foreign work.

9. Candidates from the Welsh Districts.

(1) The Conference directs that Candidates from the First and Second North Wales and South Wales Districts shall be examined alternately by the two Sections of the Examination Committee, and that a Minister be elected to be a Member of this Committee by the Welsh Assembly.

(2) Candidates from the Welsh Districts are required, when the offer is for general work, to preach two sermons in connexion with the Annual District Synod, one in Welsh and one in English, and also to send in MSS. sermons in both English and Welsh.

(3) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work.

10. Candidates from Ireland for Foreign Mission Work.—The resolution passed by the Conference in 1907 relating to the above subject shall be altered to read as follows: "Candidates for the Ministry, accepted by the Irish Conference, who offer themselves for Foreign Mission Work, and have been approved by the Wesleyan Missionary Society, and who, at the termination of their service abroad, are intended to return to the work in Ireland, shall not in future be required to appear before the July Committee in England."

11. The names of the Candidates who come before the Candidates' Examination Committee shall be presented to the Conference in four sections: (1) those who are unanimously recommended; (2) those who are recommended by a divided vote (in recording the voting, the number of neutrals shall be given); (3) those who are declined by a divided vote; (4) those who are unanimously declined.

12. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

13. Training of Candidates for the Welsh Ministry.

(1) In cases in which Candidates for the Ministry recommended by the Welsh Synods possess exceptional qualifications, and in which the District Synod and the Examination Committee are of opinion that a course of training at a Welsh University College would be of special advantage to the Candidates and to our work in the Principality, such Candidates may be permitted to spend some time in connexion with a University College, without cost to any Connexional Fund, before they are formally recognised and accepted as Candidates for the Ministry by the Conference.

(2) While pursuing his studies at a University College, every such Candidate shall be placed under the special pastoral care of a Minister resident in the town in which the College is situated, who shall present a special report on his conduct and preaching work during the year to the District Synod and to the Welsh Assembly.

(3) At the close of his term of study at the University College, every such Candidate shall, on the recommendation of the District Synod, and provided the Conference be satisfied as to his continued fitness for our work, be fully accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and shall afterwards receive such training in our Institution as the Conference may direct.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XLI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the Discipline Committees for the Theological Institution?

A. 1. The General Discipline Committee shall consist of all the Members of the Local Discipline Committees who are also Members of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and shall meet at the least twice a year; the first Meeting to be in anticipation of the second Meeting of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and the second to take place before the third Meeting of the same General Committee.

2. Each Local Discipline Committee shall meet quarterly, and at every meeting inquiry shall be made whether there is any objection to each Student.

N.B.—This inquiry shall include all questions affecting his moral and religious character, observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competency for our work, and health.

3. In any case of discipline, when the Local Discipline Committee shall so decide, a Meeting of the General Discipline Committee shall be called to consider the case; and on receiving notice thereof, the General Secretary shall, in consultation with the President of the Conference, arrange for such meeting. The place and time shall be fixed by the President.

4. Subject to the foregoing provision, the Local Discipline Committees shall retain the power of summary action in urgent cases, and in cases of idleness or incompetence.

5. The Local Discipline Committee, on dismissing a Student from College, shall have power to determine all points concerning his status, employment, and maintenance until the next meeting of the General Discipline Committee, whose decision shall take effect until Conference.

6. All cases of discipline during the year, at any Branch of the Institution, shall be reported to the General Discipline Committee at its meeting immediately before Conference.

7. The Governor of the Institution House, or the Principal, shall answer for the Students to the Conference.

8. All questions affecting the moral conduct, theological soundness, and general behaviour of the Students shall, in accordance with the custom observed from the beginning of the Institution, be referred to the Discipline Committee of the Branch, and the Discipline Committee shall report to the Conference; but in cases where the action of the Discipline Committee affects the residence of a Student, the action so taken shall be final, but shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

9. The Conference shall appoint from year to year for each Branch of the Institution ten Ministers, who, in addition to the Tutors and Secretary of such Branch, shall constitute the Discipline Committee.

The Rev. T. GALLAND HARTLEY is the Secretary of the General Discipline Committee.

10. The following are the members of the Local Discipline Committees:

Richmond Branch.—The Ex-President of the Conference; the Secretary of the Conference; the Tutors and Local Secretary; the Rev. James Critchison, Joseph Dixon, Dr. Henry Haigh, Marshall Hartley, Dr. Lidgett, William Perkins, Enoch Salt, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.

Didsbury Branch.—The President of the Conference; the Tutors and Local Secretary; the Rev. Walter Ainsworth, Samuel F. Collier, John Grimshaw, T. Galland Hartley, John Hornabrook, Isaiah Parker, Francis W. Shirley, W. Marshman Spencer, and H. Lefroy Yorke, M.A., B.D.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Q. XLII. Who are the Members of the Missionary Society Committee of Discipline?

A. The Ministerial Officers and Members of the Missionary Committee, together with the following Ministers, being three from each of the London Districts: The Rev. Josiah Banham, T. Hardy Banks, B.A., Alfred Bingham, Frank Cox, Josiah Flew, Thomas Naylor, B.A., G. Leonard Robinson, H. Arnaud Scott, and G. Edward Young.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XLIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on Book Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Board of Management.

2. The Conference resolves that in addition to the grants amounting to £466 10*s.* 10*d.* which have already been made, the following grants shall be paid:

Auxiliary Fund, £1,000.
Connexional Fund, £300.

3. The following is the Board of Management for the ensuing year: Rev. R. Waddy Moss, D.D., President of the Conference; Dinsdale T. Young, Ex-President; Simpson Johnson, Secretary; John Telford, B.A., Editor; J. Alfred Sharp, Book Steward; Marshall Hartley, William Hopper, H. Arnaud Scott, Thomas E. Westerdale, Grainger Hargreaves, John Hornabrook, Jabez Parkyn, Owen Watkins, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., and Herbert B. Workman, D.Lit., D.D.

4. The Conference requests the Committee of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society to consider the advisability of publishing the Centenary Volume through the Methodist Publishing House.

Q. XLIV. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Pastoral Session, and sent to the District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. None.

Q. XLV. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain when Ministers only are present?

A. 1. Nomination of Chairmen of Welsh Districts. (See Minutes, 1915, p. 362.)

2. Election of Secretary of the District. (See Minutes, 1915, p. 363.)

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Retirement of Rev. John H. Goodman.—The Conference, in allowing the Rev. John H. Goodman to become a Supernumerary, records its appreciation of his high character and distinguished ministry. During the forty-five years of his active service, Mr. Goodman has had charge of some of the most important churches and circuits of Methodism. By the charm of his personality, his modesty and courtesy, his unaffected kindness, he has won a sure place in the hearts of all who have known him. He has ever been zealous and faithful in the discharge of the varied duties of the ministry, and in the pulpit he has proved himself to be a master of assemblies. In 1906 he was elected a member of the Legal Conference, and in 1907 he was chosen to be its Representative to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Conference assures him of its esteem and affection, and prays that during the years still remaining to him he may have many opportunities of rendering service to the Church in which he has exercised such a valuable ministry.

Retirement of Rev. Joseph Robinson.—The Conference places on record its high appreciation of the character and service of the Rev. Joseph Robinson. For forty-five years he served our Church in active ministry with great ability, unwearying diligence, and unswerving fidelity. His preaching has been fresh, evangelical, and helpful. His generosity, sympathy, and assiduous devotion to pastoral work have won the esteem and love of the people, and he is remembered with gratitude and affection wherever he has exercised his ministry.

Ministers also becoming Supernumeraries.—The Conference also directed that special mention should be made of the names of seven honoured brethren who have served the cause of God with unswerving fidelity and growing efficiency for forty years and upwards John H. Corson has been a most acceptable and helpful preacher, and a wise administrator of our discipline. Rutland Spooner has laboured with much success in all his circuits, and has given two gifted sons to our Ministry. Thomas Law has won the hearts of all to whom he has ministered by his gracious spirit and his devotion to the work of God. John J. Sutton has rendered much faithful service to the Church of Christ. Jonathan Hewitson has everywhere proved himself a good minister of Jesus Christ, and his constant interest in those committed to his care has been blessed to many. Sidney Pitt has filled many important spheres with dignity and conscientious fidelity, and has proved a wise Chairman of a District. Elisha R. Eslick served for seven years with great ability in India, and has kept the true missionary spirit in all his home circuits. The Conference rejoices over the unblemished career of these devoted brethren, and prays that their days of retirement may be enriched with Divine strength and made a blessing to themselves and all with whom they are brought into contact.

Ministers under Discipline, and other Cases.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. In view of the great services rendered by this Fund in helping to secure the withdrawal of unsuitable men from our Ministry, the Conference commends the Fund to the support of all the Ministers.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, to administer the Fund, and to deal with the cases as they arise. (See Minutes, 1893, p. 226.)

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. R. WADDY Moss, D.D., President of the Conference; DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary;

Rev. James Critchison,	Rev. Dr. J. Scott Lidgett,
„ Joseph Dixon,	„ Frederic W. Macdonald,
„ Marshall Hartley,	„ Dr. John S. Simon,
„ Thomas Kirkup,	„ F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.

The Rev. JAMES CRITCHISON is the Convener.

Ministers in His Majesty's Forces.—The Conference resolves that the action of many Wesleyan Methodist Ministers, Probationers, and Students in enlisting in His Majesty's Forces at the present crisis calls for the sympathetic and generous consideration of their brethren. It also resolves that their status, whether in the Ministry or in the Theological Institution, shall be in no wise adversely affected by their term of military service, having due regard to our discipline and regulations.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. GEORGE MARRIS is appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the Conference of 1916.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda: (3) The memorials from Circuits shall be printed and circulated throughout the Conference.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. DAVID RYCROFT is appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1916; and is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Conference Precentor.—The Rev. Wesley Woolmer is appointed to act as Precentor at the Conference of 1916, and as such is an ex-officio member of that Conference.

Designation Committee.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee, consisting of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference, the Secretary of the Probationers' Examination Committee, and twenty other Ministers; five of whom shall be chosen by the Home Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively; one by the staff of each College from among themselves; and one by the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly. The Secretary of the Conference is the Convener of the Committee.

2. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference, to consider and report upon:

(1) The designation of Students for Home or Foreign Work.

(2) All cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

(3) All cases in which Probationers have been absent more than once during their probation from the Annual Examination, and on the question of the Candidate's Ordination.

(4) All cases in which, owing to pressure of special work, Probationers have failed in their Examination for two successive years.

(5) The health and general fitness for our work of the men on the President's List of Reserve, and the results of the Examination of accepted Candidates on the List of Reserve who have received appointments.

(6) The Reports of Superintendents concerning accepted Candidates resident in their Circuit who have not received an appointment.

(7) The number of Candidates required for the Ministry.

(8) Transfers, not including applications from other Churches.

The Pastoral Address.—The following Committee is appointed to prepare the Pastoral Address for the Conference of 1916: Rev. R. Bevan Shepherd, M.A., W. West Holdsworth, M.A., B.D., and Harry Bisseker, M.A.

Oversight of Probationers.—1. The Conference resolves that the attention of the Local Discipline Committee of each College be called to the Regulation in Minutes, 1908, pp. 345, 346, that inquiry be made in respect of each student as to all questions affecting his moral and religious character, the observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competence and fitness for our work, including health.

2. That at the last meeting of the Discipline Committee before Conference, specific answers shall be given to these questions, and a report made on every student embodying the conclusions of each Local Discipline Committee.

3. That at the end of his College course no student shall be eligible for appointment who is not recommended by the General Discipline Committee, until his case has been considered by the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

4. That a Committee be appointed to undertake the oversight of Preachers on Trial during the whole course of their probation. The final report of the Local Discipline Committee on each student leaving College shall be furnished to this Committee.

The Committee shall consist of the members of the Committee for the Examination of Preachers on Trial, together with the following: Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., Joseph T. Gurney, Thomas Kirkup, Isaiah Parker, W. Arthur Labrum, and George Marris.

The Rev. Charles L. Bedale, M.A., is the Convener.

5. That the District Synods shall be required to declare their judgment year by year as to the general fitness for our work in all its details of the Preachers on Trial resident in the several Districts. This judgment shall be furnished to the Committee for the oversight of Preachers on Trial.

6. That before a Probationer is recommended to be received into Full Connexion, the several reports on his case from his acceptance as a Candidate, or a summary of them, shall be presented to the Synod together with the judgment upon them of the Committee for the oversight of Preachers on Trial. This Committee shall have power to recommend to the Synod, either that a Probationer's reception into Full Connexion be deferred, or made conditional upon his satisfying further tests.

Inquiry concerning Methodist Union.—The Pastoral Session, having noticed that the Representative Session has appointed a Committee to obtain information relating to the other Methodist Churches, requests that before any communication is made to the other Methodist Churches the results of the Committee's inquiry be communicated to the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

Nominations for Election into the Legal Conference by Seniority. (See Minutes, 1909, p. 361.) The following ministers were nominated:

Rev. William Arthur Labrum,
" J. Conder Nattrass, B.A., B.D.,
" Joseph Stringer,
" E. Lightwood Smith,
" Alfred Roebuck, B.D.,
" J. Crompton Sowerbutts,
Rev. Henry Lefroy Yorke, M.A., B.D.,
" George Charter,
" Wesley Woolmer,
" William Backhouse, M.A.,
" Frederick Bond Cowl,
" Philip Hawkes.

Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year (see Standing Order 34): The Rev. R. Waddy Moss, D.D., President of the Conference; Dinsdale T. Young, Ex-President; Simpson Johnson, Secretary; J. Alfred Sharp, Book Steward; John Telford, B.A., Editor;

Rev. Dr. Davison, M.A.,
" Joseph Dixon,
" George Fletcher,
Rev. Marshall Hartley,
" George Lester,
" Alfred H. Vine.

The Rev. John Telford, B.A., is the Convener.

Manual for Candidates for the Ministry.—The Conference refers the Manual to the Theological Institution Sub Committee on Studies for revision.

Election of Chairmen and Financial Secretaries of Districts.—The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Special Committee in the following form:

1. The question of the election of Chairman was first discussed. In the course of a long conversation several suggestions were made, including nomination to the Conference by the Stationing Committee, and that of the adoption of some method by which the Synods could indicate their choice. But no suggestion so commended itself as to secure anything like unanimity of opinion in its favour. None thought the present method of election to be entirely satisfactory, but nothing that could be proposed appeared to be free from grave objection. The case of the Welsh-speaking Districts, as will be seen below, received special consideration, but on the general question the following resolution was adopted:

> With regard to the election of Chairmen of Districts, the Committee has considered many proposals, and, in view of the difficulties raised by every suggested alteration, does not recommend that at present any change be made.

2. In the case of the Welsh Districts it was represented that there is good ground for change. It was felt that the great majority of the brethren present at Conference do not and cannot know enough about the Welsh-speaking Ministers to enable them to give a discriminating vote. The result of this is very unsatisfactory to those most closely concerned. The Committee therefore recommends to the Conference:

> That in the case of the Welsh-speaking Districts the Pastoral Session of the Welsh Assembly be authorised to nominate to the Conference such brethren as it considers should be appointed to the Chair of those Districts.

3. In the matter of the election of Financial Secretaries the following resolution was adopted:

> The Committee recommends that the title "Financial Secretary" be discontinued, and that the "Secretary of the District Synod" be elected year by year by the Conference on the nomination of the Chairman of the District; and that he shall be ex officio the Secretary of both the September and the May Synods.

4. The Conference adopts resolutions 2 and 3 as Provisional Legislation.

The Relation of Children to the Church.—The Conference is of opinion that it is not desirable or necessary that any extensive legislative change should be made; but it is convinced that great good would result from more thorough co-ordination of existing work. The Conference is also of opinion that, by the co-operation of the Departments chiefly interested in the care of the young, much needed help may be given to those who are entrusted with the training of children for membership in the Church.

1. The Conference adopts the following proposals:

1. The Junior Society shall include:

(1) All Junior Society Classes.

(2) Such children and young people as are suitable for Junior Membership from amongst the members of Junior Wesley Guilds, of Preparation Classes for the Primary and Junior Departments of our Sunday Schools, and of Bible Classes associated with Companies of the Boys' Brigade or with the Life Brigades, or similar organisations, provided:

(i) That in each case the Leader, otherwise duly qualified, be appointed as a Junior Class Leader by the Leaders' Meeting.

(ii) That the names of such children and young people be enrolled upon a Junior Society Class Book.

(iii) That when the quarterly tickets of Junior Membership are distributed, such children and young people shall be met, with other Junior Members, by the Minister.

2. That provision should be made in all these classes for a definite course of instruction in the elements of Christian truth, the principles of Christian life and conduct, and in the story of the Christian Church, and of Methodism in particular.

3. That every year, in addition to the Quarterly Visitation, the Minister shall meet any young people in these classes, and any other young persons, who may be eligible for full membership of the Church, in order that he may explain to them the larger responsibilities of such membership, bring home to their hearts the need for public confession of Christ, and prepare them for their first Communion.

4. Such young people as are prepared to take upon themselves the responsibility of full Church Membership shall then be publicly welcomed into the Church.

5. That a small Commission shall be appointed yearly by Conference, consisting of Representatives nominated by the Sunday School Department, the Wesley Guild, and the Class Leaders' Committee (four from each), such Commission to draw up a syllabus of subjects for each year or for a course of years; to provide help for workers; and to foster and encourage all that may be of benefit to the children of the Church, and report to the Conference (Minutes, 1914, pp. 371–373).

2. The following are the Reports of the District Synods:

(1) THE FOLLOWING SYNODS, viz. 18, APPROVE:—First London (34 voted for, 33 against), Second London, Bedford and Northampton, Oxford, Portsmouth, Channel Islands, Devonport and Plymouth, Exeter, Bristol and Bath, South Wales, First North Wales, Second North Wales, Birmingham and Shrewsbury, Macclesfield, Hull, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Carlisle, and Isle of Man.

THE FOLLOWING SYNODS, viz. 3, APPROVE, but with suggested alterations:

Sheffield—Paragraph 3, page 372, put the words "or in connexion with" before "the Quarterly Visitation."

Paragraph 5, to be omitted.

Whitby and Darlington suggests that 1 shall read "The Junior Section of the Church shall include" instead of "The Junior Classes shall include."

Scotland recommends addition—Sunday School to 1, (2), page 372.

(2) THE FOLLOWING SYNODS, viz. 11, DO NOT APPROVE:—Third London, Kent, East Anglia, Cornwall, Cardiff and Swansea, Liverpool, Manchester, Bolton, Halifax and Bradford, Lincoln, York, and Zetland.

The following are reasons for disapproval :

Third London believes it to be both impracticable of application and out of harmony with the genius of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Bolton is of opinion that the proposals if adopted would lead to such a diversity of administration in the Circuits in relation to the Junior Society, that the essential character of the Junior Society would be altogether lost, and suggests that the whole matter of Junior Membership should be left in abeyance until it can be made in due course a part of the suggested amalgamation of the Connexional Departments that have to do with the work of our young people.

Halifax and Bradford. The proposed new legislation runs perilously in the direction of a merely nominal Membership ; is calculated to destroy the spiritual basis of our Junior Society Classes ; is a cumbrous addition to our already overburdened organisation ; and everything of value in the proposal can be accomplished by means of Junior Society Classes as already constituted.

York considers proposals unnecessary, and disapproves of any new legislation upon the subject.

Cornwall recommends the more effective working of the Junior Classes already in existence, and the formation of such classes in connexion with every Church.

(3) One District, viz. Leeds, recommends the legislation should stand over for another year in view of a probably shortened Conference this year.

(4) One District, viz. Nottingham and Derby, suggests the subject be recommitted to the appointed Committee for further consideration. This Synod has difficulting in accepting provisional legislation :

(i) Lest young people be led to believe that attendance at Boys' Brigades, Life Brigades, etc., will be ultimately considered equivalent to full Membership.

(ii) The great difficulty in carrying out the excellent recommendations in the resolutions.

3. The Conference receives the above Report, and adopts the recommendation of the Leeds District Synod, viz., that the provisional legislation stand over until next Conference.

National Union of Journalists.—1. The Conference has given full consideration to the suggestion of the Journalists, that, instead of the present method of reporting, an official précis of the proceedings of the Conference should be furnished to Representatives of the Daily Press.

2. The Conference is of opinion that while it would not be impossible to carry out such an arrangement, it would involve the appointment of Official Ministerial Reporters, and would entail heavy expense for which no Funds are available. Therefore, the Conference is not in a position to recommend the adoption of this suggestion.

Methodist Law, and other Matters.—The Conference receives the Report of the Committee. (See Appendix XXVII.)

1. The Conference adopts the Report in Section I., and resolves to append to the STANDING ORDER, No. 179, the following:

> N.B.—This regulation applies also to a Local Preacher who is a Director of a Company which is in similar financial circumstances.

2. The Conference receives the Report in Section II., and directs that it be printed as an Appendix in the Minutes, as a correct Statement of the history of the meaning and use of the phrase "GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT."

3. The Conference refers to the Committee on Methodist Law and other Matters the whole question of the Ordination of and the administration of Sacraments by Probationers.

4. The Conference thanks the Rev. John S. Simon, D.D., for acceding to the request of last Conference in publishing a new Edition of the Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline, bringing it up to date.

5. The Conference re-appoints the Committee as follows: The Rev. R. WADDY MOSS, D.D., President of the Conference; DINSDALE T. YOUNG, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary;

Rev. William Bradfield, B.A.,
" William Collett,

" Owen Watkins,
" Thomas E. Westerdale,
" Silvester Whitehead,
" F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.

The Rev. JOHN S. SIMON, D.D., is the Convener.

Special Day Next Conference.—The Conference resolves that during the Pastoral Session of next Conference a day shall be set apart for conversation upon the Problems arising out of the War in relation to Evangelical Christianity, special subjects being selected for consideration, and Ministers invited to introduce them; the selection of Subjects and Ministers being referred to the President and Secretary of the Conference and to the President-designate.

Appointment of Special Representative of the Missionary Society to the West Indies.—In appointing the Rev. John Henry Cartwright to the position of Special Representative of the Missionary Society in the West Indies, the Conference assures him of its entire confidence, and of its earnest prayers for the special blessing of God on his responsible and difficult work, and at the same time warmly commends him to the Ministers and people of our West Indian Stations.

New Legislation in Relation to the Foreign Stations.—The Conference resolves: 1. That New Legislation adopted by the Conference shall not in future be held to apply to our Foreign Districts unless and until the Conference shall so determine.

2. That the recent regulations for the Enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting do not apply to the Foreign Districts.

3. That Ministers or Probationers appointed to any Missionary Station where there is no Annual Synod shall be answerable as to Doctrine and Discipline to the Synod of the First London District.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. Supplies, List of Reserve, Students.

1. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister, when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits.

2. Payment of Supplies.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connexion with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

3. List of Reserve.—(1) The retiring President shall furnish to the Committee on Transfers, etc., a Report as to the health and fitness for our work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on the List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

(2) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference. One of the Missionary Secretaries is authorised to attend the meeting of each Local Discipline Committee of the Theological Institution at which the designation of the students is considered.

(3) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

4. Students.—(1) Accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution, unless the Conference otherwise direct.

(2) The term of residence in the Institution shall be, except in special cases, three years.

(3) Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Local and General Discipline Committees, shall be regarded as commencing his probation at the Conference next ensuing (except in the case in which a Candidate has received an appointment before entering College), and he shall be entitled, after being received into Full Connexion, to the usual allowances of a Minister in Full Connexion.

But if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately after he has been received into Full Connexion, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This Resolution does not carry any disability with regard to any other funds than the Home Mission Fund.

N.B.—These new arrangements shall only take effect in those cases where the probation begins in 1912 or subsequently.

(4) In the case of Students who have not completed their term at the Institution (whether in their first, second, or third year of residence), but are called out by the President to supply before Christmas, the year shall, in accordance with our ancient usage, be reckoned as the first of their probation.

(5) Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution to complete their term.

(6) Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom, or have passed any equivalent Examination—e.g. the Final Examination of the Incorporated Law Society, or of the Royal College of Surgeons —shall not of necessity spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of their Tutors and Local and General Discipline Committees, the term of their residence may be shortened. And, in such cases, their probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing. (See Section (3) N.B.)

(7) When it is decided by the Local and General Discipline Committees that, on the ground of unsatisfactory progress, or for reasons of discipline, the full period of three years' training at the Institution should in the case of any Student be shortened, the ministerial probation of such Student shall not be reckoned as beginning until the Conference at which he would have completed his three years' training.

(8) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(9) The Representative of each Branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(10) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall be placed on the President's List of Reserve.

(11) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(12) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment.

(13) The work and fitness of every Student shall be fully reported upon year by year by a Special Committee of each Branch of the Institution, consisting of the Tutors of that Branch, four other Ministers, and eight Laymen, who shall be chosen by the Local Executive Committee, but shall report to the General Discipline Committee. (Minutes, 1910, p. 104.)

II. The Connexion.

5. Title of the Connexion.—Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of the Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Minutes, 1891, p. 321.)

6. Nomination Committee.—(1) The Nomination Committee shall consist of five Ministers and five Laymen, in addition to the President and Secretary of the Conference, with two Secretaries (Ministerial and Lay); and shall meet twice in the year—in May, and immediately before the Conference. Some Representative of each Department shall be present at both these meetings, by arrangement in the Committee of such Department.

(2) The Nominations for the ensuing Conference shall be made by the several Connexional Committees not later than April, with the exception of the Local Preachers', Class Leaders', Auxiliary Fund Committee, the Connexional Fund Committee, and the Wesley Deaconess Institute (which shall report not later than July 2); and the Secretaries shall send to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, a full fortnight before its first meeting, at least twenty-five printed lists of members so nominated, on which there shall be a record of the attendances of the members during the past year. The names of new members shall be printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment shall be distinguished by an asterisk.

(3) One-fifth of the Ministers and of the Laymen on each Connexional Committee shall retire annually, and shall not be eligible for re-election, except by a two-thirds majority of those present. The vote shall be taken by ballot after all nominations have been placed before the Committee, first on those who have been proposed for re-nomination, and afterwards on those newly nominated.

(4) The Secretaries of the Nomination Committee shall compile a register of the names of such persons nominated or re-nominated, with a list of all the Connexional Committees on which it is proposed they should serve, and send a copy to each member of the Nomination Committee seven days before its first meeting.

(5) These names shall be considered by the Nomination Committee, which shall have power to make any suggestions they think fit in regard to them. While it is unadvisable to lay down any hard and fast limit, it is, as a general rule, undesirable that any person should be nominated for appointment on another Connexional Committee who is already a member of four such Committees.

(6) The suggestions of the Nomination Committee shall be sent to the Secretaries of the Departments concerned, for consideration by their several Committees, and the decision of these Committees in each case shall be reported to the second Meeting of the Nomination Committee, which shall make such changes as appear desirable and report to the Conference.

(7) Members of Connexional Committees elected by the Synods, other than Chairmen of Districts, shall not be elected for more than three years in succession, except by a two-thirds majority of those present, the vote to be taken by ballot. These elections shall take place at the May Synod, and the names shall be forwarded at once to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee.

(8) The following are the Committees within the scope of the Nomination Committee, Sub-Committees and Committees purely local being excluded :—

Ordinary Committee of Privileges.
Foreign Missions.
Ministers' Children.
Chapel Affairs.
Home Mission.
Connexional Fund.
Auxiliary Fund.

(Minutes, 1905, pp. 102-3 ; 1906, p. 112 ; and 1908, p. 110.)

7. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference ; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a two-thirds majority by ballot being distinguished by an asterisk ; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292 ; 1905, p. 103.)

8. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new Members, Laymen and Ministers, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

9. Postal Addresses of Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—A complete list of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 319.)

10. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Resolutions of Conference thereon, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: (1) The printed Agenda of the Conference; (2) The Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the current and preceding year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; (3) Any legal opinion obtained by the direction of the Conference; (4) A Record of all Legacies left to Connexional Funds, with any other Documents which the Conference may hereafter direct to be preserved.

N.B.—The Custodian is instructed to report annually to the Conference what Documents have been received and placed in custody during the year.

III. The Conference.

11. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows: London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, York, Lincoln, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull. (Minutes, 1898, p. 354.)

12. Two Sessions Daily.—With a view to the dispatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily. (Minutes, 1886, p. 297.)

13. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held on the second morning of the Representative Session, in a Chapel other than the Conference Chapel, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises. (Minutes, 1905, p. 113.)

14. Open Session.—(1) An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the Friday afternoon of the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1890, p. 422; 1905, p. 113; 1914, p. 106.)

(2) At this Session a Representative from Ireland shall be heard annually, a Representative from the French Conference and one from the South African Conference on alternate years, and a Representative from each of the following General Conferences, viz., the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the Methodist Church in Canada, the Australasian Methodist Church, and the Methodist Church in New Zealand when they are appointed.

(3) Representatives appointed by the Conference to visit other Conferences shall be heard at the Conference following their return home.

(4) Other accredited visitors, including those from the Annual Conferences of America and Australasia, shall be introduced to the Conference, but no provision can be made for them to address it.

(5) The Conference appoints a Correspondent whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Secretary of the Conference, to see that the various Conferences are advised as to the years when Representatives are looked for, that the names of those appointed are duly known, that our own Conference Arrangements Committees are advised as to hospitality and appointments on the Conference Plan, and that Representatives are clearly informed as to the date of the Open Session and of any pulpit appointment, and are personally welcomed on their arrival.

15. Conference Arrangements.—(1) In order to afford sufficient time for the proper discharge of the business of the Conference, an Evening Session shall be held on each day of the Representative week, if necessary.

(2) Deputations to the Conference shall be received on such days as the Conference itself shall direct. It is recommended that such Deputations shall be received at 11 o'clock during the morning Session, and that the time occupied shall not exceed forty minutes. (Minutes, 1911, p. 92 (5).)

16. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

17. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be, ex officio, the Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Minutes, 1895, p. 216.)

18. Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial. — In response to the inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Minutes, 1887, p. 289.)

In the event of any Brother determining to withdraw from the Ministry, he shall be expected in the first instance to intimate his resignation to the President. (Minutes, 1914, p. 370.)

19. Disciplinary Inquiries.—The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

20. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher, excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connexion with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class-leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

21. Ministers becoming Supernumeraries.—The Conference records its judgment that since the accuracy of the forecast made by the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund depends on the assumption that the average duration of Active Service and of Supernumeraryship remain as at present (thirty-eight years in the one case and eleven years in the other), no claim for grant should ordinarily arise until thirty-four years after ordination unless the claimant is medically certified as unable to continue to discharge his work efficiently, or unless the Conference shall in any particular case otherwise direct. The number of years each minister has travelled who applies to become a Supernumerary shall be presented in the Conference Agenda. (Journal, 1912, 1913.)

22. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our doctrines. A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of doctrine and discipline. (Minutes, 1900, p. 230.)

The expenses incurred by Supernumeraries in attending the May Synod shall be paid by the Financial Secretary, and included in the Synod Assessment on the Circuits for District Expenses. (Minutes, 1911, p. 348.)

23. English Supernumeraries in Ireland.—Supernumeraries of the British Conference resident in Ireland shall report to the Synods in the area of which they reside, and Supernumeraries of the Irish Conference resident in England shall similarly report to the English Synods. (Minutes, 1908, p. 353.)

24. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years, and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year. In addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, such Ministers may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive for that year a sum not exceeding £80; of which one half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 233, 234.)

When a Minister who becomes a Supernumerary for one year is not a member of the Annuitant Society, the extra Grant from the Auxiliary Fund shall be less by the amount which would have been due to him from the Annuitant Society. (Minutes, 1887, p. 261.)

Each case shall be examined by a Mixed Committee of seven Members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

Should the Conference deem it indispensable, the Grant may be allowed for a second year. (Minutes, 1878, p. 234.)

25. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212; revised, 1895.)

26. Compulsory Supernumeraryship : Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any other reason than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him ; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee : The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund in both its branches.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Minutes, 1896, p. 321.)

27. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his re-appointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218; 1899, p. 246.)

28. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the full work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Minutes, 1897, p. 244.) See Standing Order 1 (3).

29. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from our Funds during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connexion with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215.)

(5) In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

(6) The following Question shall be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the Pastoral Session of the Annual District Synod:

> Is there any Minister without Pastoral Charge residing in this District, and, if so, does the Synod recommend that the present arrangement be continued? (Minutes, 1914, p. 370.)

30. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office of emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding, unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief of our doctrines.

(6) Supernumerary Ministers connected with the British Conference, residing in Ireland, shall report to the Irish Synod to which the circuit in which they reside belongs; and Supernumerary Ministers connected with the Irish Conference, residing in England, shall report to the English Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs. (Minutes, 1908, p. 353.)

(7) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(8) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215; 1893, p. 362.)

31. Ministers serving Abroad.—(1) Ministers or Preachers on Trial appointed to any Missionary Station where there is no Annual Synod shall be answerable as to Doctrine and Discipline to the Synod of the First London District.

(2) If in the case of a Minister stationed under a Foreign Synod, disciplinary inquiry is called for in regard to conduct alleged to have occurred in Great Britain or Ireland, the Missionary Committee of Discipline shall be empowered to institute such inquiry and report to the Conference. (Minutes, 1908, p. 350.)

32. New Legislation in relation to the Foreign Stations.—(1) New Legislation adopted by the Conference shall not in future be held to apply to our Foreign Districts unless and until the Conference shall so determine.

(2) The recent arrangements for the Enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting do not apply to the Foreign Districts.

33. Transfers from Welsh to English Work.—In cases of application for such transfer the Conference requires (1) The opinion of the Welsh District Synod concerned and of the Welsh Assembly as to the advisability of the transfer, both upon the ground of personal fitness and also in view of the needs of Welsh Methodism; (2) The recommendation of a Conference Committee after a personal interview with the applicant for transfer, and also after examination and test of preaching in English. The Committee on such cases shall be known as "The Designation Committee"—(Minutes, 1904, pp. 358, 359). No transfer of a Minister from the Welsh to the English Districts shall be made until the Home Missionary

Committee has had the opportunity of considering the case in its financial bearings and has approved the same. (Minutes, 1902, pp. 113, 114.)

34. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(4) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee, and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

35. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued; and the list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday evening of the third week of its Sessions.

36. Vice-President of the Irish Conference.—To avoid the difficulty that might arise in the signing of the Journal of the Irish Conference, in the event of the death of the Vice-President of the Irish Conference and the absence of all the Delegates from the British Conference, the name of the surviving Ex-Vice-President shall be added to the other names in the delegation. (Minutes, 1908, p. 353.)

37. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

38. Memorandum of Agreement.—The following is the revised scale of payments to be made to the Connexional Funds by Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches, and married men received as Candidates:

1. To the Home Mission Fund ...	£160.
2. To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children	£80 for each child.
3. To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund ...	£7 for each year counted, upon admission by the Conference.

N.B.—(1) In view of the fact that, ordinarily, claims upon the Maintenance Section of the Fund do not arise during the first five years of a Minister's term of service; and seeing that the Memorandum of Agreement does not contemplate the case of married men being received into the Wesleyan Methodist Church who may have children born during their probation, the scale of payments is revised so as to meet the equity of such cases, viz. that for each year of probation in which no claim arises one-fifth of the amount charged for maintenance shall be remitted.

(2) The amount charged for maintenance shall be fully paid up before such Probationer is received into full Connexion, and before his child is admitted as a claimant upon the Fund.

(3) A written acknowledgment of every such arrangement shall be signed by the father of the child, and be preserved by the General Secretary.

(4) Where desired, payments to the Education Section of the Fund, entitling a child to receive the usual Education Allowances, may be spread over a period of years until the child is nine years of age; simple interest, at 5 per cent., being charged until the full amount has been paid, and until such time no claim for Educational Allowance shall be admitted. (Minutes, 1906, p. 27.)

39. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 24 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Sessions; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 291; 1903, p. 359.)

40. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At the commencement of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred, without discussion:

(1) All cases, needing further inquiry, touching the character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;

(2) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or

(3) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 202.)

41. Appeals in Cases of Discipline.—No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 229.)

42. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connexion with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connexion with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to their respective Affiliated Conferences. (Minutes, 1891, p. 231.)

43. Obituaries of Ministers of Affiliated Conferences.—On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 211.)

44. Native Ministers and Ministers admitted for Service in the Countries Specified.—For the Resolutions of the Conference on this subject, see Minutes, 1895, pp. 217–220.

The following is substituted for Resolution III.: (1) That Courts of Superior Jurisdiction for the Ceylon, South India, and North India Provincial areas shall be constituted as follows: Each Court shall consist of twenty members, of whom ten shall be Missionaries from England, including Chairmen of Districts ex officio, and ten Ministers accepted for service in Ceylon or India respectively. The members (exclusive of the Chairmen of Districts) shall be elected by the several District Synods; and the numbers to be elected by each Synod shall be determined from time to time by the Missionary Committee of Discipline.

(2) All elections shall be by the united votes of the European and other Ministers.

(3) Probationers shall not be eligible as Representatives.

(4) Each Court of Superior Jurisdiction shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. (Journal, 1905, and Minutes, 1906, p. 15.)

45. Provincial Synods and Candidates for the Ministry.—In those areas of the mission field in which Provincial Synods have been established, the recommendation of the Provincial Synod shall be required: (1) Before a Candidate for the Ministry from a District within the Provincial area is received on trial by the Conference;

(2) Before a Candidate for admission into Full Connexion from a District within the Provincial area is received into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Journal, 1905, and Minutes, 1906, p. 15.)

46. Status of Ministers in the West Indies and other Specified Countries in Relation to the British Conference.—Ministers wishing to be transferred to the work at home shall submit their application to the Committee appointed by the Conference to consider applications from Ministers of other Churches, and shall submit themselves to such examination as that Committee may determine. The Conference, while not prepared to recognise the claim for Full Status of men who have been received for work in specified countries, nor on the other hand seeking to exclude their applications, deems it undesirable to lay down any general principles in regard to such applications, but recommends that the existing usage of the Conference should be continued and each case considered on its merits.

Inasmuch as this new class of applications involves questions of finance that affect the Missionary Society in addition to those laid down in the Memorandum of Agreement, the Conference is of the opinion that any case recommended should be submitted for the opinion of the Missionary Society before being finally settled.

The Conference further resolves that whenever it is recommended that an Applicant shall receive Full Status the Conference shall adhere to its rule that the Financial Payments shall be paid through the Missionary Committee when the Full Status is granted, and not delayed until the Minister makes application to return to the Home work. (Minutes, 1908, p. 356.)

N.B.—Applications from Ministers who are Natives of Foreign Countries shall under no circumstances be considered.

47. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Forty-eight Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and that Committee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, or through the death or unavoidable absence of a Connexional Treasurer for whom no substitute has been appointed by the Committee in question, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340; 1908, p. 112.)

IV. The Stationing Committee.

48. Election of Representative in District Synod.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by ballot at the September Synod by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Synod. (Minutes, vol. i. [1791], p. 256; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; 1909, 390; Journal, 1913.)

49. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) The Secretary of the Conference shall, early in October of each year, supply every Representative of a District with a Schedule on which he shall be required to enter the names of all Ministers in the District removing at the ensuing Conference, and for whom no provisional arrangement has been made; also the Circuits in which there is any vacancy not provisionally supplied. Early in November the Secretary of the Conference shall forward to every Representative a complete list compiled from the information received. (Journal, 1912, p. 133; Journal, 1915.)

(2) Not later than the first week in May, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a list of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this list being sent by the Chairman to the Secretary of the Conference not later than April 20; such lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential. (Journal, 1907.)

(3) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 10 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete lists of—

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District; and (c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

(d) All Ministers for whom an extended appointment is requested.

(4) A list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(5) From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Journal, 1907.)

50. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(5) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(6) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First Draft and the Final Draft, respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—Members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

51. The President and Secretary and the Stationing Committee.—(1) As the President and Secretary for the time being are ex officio Members of the Stationing Committee they shall in future attend it only in their public and official character as persons specially charged with the general interests of the whole Connexion; and neither of them shall be considered eligible to be sent by any particular District as its local Representative.

(2) The President and Secretary of the preceding Conference, having attended the meetings of the Stationing Committee at their commencement, shall continue to be official Members of it during the whole of its sittings for that year; even when it may be necessary, for the completion of its business, that it should occasionally assemble after the election of the new President or Secretary shall have taken place. (Minutes vol. v. [1824], p. 528.)

52. Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

53. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee may, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

54. Re-appointment of Ministers to Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous. (Minutes, 1890, p. 207.)

N.B.—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Minutes, vol. xvi. [1866], p. 589.)

55. Additional Years.—In every case, whether in town or country, where an appointment is made beyond the limit of three years, such cases shall be considered year by year. The Conference attaches to any extension of the Term beyond three years the following safeguards:

(1) That the invitation be given, as our polity requires, from year to year.

(2) That in no case shall such an extension be made where there is not practical unanimity in regard to it in the Quarterly Meeting or in the Committee to which the power of invitation belongs.

(3) Each invitation, with a record of the reasons for it, and the vote of the Quarterly Meeting or any Committee acting under the authority of the Conference, shall be reported to the Stationing Committee, which shall meet, if necessary, specially for the purpose ; and by the Stationing Committee be reported to the Conference, with a recommendation upon it. (Minutes, 1905, p. 369 ; 1911, p. 96 (4).)

Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee, and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Minutes, 1906, p. 336.)

56. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, pp. 193, 194.)

57. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Examination Committee has been obtained.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor of Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1893, pp. 227, 228 ; 1895, p. 225.)

(4) The Conference resolves that, in addition to the statement of the sources of Degrees, the prefix (Hon.) shall be put before all British or Foreign Degrees in Arts, Law, and Science, if they be Honorary. (Minutes, 1903, p. 357.)

(5) The Conference directs that in future Honorary Degrees shall only be recognised if they proceed from Corporations which have a full University Status. (Minutes, 1903, p. 358.)

(6) In view of the extension of University facilities for ad eundem degrees, such degrees shall not in future be printed in the Minutes. (Journal, 1906.)

58. Ministers for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee.—The name of any Minister for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee shall be omitted from the first Draft of Stations, a report being presented by the Stationing Committee to the Conference, as to the reasons for such action. The Conference shall in all such cases, on the first day of the Pastoral Session, appoint a Special Committee to consider and report to the Conference. Notification of the action of the Stationing Committee shall be given to the Minister for whom no Circuit can be found, and the regulations of the Conference relating to the right of appeal in such cases shall be observed. (Minutes, 1909, p. 361.)

V. Departments.

59. Designations and Nominations for Appointment to Departmental Offices.—(1) On any vacancy or vacancies arising in any Departmental Offices by death, retirement, expiration of term, or otherwise, the General Committee of the Department shall prepare a report concerning such vacancy or vacancies. This report shall contain a reasoned statement as to the particular features of the appointment which has to be made.

(2) The Committee may also submit the name of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, whom it deems suitable for the vacancy.

(3) The Committee of any Department in which a vacancy occurs, shall, prior to making any report or suggestion, appoint a Sub-Committee, which shall carefully consider the whole matter and advise the General Committee respecting it. In the case of the Theological Institution, the Local Committee may report and recommend names to the General Institution Committee as they do at present.

(4) On the presentation of the names by the Committee of the Department for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall retain the right to add other names, and shall in that case take at least one ballot, and then if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session. When only one name is nominated in the Representative Session, it shall be unnecessary to vote by ballot, but the nomination may by open vote be passed on to the Pastoral Session. (Journal, 1915.)

(5) After the first vote has been taken it shall be open to any member of the Representative Session to move that the Standing Order which requires three names to be submitted to the Pastoral Session for designation or appointment to Departmental Offices be suspended in a particular case.

Should the motion for suspension of the Standing Order be carried in full Conference by a two-thirds majority, the Representative Session may submit either one name or two as may be deemed expedient. In all such cases the Pastoral Session shall have the right to nominate an additional name, or if need be, two additional names to bring the number up to three, before proceeding to the Ballot.

The Nominee or Nominees of the Representative Session must always be included in the three on which the final ballot is taken, should the Pastoral Session decide in any given case to increase the number of Nominees. (Minutes, 1913, p. 101.)

(6) In any case of emergency which arises during the Representative Session involving immediate appointment, the Conference shall determine its own method of procedure, but in each case three names shall be sent forward to the Pastoral Session.

(7) In any case of emergency which arises after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination.

(8) Appointments to Departmental Offices shall be in the first instance, as now, for a period not exceeding six years, but all re-appointments in the future shall be for three years only, and when any re-appointment is made the number of votes cast in each case shall be reported. (Minutes, 1911, pp. 92, 93; 1913, pp. 101, 102.)

60. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1883, p. 183.)

61. Departmental Appointments.—In future no Minister shall be set apart for the work of a new Department without the question of such an appointment having been referred to the Synods for their judgment. (Minutes, 1903, p. 114.)

62. Nomination of Ministers to Departments.—If any question seriously affecting ministerial character or fidelity should be raised upon a proposed name in the Representative Session of the Conference, the nominations for designation for appointment to the office in question shall be postponed without discussion to the Representative Session of the following Conference, when the nominations shall be made under the regulations affecting nominations in cases of emergency for immediate appointment. By this arrangement the objection would be considered and decided by the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the Representative Session of which it has been raised. (Minutes, 1904, p. 112.)

63. Ministers appointed to Act under the Direction of a Departmental Committee.—Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee, shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Minutes, 1906, p. 336.)

64. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer. Should the Committee fail to appoint a substitute, the Nomination Committee shall so appoint. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340; 1908, p. 112.)

65. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 105.)

VI. Army and Navy Work.

66. Instructions to Chairmen and Superintendents in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

67. Reports and Returns to District Synods.—All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors :

(1) The number of declared Methodists in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for December 31 of each year.

(2) The number of Members of Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(3) The average attendance at divine service during the year.

(4) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

68. Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

69. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

70. Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties. — Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives, and families to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

VII. Synods.

71. District Synods, 1916.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 14 and 21, with the exception of those of the First North Wales, Second North Wales, South Wales, Nottingham and Derby, Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts.

72. District Synods and Attendance of Ministers. — The attendance of all the Ministers at their respective Synods (unless they are excused by dispensation of the Synod) is required by the Conference. No Minister shall be permitted subsequently to answering the questions affecting character to absent himself from any of the sessions of the Synod without the permission of the Chairman. The above regulations shall be printed in the form summoning the Ministers to the Meetings of the Synod. As Supernumeraries are required to attend the May Synod, their expenses shall be paid by the Financial Secretary and included in the Synod Assessment to the Circuits of the District. (Minutes, 1911, p. 348.)

73. Returns of Bible-classes and P.S.A.'s.—The Secretary of the Sunday-School Department shall obtain the information from the Secretaries of the Districts. The Returns of P.S.A.'s are to be made in three columns. (Minutes, 1903, p. 359; 1906, p. 106.)

74. Lord's Day Observance.—The Temperance Committee of each District shall take direct oversight of the Lord's Day Question, and shall inquire in the District Synod what is being done to promote the due observance of the Lord's Day. (Minutes, 1896, p. 331; 1913, p. 66.)

75. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the September Synod of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations concerning certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the island, according to the provisions of the "Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885," of the Isle of Man. (Minutes, 1885, p. 285.)

76. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—(1) The election shall be by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to provide for himself, his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

77. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a Member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a Member of a Synod. Any Layman nominated in a Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 420.)

Duly qualified and elected women shall be eligible as Lay Representatives to the Conference.

The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 421.)

78. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Representative Session, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Minutes, 1895, p. 325.)

79. Re-election of Synod Committees.—The Regulations in regard to the District Committees having charge of Foreign Missions and Sunday and Day School affairs shall apply also to the District Temperance and Local Preachers' Committees; namely, that one Lay Member shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod. (Minutes, 1902, p. 114; 1908, p. 112.)

80. Class-leaders' Committee.—At the September Synod of each District a Class-leaders' Committee shall be appointed, to consist of the Chairman, the Financial Secretary, and four other Ministers and six Lay Class-leaders. (Minutes, 1908, p. 97.)

Each Synod shall have power to associate with the members of the District Class-leaders' Committee other Class-leaders of the District, provided that the Leaders so associated shall not thereby become members of the Synod. (Minutes, 1905, p. 93.)

81. District Temperance Committee.—The Temperance Committee consists of the Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, four other Ministers and six Laymen, who shall thereby become members of the Synod. One Layman retires annually by rotation. (Minutes, 1883, p. 242; 1893, p. 309; 1909, p. 116.)

82. District Temperance Committee.—Each Synod shall have power to associate with the District Temperance Committee other Ministers and Laymen interested in the subject of Temperance, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become members of the Synod. (Minutes, 1903, p. 114; 1905, p. 118.)

83. District Guild Secretary.—At each September Synod a Ministerial District Guild Secretary shall be appointed, and shall be an ex-officio member of the District Guild Council. (Journal, 1904; Minutes, 1913, p. 101.)

The Conference directs that in order that the Returns of all Young People's Societies other than Branches of the Wesley Guild may be presented to Conference, the Returns of such Societies as are now given in the President's Circular shall be obtained through all Synod Guild Secretaries and reported in the Wesley Guild Conference Agenda. (Journal, 1913, p. 61.)

84. Auxiliary Fund.—All subscriptions, collections, and other moneys received in the Circuits for the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund shall be paid to the District Treasurer and be remitted by him to the General Treasurer. (Minutes, 1906, p. 108.)

85. The Synods and Provisional Legislation.—The Conference resolves that inasmuch as the purpose of the Conference in submitting new legislation to the Synods is to ascertain their mind on the proposals laid before them, this provision of our Constitution permits them to suggest amendments to such legislation if they so desire. (Minutes, 1911, p. 367.)

VIII. Chairmen.

86. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of a Chairman of a District, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. See Standing Order 60. (Minutes, 1886, p. 295.)

87. Resolutions on Pastoral Work and Probationers in their First Circuit.—A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

88. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at the May Synods in reference to the several points of discipline specified on pp. 516-522 of Minutes, 1902.

89. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same town, shall meet at least once in every month for mutual conference and prayer, to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 281.)

90. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May Synods whether the Regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1862], p. 327.)

91. Changes of Ministerial Appointments.—Whenever any change of Ministers which it may be necessary to make in the intervals of the Conference takes place, the Minister or Ministers so removed shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Synod in which he or they reside. (Minutes, 1903, p. 360.)

92. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Journal, 1894.)

93. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges appointed by the Conference between Ministers residing in various Circuits shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the Synod. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

94. Grants for Affliction.—Application for Grants for Affliction from the Connexional Fund must be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee before being presented to the Synod. (Journal, 1904.)

95. Neutrals in Voting.—In all voting upon cases of discipline, or upon Candidates proposed for the Ministry, the number of neutrals shall be recorded. (Minutes, 1894, p. 226.)

96. Probationers and Reports concerning General Fitness.—The District Synod shall be required to declare their judgment year by year as to the general fitness for our work in all its details of the Preachers on Trial resident in the several Districts. This judgment shall be furnished to the Committee for the oversight of Preachers on Trial. (Minutes, 1909, p. 358.)

97. Probationers to be Received into Full Connexion.—Before a Probationer is recommended to be received into Full Connexion, the several reports on his case from his acceptance as a Candidate, or a summary of them, shall be presented to the Synod, together with the judgment upon them of the Committee for the oversight of Preachers on Trial. This Committee shall have power to recommend to the Synod, either that a Probationer's acceptance into Full Connexion be deferred, or made conditional upon his satisfying further tests. (Minutes, 1909, p. 358.)

98. Trial Sermons of Candidates for Ordination.—Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May Synod, preach in the presence of three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

99. Examination of Candidates for Ordination.—(1) Before any Probationer, having travelled four years, is recommended by his Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, vol. iv. [1815], p. 122.)

This Oral Examination may be omitted if the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory. (Minutes, 1896, p. 197.)

(2) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our discipline. (Minutes, 1897, p. 207.)

(3) The Welsh Assembly has power to arrest the Ordination of any Candidate for Ordination in the Welsh Districts, but not to proceed to Ordination in cases where the Welsh Synods decline to recommend. (Minutes, 1909, p. 360.)

100. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Probationers who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

101. Probationers' Reading.—The Examination Committee shall prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. (Minutes, 1897, p. 221.)

102. Probationers and the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Probationers shall preach during the Synods. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

103. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Probationer enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a report upon each year of the Probation which has been spent abroad. This Report shall be laid by the Chairman before the May Synod. (Minutes, 1896, p. 229.)

104 Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution, but, on the recommendation of their Tutors, the term of their residence may be shortened. And in such case, their Probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203; see also Minutes, 1895, p. 334, § 8.)

105. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—The Stationing Committee shall prepare, year by year, for the Conference decision, a list of appointments to which this privilege may be granted. In cases of special emergency which may arise during the year, application for a dispensation to a Probationer to administer the Sacraments shall be made to the President through the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1892, p. 219; 1902, p. 359.)

106. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his colleague or colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

No Candidate shall be nominated until he has been heard by the Superintendent and by his Colleagues. Full opportunity should also be given to the members of the Quarterly Meeting to hear the Candidate before the nomination is made. (Minutes, 1908, p. 354.)

It is required that in the written character of Candidates for the Ministry the Superintendent shall give information as to whether the Candidate has had "fruit" to his preaching.

(2) Whilst, as a general rule, Candidates must be fully accredited local preachers, this does not apply to exceptional cases. (Minutes, 1906, p. 333.)

(3) Those Candidates for the Ministry who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special Report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], p. 91.)

(4) Arrangements shall be made by the May Synods for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. ARTHUR E. SHARPLEY, B.A., B.D., 18, Margaret Road, Harborne, Birmingham. (Minutes, 1889, p. 194; 1908, p. 354.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript. (Minutes, 1889, p. 193.)

(5) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

107. System of Marking in Examinations.—(1) In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be abopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

(2) The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Minutes, 1888, p. 214.)

108. Candidates for the Ministry and the Large Minutes.—The Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline takes the place of the Large Minutes, and Candidates are required to read the Abridgment. (Minutes, 1905, p. 367.)

109. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts.—Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

110. Circulars to Members of the Synod.—The Chairman shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of his Synod requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the May Synod; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402.)

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the September Synod.

All Ministers who are members of the Synod shall also be summoned thereto by circular. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

111. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—Circuit Stewards are required to have an inspection of every Minister's house, at every change of Minister, by an independent sanitary expert, and wherever possible such inspection shall be by the Sanitary Inspector of the Local Authority, and to forward a certificate of the good sanitary condition of the house to the Chairman of the District before August 21.

Attention shall be called to these requirements at the May Synod, and inquiry shall be made at the September Synod whether this requirement of the Conference has been carried out. (Minutes, 1893, p. 327; 1894, p. 323; 1905, p. 118; 1908, p. 113; 1911, p. 95.)

112. Insurance of Trust Property.—The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee shall see year by year that the Trust Properties are fully insured and report to the Synod. A Report shall be presented to the Quarterly Meeting once every year as to the amount for which the several Trust Properties in the Circuit are insured. (Minutes, 1906, p. 109.)

113. Suggestions to Conference from the Synods.—A copy of any Suggestion from a Synod to the Conference relating to a Connexional Department shall be sent immediately after the Synod to the Secretary of the Department concerned. (Minutes, 1891, p. 323.)

114. Copies of District Minutes.—Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, 85, Newmarket Road, Norwich, not later than June 1, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1799], p. 24; vol. vii. [1835], p. 554; vol. xx. [1877], p. 514; 1881, pp. 307, 308; 1890, p. 326.)

115. Minor Synod.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor Synod is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Synod shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, and the Chairman of the District other two; the six thus chosen, together with the Chairman of the District, to constitute the Minor Synod.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members of the meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 94; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; 1894, p. 217.)

In the case of the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit, the two members of the Minor Synod added by the legislation of 1894 shall be nominated by the President of the Conference. (Minutes, 1897, p. 241.)

116. Substitute for the Chairman of a District.—When the Chairman of a District is unable to attend any meeting of his Synod, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the Synod from among the Ministers then present. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

117. Trial of the Chairman of a District.—In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference to either his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a Meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as Convener of the meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them.

If the guilt of the accused be proved, the Meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the chair; and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman.

The above Resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Minutes, vol. vii. [1835], p. 581) relative to the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Minutes, 1894, p. 217.)

IX. Superintendents.

118. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers appointed to the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as practicable, in order to converse freely respecting the affairs of their Circuit. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1806], p. 348.)

119. Reading of Resolutions on Pastoral Work.—These Resolutions shall be read at each May Synod, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry at the May Synod concerning the due observance of this Regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356–366.)

120. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements, on their Circuit Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], pp. 91, 92.)

121. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Probationers appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 121.)

122. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1838], p. 360.)

123. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the new year; and that, in connexion with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

124. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Minutes, 1896, p. 230.)

125. Annual Circuit Meeting of Class Leaders.—An Annual Meeting of Class Leaders shall be established in every circuit. The Meeting shall consist of all the Ministers and Preachers on trial appointed to the Circuit, and all the Class Leaders and Assistant Leaders in the Circuit. Junior Class Leaders shall be entitled to attend the meeting, but not to vote, unless they have attained the age of twenty-one years. The meeting shall be held annually at a time to be fixed by the September, or, where desirable, by the June Quarterly Meeting. The Quarterly Meeting shall also appoint a Circuit Secretary. The Superintendent Minister is authorised to call special meetings when necessary. (Minutes, 1909, p. 93; 1912, p. 368.)

126. Quarterly Fast-days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are Fridays, October 1, 1915; January 7, March 31, and June 30, 1916. (Minutes, vol. i. [1767], p. 73; vol. v. [1821], p. 249.)

127. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation. (Minutes, 1880, p. 265.)

128. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some Places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–454.)

If, upon inquiry, it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service. (Minutes, 1878, p. 186; 1885, p. 278.)

129. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers for each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

130. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. FREDERICK L. WISEMAN, B.A., Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.

131. Membership Bureau.—The operations of the Bureau extend to the whole of the Connexion, to the Colonies, Foreign Stations, and the United States of America.

All removal notes for the United Kingdom are to be sent to the Rev. J. ALFRED SHARP, Secretary, 25 and 27, City Road, London, E.C. (Minutes, 1908, p. 116.)

All removal notes of Emigrants are to be sent to the Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary of Methodist Brotherhood, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.

132. The Society Meeting.—(1) The whole Society in each place shall, wherever possible, be called together, by appointment on the Circuit Plan, at least once a quarter, for purposes of general fellowship amongst its members, for testimony concerning Christian experience, and for pastoral guidance and common counsel in the things of the kingdom of God, both as touching personal religion and the work of God in the congregation and neighbourhood.

(2) At the Society Meeting new members, after being reported to the Leaders' Meeting, shall be introduced by their Leaders to receive the right hand of fellowship. Members transferred from other Societies, or other Churches, shall be introduced. Baptisms that have taken place since the preceding meeting, and losses suffered through death or through the removal of any members of the Church, shall be reported. New appointments, and retirements of Class-leaders and Stewards, shall be announced. At the first meeting in the New Year the Roll of Membership, containing the names of all fully accredited members on the Class-books, as reported to the Leaders' Meeting, may be read in the Society, and each member shall be expected to answer to his name. It is recommended that once in the year, if not more frequently, the Society Meeting shall conclude with the observance of the Lord's Supper.

(3) None but members of our Church, with those on trial for membership, shall be admitted to the Meeting of the Society. It is desirable that the Quarterly Ticket of membership should be brought to the Meeting, and shown at the door on entrance. (Minutes, 1908, p. 581; 1909, pp. 100, 364.)

133. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 541; vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

134. Minute Books in Discipline Cases.—The Conference directs that in all our Circuits separate Minute Books shall be kept for cases of Discipline in Leaders' Meetings, and for such cases in Local Preachers' Meetings as seriously affect the moral character of Local Preachers; and that such Minute Books shall be under the care of the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit for the time being, who shall be responsible for their safe custody.

135. Trial of Trustees.—If a charge is brought against a Trustee, then there shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting before which the charge is investigated the Trustees of the chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

136. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire-proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property be carefully preserved therein.

137. Register of Trust Deeds.—A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed for the purpose by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting.

138. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Minutes, 1891, p. 259.)

139. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that in some Places a desire has been expressed to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Minutes, vol. vii. [1834], p. 420; 1885, p. 185.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Minutes, 1894, p. 323.

140. Voting in our Chapels on Municipal and other Matters.—It is not within the province of any person occupying our pulpits to submit Resolutions and take votes on municipal and semi-political matters, nor to ask the congregation to vote thereon at the close of the service in our Chapels on the Lord's Day. (Minutes, 1904, p. 361.)

141. Friendly Societies and Meetings on Trust Premises.—Friendly Societies and Approved Societies under the Insurance Act may be encouraged to hold their Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Schools or Vestries, especially where there is no other public building available for the purpose; care being taken to avoid any action which would render the Trust property liable to rates. (Minutes, 1896, p. 333.)

142. Discontinuance of Public Services.—Before Public Services are finally discontinued in any Chapel held on a Connexional Trust, at least three months' notice of such intention shall be given by the Superintendent Minister to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, and also to the General Secretary of the Home Mission Committee, in order that steps may be taken, if thought advisable, to avoid such a necessity. (Minutes, 1905, p. 118.)

143. Entertainments on Trust Premises.—The Conference has reason to believe that in certain localities entertainments have been allowed which are, to say the least, highly inexpedient, and that in a few cases the practice obtains of holding entertainments which are altogether inconsistent with the purposes for which our property is held in Trust. The Conference therefore directs that the greatest possible care must be taken not to allow premises set apart for religious purposes to be used for entertainments which would bring a reproach upon the Church or constitute a ground of offence to our people generally. The Conference further urges Ministers and Trustees to exercise a wise discrimination in regard to these matters, especially in view of the fact that certain entertainments which may be innocent in themselves are associated in the public mind with the gambling spirit of the age, and are altogether at variance with the objects for which the Methodist Church exists. At the same time the Conference is of opinion that in certain localities where the people have little opportunity of wholesome recreation, such recreation may with advantage be permitted. (Minutes, 1908, p. 107.)

The Conference regrets to find that in a few cases Trustees have proposed to apply for a Dramatic Licence for the purpose of allowing dramatic entertainments on our premises, and that in some parts of the country entertainments and amusements have been countenanced which ought not to be associated with places set apart for Religious Worship or for Sunday Schools. The Conference strongly disapproves of any application for Licences that might give the impression that our Trust property could under any condition be used for the purposes mentioned, which are so alien to the traditions, character, and aims of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. The Conference declares that Dancing, Card-playing, Games of Chance, Entertainments which legally require a Dramatic Licence, and Amusements of a frivolous and vulgar type are contrary to the "General rules and usages of the people called Methodists" as affecting the use of our Trust property, and cannot be allowed. (Minutes, 1909, p. 109.)

144. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a Member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt; the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a colleague, and cannot therefore consult a weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

145. Modification of the Leaders' Meeting.—(1) The representation of our members in Local Church Management shall be secured by the enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting.

(2) The elected members of the Leaders' Meeting shall be in the proportion of one in fifty, or fraction of fifty, members of Society in connexion with that Leaders' Meeting up to four hundred, thus providing for a maximum of eight elected members.

(3) Persons thus elected to the Leaders' Meeting shall thereby become members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

(4) Persons eligible for election to the Leaders' Meeting shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, and shall have been in continuous full membership for at least three years.

(5) Persons eligible to take part in the election of representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall have been full members for at least twelve months, and shall be not less than twenty-one years of age. This shall not exclude from voting those persons who are already members of the Quarterly Meeting.

(6) Representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall be chosen after nomination, either by open voting or by ballot, as the Meeting of Members may determine. The nomination shall be made in the Meeting by any member who is eligible to take part in the election. The election in each case shall be for one year, provided the membership be maintained.

(7) The election of representatives shall take place annually at an aggregate Devotional Meeting of the Members of each Society, to be held as early in the year as conveniently possible, and shall be presided over by the Superintendent Minister or one of his colleagues; the members to be admitted to the Meeting by showing their ticket of membership for the previous Quarter. If a vacancy in the number of the Elected Representatives should through any cause occur during the year, the place may be filled at a Society Meeting duly called, and constituted, as in the case of the Meeting described in the preceding paragraph. (Minutes, 1908, p. 108; 1911, p. 95.)

(8) The disciplinary functions of the enlarged Leaders' Meeting shall be the same as those exercised by the Leaders' Meeting as heretofore constituted. (Minutes, 1908, p. 107; 1909, pp. 100 and 364; 1911, p. 348.)

(9) The chief or general Superintendent of each Sunday School shall be ex officio a member of the Leaders' Meeting of that Society with which the Sunday School is connected, he being a member of Society and not a member of any other Leaders' Meeting. (Minutes, 1913, p. 61.)

(10) The regulations for the enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting do not apply to the Foreign Districts.

146. Appeal to the Leaders' Meeting.—No Appeal to a Leaders' Meeting shall be received against an act of Discipline by a Minister, in withholding a Ticket of Membership, after the completion of twelve months from the time when the member has been informed by the Minister of such act of Discipline. (Minutes, 1906, p. 333.)

147. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1807], p. 405.)

148. Junior Society Classes.—In connexion with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. (Minutes, 1894, p. 218.)

149. Leaders of Junior Society Classes and the Leaders' Meeting.—Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting and the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, provided they have reached the age of twenty-one years. (Minutes, 1910, p. 104; 1911, p. 352; 1912, p. 366.)

150. Joint Circuit Committees.—For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Sunday-school Committee, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be held occasionally. (Minutes, 1891, p. 329.)

151. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman and Financial Secretary of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also with the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p.402; 1885, p. 276; 1892, p. 311; 1893, p. 319; Journal, 1903.)

152. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit, he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in and approved by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Minutes, 1895, pp. 435, 438; 1898, p. 360.)

153. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Minutes, 1898, p. 361.)

154. Prison Chaplains.—Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which County or Borough Prisons are situate are required to furnish each year in September to the Ministerial Secretary of the Home Mission's Prisons Sub-Committee the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners. (Minutes, 1903, p. 362.)

155. County Asylums and Civil Prisons.—The Pastoral oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums shall be regarded as part of the duty of the Ministers in those Circuits in which County Asylums are situated. (Minutes, 1908, p. 356.)

156. Assistant Class Leaders.—Where a Society Class is large, a Leader infirm, or it appears otherwise expedient, an Assistant Leader may be appointed by the Leaders' Meeting on the nomination of the Superintendent, and such Assistant shall be a member of the Leaders' Meeting. The number of Assistant Leaders who shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting shall not exceed one Assistant for one class. Assistant Leaders shall be members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. The appointment of Assistant Leaders shall be an annual instead of a permanent one. (Minutes, 1907, pp. 99, 348; 1910, 368.)

157. Candidates on the List of Reserve.—1. Every accepted Candidate on the List of Reserve who is not appointed by the President shall be placed under the care of the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he resides, who shall be responsible for furnishing to the Designation Committee the required report concerning the said Candidate.

2. Candidates on the List of Reserve who receive an appointment before Christmas shall take the prescribed course of Reading and Examination for Probationers of the first year. Such Candidates, when appointed after Christmas, shall be required to take a course of Reading to be prescribed by the Probationers' Examination Committee, varying according to the date of appointment. This Committee shall satisfy itself that its requirements have been observed, and shall report to the Designation Committee.

3. As proper time for study is essential to the work of our Probationers, the Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits and Missions to arrange accordingly. The Conference directs the Secretary of the Examination Committee to report to the Designation Committee those cases in which, in consequence of pressure of special work, there has been comparative failure in the Examination for two successive years.

X. Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

158. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting. (Minutes, 1893, p. 319.)

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Minutes, 1884, p. 191; 1893, p. 319.)

159. Church Membership and the Synods.—No one is eligible for a seat in a Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Minutes, 1892, p. 309.)

160. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

161. Lay Representation in Synods.—(1) Each Circuit shall be represented in the Synod by its Circuit Stewards, or, in their unavoidable absence, by substitutes, in accordance with the existing regulation on that subject.

(2) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, the March Quarterly Meeting of the Circuits may elect, as members of the Synod at its next meetings in May and September, Laymen, who are considered suitable on general grounds, in the following proportion; viz. (a) Circuits providing for one or two Ministers in Full Connexion shall elect one representative; (b) Circuits providing for more than two Ministers in Full Connexion may elect one additional representative for each Minister in Full Connexion over the number of two. (Minutes, 1902, p. 111; Journal, 1908.)

162. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the May Synod; also, a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present. This applies, so far as substitutes for Circuit Stewards are concerned, both to the May and September Synods. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340; 1908, p. 115.)

163. Candidates for the Ministry.—In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the Synod. (Minutes, 1895, p. 204.)

The Conference directs that no Candidate for the Ministry be nominated until he has been heard by the Superintendent and by his colleagues, and also that full opportunity be given to the members of the Quarterly Meeting to hear the Candidate before the nomination is made. (Minutes, 1908, p. 354.)

Where Candidates are in temporary residence in any Circuit for the purpose of special theological training, they shall be recommended as Candidates by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they have resided and worked as Local Preachers, and not by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they are temporarily residing. (Minutes, 1915, p. 344.)

164. Division of Circuits.—Before a Synod consents to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to debts existing thereon. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270–273.

165. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall in future be fully stated in the Minutes of the Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits.

These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

166. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one third to the Home Mission Fund; one third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A return of the gross amounts collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of such amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Synods. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 528; and vol. xx. [1877], p. 398; also 1885, p. 195.)

167. Quarterly Meeting Inquiry.—In every Circuit Quarterly Meeting inquiry shall be made from the Chair as to the amount received on behalf of Foreign Missions during the quarter, and the payment thereof to the District Treasurer. (Minutes, 1902, p. 14.)

Circuit Missionary Committees and Officers are to be appointed, and the Report and Audited Accounts presented, at the March Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1909, p. 17.)

168. The Weekly Offertory.—The Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 286, 287.)

169. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 221, 222.)

170. Financial Statement at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference directs that at each June Quarterly Meeting this shall be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Minutes, 1889, p. 288.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 448-50.

171. Wesley Guild Returns.—The Returns which are prepared for the District Synod are, by the recommendation of the Conference, to be submitted and considered by the March Quarterly Meeting in the same way as other Departmental Returns. (Minutes, 1908, p. 96.)

172. Statistics of Day and Sunday Schools.—The statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

173. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 111.)

(2) Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 367.)

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial. (Minutes, 1891, pp. 331, 362.)

(4) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. GEORGE MARRIS, The Manse, Chislehurst, not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference. (Minutes, 1889, p. 285.)

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(6) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 368.)

(7) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(8) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 424.)

174. Central Mission Quarterly Meetings and Non-resident Trustees.—The direction that the Quarterly Meeting of the Manchester Mission, Oldham Street Circuit, shall include the Trustees of all the Chapels and Mission Halls who are members of Society, whether such Trustees are resident in the Circuit or not, shall apply to all the Central Missions whose Committees are appointed by the Conference. (Minutes, 1895, p. 274; 1910, p. 103.)

XI. The Local Preachers' Meeting.

175. Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History; and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Minutes, 1874, vol. xix., p. 455.)

176. No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity as there explained. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155.) The period of probation is twelve months. The Local Preachers' Meeting may extend the period in individual cases if necessary or desirable. (Minutes, 1905, p. 92.)

177. All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Minutes, 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624.)

178. Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Minutes, 1895, p. 437.)

179. A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan. (Minutes, 1895, p. 314.)

N.B.—This regulation applies also to a Local Preacher who is a Director of a Company which is in similar financial circumstances.

180. Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit.

(This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on trial.)

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned. (Minutes, 1895, p. 436.)

181. Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Minutes, 1898, p. 250.)

182. The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155.)

183. Before any place is taken off the Plan the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting shall be obtained. (Minutes, 1895, p. 439.)

184. Local Preachers' Meetings.—In every Local Preachers' Meeting the Superintendent shall inquire quarter by quarter as to the reading of Local Preachers on Trial, and especially as to their reading of Wesley's Sermons and Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, 1902, p. 359.)

XII. Sunday and Day Schools.

185. Sunday-school Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; and also at all meetings of the Committee, and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman; except in the case of a Teachers' Meeting, when one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Minutes, vol. xvii. [1868], p. 384.)

186. Representation in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The Chief or General Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex officio Representative, a special Representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the school at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council.

* This Standing Order applies to the old Regulations still in force in some Schools.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special Representative shall be elected in like manner. The special Representative or Representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for Representatives.

(5) Where there are two sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council, elect from among their own number as a Representative some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when Representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present, the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such chairman being a member of the Church. (Minutes, 1894, pp. 313, 314.)

187. Orthodoxy of Sunday-school Officers and Teachers.—The Chapel Model Deed provides that in any School held in a building settled on the Trusts of the Chapel Model Deed the teaching is always subject to the Clause in the Deed respecting Doctrine; and the Conference has specifically directed that no person shall be continued as an Officer or Teacher who shall at any time be declared by the Local Sunday-School Council or the Leaders' Meeting unfit in respect of general character or of religious opinions for the Office he sustains or for taking part in the Christian Education of the young. (Minutes, 1827, vol. vi., p. 298; 1911, pp. 421, 422.)

188. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 176; 1882, pp. 224, 225; 1890, p. 279; 1896, p. 230.)

189. Correct Returns from Sunday Schools.—(1) The Local Sunday-School Council shall consider at a meeting to be held not later than January 31 of each year, the School Returns for the year ending December 31 previous, and immediately forward the Schedule to the Circuit Secretary. (Minutes, 1911, p. 512.)

(2) The Report of each School is to be submitted by the School Secretary to the officers of the School, and countersigned by the School Superintendent before being sent to the Local Council. (Minutes, 1904, p. 110.)

(3) The Circuit Sunday-School Council shall consider the Sunday-School Schedules and report thereon to the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1911, p. 513.)

(4) The Statistics of the Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the Circuit June Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 440.)

190. Scholars' Removal Notes.—With a view to preventing, as far as possible, the loss of scholars by removal, "Scholars' Removal Notes" should be used in all our Schools. The Conference requests the Committee of the Sunday-School Department to supply, free of cost, in the first instance, a Specimen Book of Removal Notes to the officers, and to intimate the willingness of the Department to assist in any case of difficulty. (Minutes, 1907, p. 97.)

191. Erection of Sunday-School Premises.—All trustees who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises intended for Sunday-School work shall communicate with the Connexional Sunday-School Department before the plans are finally accepted and before they are submitted to the District Chapel Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted. (Minutes, 1874, pp. 440-441; 1912, p. 117.)

192. Examination of Pupil Teachers.—The Annual Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March. The questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; the Examination held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September Synods, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and the written answers forwarded to the General Secretary, to be valued by a Central Board of Examiners elected by the General Committee. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], pp. 534, 535; vol. xx. [1877], p. 409.)

In connexion with Central Examinations, meetings of Teachers and Pupil Teachers shall be held, under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Education Secretary.

SECTION VI.

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

ADDRESS TO HIS MAJESTY THE KING.

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please your Majesty,

The Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, assembled in the City of Birmingham, and representing the People of Wesleyan Methodism throughout Great Britain and Ireland, desires to approach your Majesty with a loyal and dutiful Address.

The Conference expresses affectionate attachment to your Majesty's Person and Throne, and unfeigned gratitude for the manifold blessings of your Majesty's gracious reign. The Conference recognises the care for the Public Welfare which your Majesty and the Queen have ever evinced, and ventures to mention the great example given to the Nation in excluding alcoholic beverages from the Royal Tables during the continuance of the war.

The Conference assures your Majesty of the unchanging loyalty and patriotism of the People for whom it speaks. They are profoundly moved by the National Crisis occasioned by the European War in which your Majesty's Sea and Land Forces are engaged, and in which they have already covered themselves with undying renown.

While deploring the sanguinary conflict and its measureless consequences, the Methodist People are convinced that Great Britain and her Allies are fighting the battle of freedom and justice, and that they cannot retire till victory crowns their efforts. They long for peace, and pray that it may come soon; but they will continue to support your Majesty with all their resources until the Enemy is vanquished, and a just and honourable peace is attained.

Signed in the name and on behalf of the Conference,

R. WADDY MOSS, President.
SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

BIRMINGHAM,
July 22, 1915.

The Address

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Dear Brethren,—

Gathered in our Annual Conference we give thanks to God for His goodness to us as a Church during a year of national anxiety and personal stress. By common consent the crisis through which we are passing is fraught with mighty issues for Christianity and the world. We are thankful that as a united people our Methodist Church from the first recognised the gravity of the issue, and responded to the national call. We believe that the part that Britain is playing in this stupendous conflict has been dictated by national honour, and not by selfish expediency. We are fully convinced that it was morally impossible for a nation with our obligations and traditions to remain neutral while Belgium was being ravaged, France and Russia imperilled, and the gains of Christianity and civilisation jeopardised by a despotic ambition. Deeply as we deplore the appalling spectacle of bloodshed and widespread misery, we are driven to confess that "a righteous war is better than an immoral peace." We rejoice that the crisis through which the Empire has been passing has revealed the strength of the bonds which unite all sections of the King's subjects throughout the world. We give thanks to God for the magnificent loyalty and devotion of our people both to the Church and the State during a year of unexampled difficulty. Nearly one hundred thousand of our young men have responded to the call of the King and the need of the country. Many have laid down their lives in this great war against materialism and inhumanity. Although we keenly mourn their loss, we believe that by the shedding of their blood they have done much to maintain the cause of truth and justice, progress and brotherhood. In the Memorial Service held during the Representative Session, we endeavoured to honour the memory of the dead, to give thanks for their self-sacrifice, and to remember the bereaved in our prayers. The women of Methodism, in common with the women of the Empire, have given of their best in assiduous and sacrificial service for the well-being of our soldiers and sailors and the strangers within our gates. Let us continue to pray and labour for the victory of right over wrong; of spiritual ideals over a soul-degrading materialism; and for the ultimate advent of a world-wide and lasting peace, founded upon law and righteousness, which shall unite all nations in the service of humanity.

The Conference rejoices in the continued Missionary enthusiasm of our Church. In spite of the great difficulties of the year, it is evident that there is no slackening in the determination of our people to fulfil the last command of their Lord. The heroism of our workers, the generosity of our people, and the courage and steadfastness of the native Christians, call for thanksgiving and gratitude. The mission fields, visited during the year by the Secretaries of our Society, have given unmistakable evidence of the great work done in the past, and the manifold opportunities and responsibilities of the present. Many problems still await the solution which the Gospel of Jesus Christ alone can provide. For if Christ is to reign from the rising to the setting of the sun, every province of thought, and every sphere of activity, must be illumined by His light and consecrated by His spirit. There is no short cut to a saved universe. Evangelism, education, and philanthropy must give of their best for the salvation of the world. Then the market-places of the world will become the commonwealth of Christ, and every municipality will be made a city of God. To this end the claims of those for whom Christ died must be made supreme in our thought. The needs of our brethren in distant lands must haunt our imagination and fire our hearts. Let us bring to the altar of Christ's service our ripest wisdom, our deepest love, and our greatest treasure. To our Lord's "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel" we must respond "Here am I, send me."

The Conference has been gladdened in hearing of the universal devotion of our people in diverse ways during one of the most trying years in our history. Thought and time, service and gifts, have been offered willingly for the carrying on of God's work. The great national emergency has awakened a ready response in a multitude of hearts. There has been a revival of service and sacrifice on every hand. Streams of sympathy have been turned into rivers of beneficence, and the heart of the country is slowly but surely being moved to noble thought and splendid endeavour.

The Home Missions of our Church are full of vitality, and their numerous activities have been well sustained. Our soldiers and sailors have constantly been in our thought and prayers. Their spiritual and material needs have not been overlooked. In the camps, before the trenches, and at the hospitals, provision has been made to minister to their welfare. Many chaplains have been set apart for this important branch of service, and the reports of their work are of thrilling interest. Most of all we rejoice that so many of our circuits have risen to the great opportunity and ministered to the moral and spiritual needs of our soldiers. We believe that the work they have accomplished will bear abundant fruit in years to come.

The splendid example of the King at an early stage of the war gave a great impulse to the Temperance Movement throughout the land. In our own Church the Abstainers' League has substantially increased its numbers. On every hand there is a deepening conviction that intemperance is a deadly foe to social and religious progress. We can have no complicity with the Drink traffic, but by every means at our disposal we must discountenance the use of that which causeth our brother to offend.

While there are many things which inspire us with devout thankfulness, there are others which cause us grave concern. For the ninth year in succession we report a decrease in our Church Membership, and there is also a serious falling off in the number of our Sunday School scholars. Some other departments show a corresponding weakness. The gravity of the situation is not lessened by pointing to the increased number of our churches, the generosity of our people, or the general decline in Church attendance. The Church and the world need a great spiritual awakening. It is of paramount importance that our young people should be won to the discipleship of Jesus. Let every Church seek a mighty increase of spiritual life, and for this blessing let us turn from material things to God, in penitence, prayer, and consecration.

> We cannot hope from outward forms to win
> The passion and the life whose fountains are within.

The decreases reported this year constitute a signal call to a renewed faith and a quickened activity.

The Campaign of Spiritual Advance resolved upon by the last Conference proved to be a blessing to many circuits. In some districts the new situation created by the war made any elaborately organised effort almost impossible, but in spite of numerous difficulties many were called to prayer and worship and a stronger faith in God.

During the year the President of the Conference has visited various parts of the country, and everywhere has been cordially and loyally welcomed, while his evangelistic and patriotic messages have brought inspiration and comfort to innumerable hearts.

The world's need of the Gospel of Jesus Christ was never more supremely urgent than to-day. Thank God, Christianity has a message for broken lives and desolated homes. The nation's sorrow and grief call for compassionate ministries. In the throes of a great agony we believe a new world will have its birth. Social problems will have to be solved in the light of Christ's teaching, and the religion of our Lord applied to every department of thought and activity. The faith of our fathers must be lifted out of abstraction and be made incarnate in character and service; and a basis of brotherhood must be found on which all nationalities may unite in freedom and peace.

As exponents of a practical Christianity let us be loyal to the fundamental truths of the Gospel. Let us prize the means of grace. Let us reverence the simplicities of life. Let us beware of the insidious influence of luxury. Let us covet earnestly the best gifts. The world needs a Christianity that is sympathetic, sane, and virile, and an evangelism that is intelligent, spiritual, and aggressive. With dauntless courage and heroic faith let us work and watch and pray until those for whom Christ died shall be saved by His grace, and transformed by His power.

"Blessed is that servant whom his Lord, when He cometh, shall find so doing; of a truth He will set him over all that He hath."

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1915

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1915.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,—

We greet you once again in the Name of the Lord. We heartily thank God for the blessings which have rested on your labours during the very trying year through which you have passed, and for the zeal which you have displayed in the prosecution of the work committed to your charge. We followed with deep and sympathetic interest the careful inquiry which you instituted at your last Conference into the spiritual state of the churches under your care, and we join with you in the prayer that there may speedily come upon you, and upon us, seasons of refreshing from the presence of God.

It has been a joy to us to welcome back to Ireland our esteemed President, the Rev. Dinsdale T. Young. The impressions produced by his ministrations on the occasion of his former visit to our Conference still abide, and we looked forward to his return with sincere pleasure. Nor have we been disappointed. By his genial disposition, his impartial conduct in the chair, and by his impressive public utterances, he has once again evoked our admiration and intensified the love which we bear towards him.

The enforced absence of the Rev. Samuel F. Collier, of Manchester, we deeply regret; but it has been a pleasure to welcome to our midst your ministerial representatives, the Rev. Alfred Roebuck, B.D., and the Rev. J. T. Wardle Stafford, D.D. We gladly acknowledge the help they have given us, not only in the Sessions of Conference itself, but also in the public meetings and in our pulpits; their able and timely utterances have delighted and inspired us all. The visit of your lay representative, Mr. Kingsley Wood, has also given us gratification. For his father's sake and for his own, we have given him a hearty welcome, and he has worthily maintained the dignity of the delegation.

We have carried on our deliberations under the shadow of the great war which is devastating the Continent of Europe, and draining our nation of the life-blood of many of her sons. In this fierce struggle between light and darkness, liberty and tyranny, Christ and Belial, Irishmen and Irishwomen have played and are playing a noble part. Thousands of Irish Methodists responded with alacrity to the appeal of our King, and joined the Colours, to fight for the preservation of those ideals for which the British Empire stands. The numerous graves of our Irish dead, whether in France or Flanders or elsewhere, speak eloquently of a love which counted not life dear unto itself, but which freely surrendered it for the sake of the common good. Our young men know how to live, they have also known how to die. And we feel that their sacrifice will not have been in vain, if there should emerge from the present struggle a new Europe, in which the privileges and responsibilities of a brotherhood are fully and freely recognised. One of the first acts of the Representative Conference was to hold a solemn Service of Intercession for our Empire. It was a memorable one. We were profoundly conscious of the presence and the power of God, as we lifted up our eyes unto Him who is our refuge and strength and our very present help in trouble.

During our Conference we sent a message to His Majesty King George V., assuring him of our continued loyalty, and we received from him a characteristically gracious reply. Irish Methodists are loyal to the throne; and they have recognised with peculiar pleasure the King's attitude to spiritual things. At this crisis in the history of our Empire, we thank God that our nation is presided over by one who is a truly Christian Monarch.

Over against the fact that we again report a small decrease in our adult membership, we place with gratitude two encouraging considerations—first, there is an increase in junior members of 723; and second, the number on trial for full membership is double that recorded last year. Remembering the untoward circumstances of the past ten months, there is not a little in these figures which bids us hope.

We have lost by death two of our esteemed brethren, each of whom rendered long and loving service to our Church. Gabriel Marquis Clarke was a man of rare modesty, and of delightful and unobtrusive spirit, who won and retained throughout a lengthened ministry the affection of those to whom he was appointed to minister. Charles Henry Crookshank, M.A., a man richly endowed by nature, was one whose powers were wholly consecrated to Christ and his Church. By his removal we have lost one of the most lovable, devoted, and chivalrous of men. His History of Irish Methodism has been, and is likely to remain, the standard history of our Church. The death of Mr. Alfred Crawford, I.S.O., one of our most prominent laymen, must regretfully be recorded. He was instrumental in laying the foundation of the revised basis of membership in our Church; and was also the father of the movement for aggressive evangelism which was entered into at the beginning of the century. His death has left a blank which it will be exceedingly difficult to fill. These brethren died in faith, inheriting the promises, and we thank God for the fragrant memories they have left behind them.

This year, we are glad to say, a new chapter in our relation to the work of world-wide evangelism will open. For a very long period we received a large sum of money annually from the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society for the purpose of carrying on the work in the Roman Catholic districts of Ireland which the Missionary Society had begun. The pathetic appeal of the heathen world, however, became so insistent that we were requested so to re-arrange our work as to allow of this grant being withdrawn, and the money thus saved being employed in sending additional missionaries to the regions beyond. Thanks to the valuable co-operation of the Missionary Society and the devotion of our own people, we have succeeded in accomplishing this. From January 1916 onwards, a sum of over £4,000 per annum will be available for the purpose we have mentioned, and in addition, we have pledged ourselves to deepen and widen the interest in Foreign Missionary enterprise which already exists in our Church.

Irish Methodism has been favoured during recent months with a visit from Mr. Gipsy Smith, which has left behind it very precious memories indeed. Accompanied by the Vice-President, Rev. William R. Budd, and the Rev. P. Ernest Donovan, and others, he visited certain cities and towns throughout Ireland, where careful preparations for his meetings had been made beforehand.

These meetings were seasons of heart-searching and of definite surrender to Christ. Some of the results of these services are already manifest, but Eternity alone will reveal all that this visit has meant to Irish Methodism. Mr. Smith himself has said, and his experience is world-wide—"This has been one of the most delightful months of my life."

We have chosen for the office of Vice-President and Delegate the Rev. John Olliffe Price, a brother who has won our esteem and love. He will be accompanied by Rev. James Kirkwood, the Rev. John W. Carrothers, M.A., LL.D., and Mr. William I. Marshall, J.P. These will be our representatives at your Conference, and will inform you of our affairs as you may desire.

We earnestly ask for a continued interest in your prayers. Our problems are many and our difficulties are great, but hitherto hath the Lord helped us, and He will never leave us nor forsake us. We know something of your present difficulties and the problems which await solution in the days which lie ahead. We commend you to God in holy confidence and love, and pray that His richest blessing may abide upon all your work. May your deliberations in your approaching Conference be crowned with His Benediction.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JAMES M. ALLEY, Secretary.

THE ANSWER
OF THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1915
TO THE
ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1915.

Dear and Honoured Brethren,—

We thank you for your brotherly greeting, which we warmly appreciate.

We note with gladness the hopefulness of your reference to some portions of your return of membership, and we earnestly pray that the Divine blessing may so attend your work and ours, during the coming days, that we may be enabled to rejoice together next year in recording an increase of our Church membership in all departments. Let us pray for this, let us work for this, let us "Plant and water" for this, and surely our God will give the increase.

Your reference to the death of distinguished servants of God who have laboured in your midst calls forth our sympathy. The work is the Lord's. "God buries His workmen but He carries on His work." It is still true "The best of all, God is with us."

We congratulate you and the cause of world evangelism on the success of your noble endeavour to relinquish the grants hitherto paid by our Missionary Society to you, for the purpose of carrying on the work which the Society had long ago begun in Roman Catholic districts of your country. You have thus accomplished your aim to serve the great missionary cause by providing a sum of £4,000 per annum for use in sending additional messengers to the Foreign Field, and we gladly recognise and rejoice in this and in the self-sacrificing generosity of your people in themselves providing for the work in Ireland hitherto accomplished by the help of the grants to which reference has been made. Your address on this subject and the speech in our Conference of your esteemed delegate was received with great pleasure.

You will be glad to note that we too have this year taken an important step for the furtherance of the missionary work of our Church, by the appointment of a medical man as an additional Secretary, for the organisation and furtherance of this most important and very hopeful branch of missionary endeavours.

Like you, we have this year sent a special address to His Majesty King George the Fifth, assuring him of our affectionate loyalty to the throne, and humbly expressing our heartfelt appreciation of the noble example set to his subjects by abolishing from the table of the Royal Palaces all intoxicating liquors. We have commended his Majesty's example to all our people.

We have met under the shadow of the calamity of the terrible war which has been thrust on the nations of Europe by our enemies. Our sessions have been made memorable by the service of intercessions to Almighty God, and for the solemn memorial service when the names of some 750 men from our homes, who have laid down their life for the nation, were presented. We share your conviction as to the real issues of the terrible struggle which is now raging on the battlefields of Europe, Asia, and Africa. They are spiritual as well as material. We have no doubt of the righteousness of the cause for which we and our Allies contend, and we believe that the victory of the Allies is bound up with the defence of the liberty and true well-being, not only of ourselves and our Allies, but also of the human race—and, with you, we cry to God that victory may speedily be given to our cause. We are arranging for the observance, unitedly, of a day of intercession, of penitence and thanksgiving, and in this we ask all our Churches at home and abroad to participate. Our hope is in God. In the solution of the problems and difficulties which we experience or expect, we, with you, look for the illumination and help of the Most High.

Beloved brethren, in this hour of clouds and darkness we commend you to God, and we pray that His blessing may rest on your service to the glory of His Name.

We greet you with undiminished affection.

"The Lord bless you and keep you."

"The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you."

"The Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace."

OF THE

FRENCH BUREAU AND FRENCH CHURCHES

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1915.

Dear and Honoured Brethren,—

In due time we received the reply of your Conference to our address; it was dated July 29, that is, the eve of the declaration of the war which, with our pacific tendencies, we could not dream possible.

Our deepest admiration for your noble country was roused when, rejecting proposals which she deemed incompatible with honour, she unhesitatingly threw herself into the fray, casting in her lot with that of her two allies, France and Russia, and placing the whole of her army and of her navy at the service of the sacred cause of right, against the Powers who had set Europe ablaze, trampling justice and humanity under-foot, breaking the international treaties that bore their signatures, violating the neutrality of Belgium and aiming to establish, by brute force, their rule over the whole world.

At that moment the Entente Cordiale became an Alliance uniting two generous nations made to love, to complete, to aid one another for their mutual good and the salvation of humanity. Your soldiers and ours fraternise on the battle-field, strong in the knowledge that their cause is just, that by their efforts to crush German militarism they are preparing a new and better order of things, a time when war will have become materially and morally impossible, when, according to the words of Scripture, "men shall beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning-hooks." God grant that this fearful war may hasten the coming on earth of the reign of the Prince of Peace!

You will readily understand that our Churches have suffered greatly from the war. Our President was mobilised from the first, as well as six of our colleagues, one of whom, Pastor Bertin Aguillon, was killed while heroically performing his duty as "infirmier." His death is a great blow to our pastoral body and for our Churches. He leaves behind the memory of a man whose heart and soul were unreservedly given to the Master's service; "He being dead, yet speaketh." The Church of Anduze of which he was the pastor, gathering round his widow and fatherless children, has sought strength and comfort in closer communion with the Master and has received abundant blessings which have extended to the neighbouring Churches. Many have been converted, and the Lord "has added to them day by day those that were being saved." True conversions are at all times the greatest joy and the highest ambition of our ministry. God grant they may be multiplied! Some of our ministers, placed on the reserve list, have so far been able to remain at their posts; but should the war continue much longer, they may at a moment's notice be called to join the ranks and their Churches will be forsaken.

There have been no students in our Theological College since the war, four of them being mobilised and the others having been sent to replace the ministers who are at the front. Our Churches are further weakened by the absence of the lay brethren, mobilised also. Nevertheless the divine work is not stopped. Those who go and those who remain alike feel the need of living nearer to God. Our soldiers in the trenches and in the barracks are bearing testimony to their Christian faith. An abundant distribution is being made of the Gospels, which are accepted with gratitude. The seeds of life may grow even on the fields of death.

Circumstances do not allow of our annual Synod being held. The "Bureau" has met to settle the questions under discussion. It is in its name and in the name of our Churches that this address to your Conference is sent.

In accordance with the wish expressed by the Missionary Committee, we send you no delegate this year. But we earnestly pray that God's blessing may rest abundantly upon your labours. We are particularly glad to learn that, in spite of the war, the financial year has been a good one for your Missionary Society, and that your missionaries have been encouraged in their spiritual work. The magnificent result of your special effort in connexion with the Centenary of your Society has filled our hearts with gladness and gratitude.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks for your continued support in these days of our great adversity. We count on your valuable aid for the future extension of our evangelistic work. Already we see signs of a religious revival which will not be limited to the Roman Catholic Church ; we believe that many will shake off their spiritual indifference and seek in evangelical Christianity the satisfaction of their aspirations.

Both the English and the French Governments have seen the necessity of continuing the struggle against alcoholism. As a first step, the sale and production of "absinthe" have been prohibited. Severe restrictions have been made as regards drink within the zone of war. The Senate is examining a law voted by our Chamber of Deputies bearing on the limitation of the number of public-houses. Our President, on being solicited by the French Temperance Society "La Croix Bleue" to follow the example of your Sovereign in abstaining from alcohol for the duration of the war, replied that nothing was easier for him, seeing that it was his constant habit. We are told that other and stricter anti-alcoholic measures are under consideration. The Methodist Church has been foremost in the work of the "Croix Bleue," and it gives us the greatest satisfaction to see the question of drink entering upon a decisive phase.

The hour, therefore, is propitious for the moral and religious uplifting of our beloved country. We look to you, more than ever before, for aid and co-operation. Send us workers and funds! Willingly we echo the appeal of one of your great statesmen: "Ammunition, more ammunition, and still more ammunition!" to lead us to victory.

In the name of the Bureau and of the Churches,

L. PARKER, Secretary.

OF THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1915
TO THE
ADDRESS OF THE BUREAU OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE, 1915.

Dear Brethren,—

We have received from your acting President and Secretary a letter in the name of the Conference, although on account of the war it has been found impossible either for your Conference to meet or for a delegate from you to be present with us at the sessions of our Conference. With deep admiration for the splendid and courageous services of your brave nation, our Ally, and with the most heartfelt sorrow for the terrible sacrifices that you have been called upon to make, our entire Conference salutes and honours you in this day of conflict. And especially to you, dear brethren, the pastors and people of the Methodist Church in France, do we convey our love and sympathy. Your President has spent his year of office in military duty, and several other Ministers have been absent the whole year from their stations at the call of their country. Our brother, Bertin Aguillon, a gifted preacher of the glorious gospel of God and an example of true holiness, has been translated from earth to heaven by death on the field of battle. Other brethren, such as Messieurs Prunier and Brès, have been called to suffer personal bereavement, and many of our Local Preachers, Church officials, and members have also been baptized with sorrow. Please assure all our heroic people of our pride in their devotion, and of our prayers for their comfort.

Most solemnly has the British Conference pledged itself before God to endure all needful sacrifices and to exert its utmost energy for the successful termination of the terrible but righteous war to which both you in France and we in Great Britain have been committed by the arrogance and wickedness of our enemies. We pray for a peace, built on justice, which shall at last knit together the nations in love for God and in a holy crusade for the salvation of the world. But till God in His mercy grant to us victory and peace, we in Great Britain and you in France must go on hand in hand.

We rejoice that, in spite of the awful difficulties created by the war, you have everywhere maintained the work of the Church. We admire the tenacity of the men and women who, deprived of their ministers and of those men who would naturally take the lead, have nevertheless kept open the House of God and have made provision for regular public worship. Especially do we recognise the serene courage of our people at Nancy, where they have again and again suffered a severe bombardment.

We recognise that it is impracticable during the war to make changes in the stations of the Ministers, or to summon the District Meetings or the French Conference. We understand that our Brother Ullern will continue for the present to hold the office of President.

We do not forget that your financial position is exceedingly trying. Many of the Ministers' families are bearing privations uncomplainingly, the staff of the Pensionnat at Nîmes has been entirely without salary since the war began, and your whole Church is bravely enduring a great accentuation of poverty. We hope the burden will not become intolerable, and we trust you will let us know of your condition that we may the more intelligently exercise on your behalf the sacred ministry of intercession.

Our deepest prayer, brethren, is for the bringing of your gifted nation to the clear knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus. If the awful experiences of this colossal war might prove to be, through God's grace, a cleansing fire, purging all vice, healing all schisms, making your nation as well as our own to enter fully into the glorious liberty of the children of God, how thankful should we all be. We join you in earnest supplication for France. God bring your land out of indifference, agnosticism, and materialism into happy and sincere religious belief. God bring France away from ceremonialism and sacerdotalism to true, simple, direct faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, who bears the sin of the world, and is able to save to the uttermost all them that come unto God through Him.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference.

SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

OF THE

CONFERENCE

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1915.

Dear and Honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

In this, the Thirty-third Annual Conference of our Church now assembled in East London, we again have the joy of extending to you an expression of our esteem and brotherly love. Especially at a time like this, when the Empire is in the throes of a titanic struggle in the cause of righteousness and liberty, and when the sons of our beloved Church are giving their lives in defence of honour and justice, do we value the ties which bind us to you, and cherish the spirit of piety and love which unites all in the Lord Jesus Christ.

We acknowledge with gratification your reply to our address of last year. Its lofty tone, buoyant spirit, and fine optimism have filled us with holy joy and greatly strengthened our faith. We rejoice in the wonderful blessing which has attended your commemoration of the Centenary of Methodist Missions. Circumstances have compelled us largely to modify our own scheme for this Centenary Commemoration. We now propose to hold special services on Sunday, April 16, 1916, the preparations for which are of such a character that we look for great spiritual blessing and uplifting.

Your approval of the nomination of the Rev. Robert Matterson as the President of our Conference for the present year has afforded us great satisfaction. His wide experience, both in European and native work, gives him an admirable fitness for the high office he has been elected to fill. He is a keen student of Methodist law and discipline; a wise and tactful administrator; a brotherly colleague, and a preacher upholding the best traditions of Methodism. The exercise of his varied gifts and graces will, we trust, be blessed to the Connexion throughout the exceptionally trying year during which he watches over its welfare and interests.

We thankfully place on record our appreciation of the services of our beloved ex-President, the Rev. Thomas Edward Marsh. His presence and wise counsels have enheartened the congregations and circuits he was enabled to visit; and his tender and sympathetic dealings with the problems of Connexional administration have done much to deepen the spiritual life and strengthen the faith of our people.

The work of our Church has been carried on amid unprecedented circumstances and trials. Successive droughts, extending over several years, had led to the impoverishment of the people generally. The war in Europe had the effect of closing down the Diamond Mines in Kimberley and Jagersfontein, thus depriving several thousands of workmen of the means of livelihood. In addition to this burden of suffering and poverty, a rebellious rising took place in the Orange Free State and neighbouring parts, in which precious lives were sacrificed, private property was looted and destroyed, and business largely paralysed. For months in many of the Orange Free State circuits our European services were entirely suspended, and this seriously affected both circuit finances and missionary income, while the Native Land Act continued adversely to affect our membership. It is thus with deep sorrow that we have to report for the first time in the history of our work a decrease in the number of full members in our Native Churches. The fact is a humbling one, and gives pause for chastened reflection; but we can say "though troubled on every side, we are not distressed; though perplexed, we are not in despair; though cast down, we are not destroyed."

Our prayers are with you in the anxiety and stress of this great European conflict, and we sorrow with you as we think of the darkened and desolate homes which multiply as the war proceeds. We share with you the burden, and we humbly bow in the presence of Him who ruleth over all, and pray that the time may soon come when the sword shall be sheathed and peace and prosperity become again the heritage of the peoples of the earth.

Among those who have been called to their reward, the name of John Longden ranks high for long and faithful service as a successful pioneer missionary and a beloved pastor and soul-winner among his own people. Johannes Mahonga was, with but one exception, the oldest of our native brethren, a man of great gifts, a type of the very best results of our Church's early work in this land; while George H. Thomas was taken from us on the very threshold of a most promising career.

We have nominated as the President of our Conference for the year 1916 the Rev. Ezra Nuttall. For forty years he has devotedly and faithfully served our Church in South Africa; he is a brother beloved by the whole Church for his kindly and sympathetic disposition; and no words of ours are needed to remind you of his conspicuous ability and eminent fitness for the exceptional honour of a third election to this high office. We respectfully ask you to approve the choice made for our Centennial year and to ratify the nomination.

Owing to existing circumstances, we have no minister or laymen visiting England this year. Of those residing in England we have therefore requested and appointed the Rev. Theophilus Chubb, B.A., an honoured Ex-President of our Conference, and Mr. T. E. Duckles, a highly esteemed layman who for many years rendered us good service, to be our representatives at your Conference, to be held in Birmingham in July.

We pray that God may guide you and us through the troublous year upon which we have entered, and that His continued presence may enrich us with the peace which passeth all understanding.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

HENRY COTTON,
Secretary of the Conference.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1915

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1915.

Dear and Honoured Brethren,—

The Address of the South African Conference to the British Conference assembled in Birmingham, under the Presidency of the Rev. R. Waddy Moss, D.D., was duly presented and was warmly received. Representatives from your Conference would have been gladly welcomed, and we regret that circumstances rendered it impracticable for them to come this year. We were pleased, however, to welcome Mr. T. E. Duckles, now resident in this country, and who, because of his long connexion with the South African Church, was nominated to this Conference. We were sorry that the Rev. Theophilus Chubb, B.A., was unable, through illness, to accompany him.

We give thanks to God for the continued tokens of His presence with you and for the blessing with which the work of the Church has been so manifestly crowned. Our prayer is that He will still pour upon you "the riches of His grace" and that even greater benediction may rest upon all that you do in His name.

The Conference desires to express its sympathy with the Church in South Africa in the difficulties that it has experienced in recent years, and it regrets that, in consequence, you have had to report a decrease in Church Membership. We are glad to find, however, that such a decrease does not indicate any lack of spiritual energy or aggressiveness. We earnestly hope that the unfortunate causes that have reduced your numbers may speedily pass away, and that with the improved conditions in the life of the people there may come a time of great spiritual prosperity.

It is a matter of deep regret that we also have to report a further decrease in membership. In this we recognise a call to self-examination and to a re-consecration of ourselves to God. We rejoice, however, that there are amongst us many evidences of spiritual earnestness, and that in many directions there is much reason for encouragement and thankfulness. We go forward in all the confidence of hope, and take up the manifold tasks that are before us in the assurance that "God, even our own God," will give us His blessing.

We note with deep interest that you propose to celebrate the Centenary of Methodist Missions in South Africa in April next year. We need hardly remind you that the Church in this country will be with you in spirit and in sympathy. We pray that in your Centenary services the presence of the divine Master may be felt, making them fruitful in all spiritual results.

In this time of unprecedented stress and strain it is our pride and joy that our Colonies and Dominions have revealed so splendid a devotion and loyalty to the Empire. South Africa has done nobly, and has abounded in self-sacrifice for the common cause. We are delighted that so conspicuous a victory has been won in German West Africa by the South African Army, striking so great a blow for the cause of freedom and national righteousness. We rejoice in the success already won, and are confident that one of the happy results of this great conflict and sorrow will be that the ties of true affection and brotherhood will bind yet more strongly and closely together the peoples who make up our Empire. He who can bring good out of evil will over-rule for the glory of His name and the good of the nations this calamity, so that all things may fall out "unto the progress of the Gospel."

The Conference heartily ratifies the nomination of the Rev. Ezra Nuttall as the President of your Conference for 1916. Mr. Nuttall is well known to us in England; indeed, his praise is in all the Churches. We recall with thankfulness the service that he has rendered to our Church in South Africa, and there could be no higher mark of the love and esteem of his brethren than that he should be nominated a third time for such high office in the Church.

The Conference also notes with deep sympathy the reference in your Address to ministers in the Church who during the year have been called to their reward. Specially do we hold in honour the native brethren whose loss you mourn and who have rendered such long and faithful service.

We reciprocate with much affection your greetings and good wishes, and pray that the blessing of Him "who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think" may rest upon the Church in its important and manifold activities.

Signed on behalf of the Yearly Conference,

SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

SPECIAL ADDRESSES TO AMERICAN AND COLONIAL CONFERENCES.

To the Board of Bishops, Methodist Episcopal Church, United States of America.

Our Conference now in session in the City of Birmingham deeply regrets that circumstances will not allow us this year to have the pleasure of welcoming a Representative from the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ties that bind us to our brethren across the Atlantic have grown increasingly close and precious with the course of years, and the distinguished representatives whom from time to time you have sent over to our Conference have helped to knit us still more closely together. We rejoice in your continual growth in numbers and influence and in all that you have been permitted to do for God in your country and in many Mission Fields. Despite the strain of the terrible war in which we are engaged, we are grateful for the blessing God has vouchsafed to the labours of our Church during the year. We have finished our Missionary Centenary and have raised £260,000 to equip and extend our missions; our ordinary Missionary income has been more than maintained and the debt on the Society has been greatly reduced. Our Home Missions have been successfully carried on, and our work in the Army and Navy has been extraordinarily blessed. We have provided many camp homes for our soldiers, and our chaplains have done work amid constant peril and hardship, for which we give daily thanks to God. War has brought severe trials, but our sons have nobly responded to the call of the nation, and from all parts of the Empire brave defenders have flocked to the colours. Both at home and in the fighting line our people have been brought into the presence of eternal things as they have never been brought before, and many "have purified themselves, and made themselves white, and been refined." We trust that when peace is restored we shall see days of widespread revival and outpouring of the Spirit of God. We labour and pray unceasingly that out of this travail of nations a new day of grace and blessing may spring, and a new earth may be born in which dwelleth righteousness.

Our distinguished historian, the Rev. Dr. Herbert Workman, Principal of our Training College at Westminster, has been appointed delegate to your General Conference. He will convey to that great assembly our fraternal greetings and tell you of our affairs. It is matter for profound thankfulness to the Father of mercies that for more than a century peace has been maintained between the United States and Great Britain and the goodwill founded upon ties of race and religion has broadened out and deepened. We trust that this concord may never more be broken, but that our countries and our Churches may be increasingly used by divine Providence for the spread of purity and righteousness and for the conquest of all the earth for our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

That is the work to which Methodism is called, and by the grace of God we believe that she will not be disobedient to the heavenly vision.

Believe us, with the warmest fraternal greetings to yourselves, yours most sincerely,

R. W. MOSS, President,
SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

To the Board of Bishops, Methodist Episcopal Church South, United States of America.

OUR Conference now meeting in the City of Birmingham desires us to convey to you and to the whole Methodist Episcopal Church South the assurance of its deep and continued affection and regard.

The ties that bind us to our brethren across the Atlantic have grown increasingly close and precious with the course of years, and the distinguished representatives whom from time to time you have sent over to our Conference have helped to knit us still more closely together. We rejoice in your continual growth in numbers and influence and in all that you have been permitted to do for God in your own country and in many Mission Fields. Despite the strain of the terrible war in which we are engaged we are grateful for the blessing God has vouchsafed to the labours of our Church during the year. We have finished our Missionary Centenary and have raised £260,000 to equip and extend our missions; our ordinary Missionary income has been more than maintained and the debt on the Society has been greatly reduced. Our Home Missions have been successfully carried on, and our work in the Army and Navy has been extraordinarily blessed. We have provided many camp homes for our soldiers, and our chaplains have done work amid constant peril and hardship, for which we give daily thanks to God. War has brought severe trials, but our sons have nobly responded to the call of the nation, and from all parts of the Empire brave defenders have flocked to the colours. Both at home and in the fighting line our people have been brought into the presence of eternal things as they never have been brought before, and "many have purified themselves, and made themselves white, and been refined." We trust that when peace is restored we shall see days of widespread revival and outpouring of the Spirit of God. We labour and pray unceasingly that out of this travail of nations a new day of grace and blessing may spring, and a new earth may be born in which dwelleth righteousness.

It is matter for profound thankfulness to the Father of mercies that for more than a century peace has been maintained between the United States and Great Britain and the goodwill founded upon ties of race and religion has broadened out and deepened. We trust that this concord may never more be broken, but that our countries and our Churches may be increasingly used by divine Providence for the spread of purity and righteousness and for the conquest of all the earth for our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

That is the work to which Methodism is called, and by the grace of God we believe that she will not be disobedient to the heavenly vision.

Believe us, with the warmest fraternal greetings to yourselves, yours most sincerely,

R. W. MOSS, President,
SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

To the General Superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

Our Conference now in session at Birmingham greatly regrets that among other losses brought by the war we have been robbed of the presence of your beloved General Superintendent, Dr. Chown, whom we had the pleasure of seeing and hearing in Plymouth. We shall hope to enjoy his presence and counsel on some future occasion. Meanwhile we desire to assure you of the deep affection and goodwill that we cherish for Canada and for Canadian Methodism. The proof of your confidence in committing to us the administration of your generous and timely Belgian Relief Fund, has given much satisfaction to the Conference, which has expressed its approval of the Committee which is to administer the Fund, and has directed it to report regularly and in detail to the officers of your General Conference.

The great war into which we were so unwillingly plunged a year ago by the deep-laid schemes of Germany has brought grievous sorrows to our homes. One of our ministers who had joined the colours has been killed in action in East Africa, and hundreds of our brave Methodist soldiers and sailors have laid down their lives for their country. Nothing has given us more deep thankfulness in this time of unparalleled strain and trial than the delightful way in which the loyalty of the whole Empire has been shown in the common cause. The colonial contingents have done noble things, and the heroism of their regiments will take rank with the most memorable deeds of military history. We rejoice in the spirit of the men who have thus come to our help and we pray God that victory may soon crown our arms and may usher in a peace that shall never more be broken. War has knit us together and shown that party interests can all be subordinated to the public weal. We have given more than a hundred thousand of our finest Methodist youth to the national service. Our daughters also have been caring for the sick and wounded; our chaplains have done service for which we daily offer thanks to God. There has been a deep and gracious influence on the men at the Front which has led them to pray and seek after spiritual things, whilst at home there has been a sober and earnest purpose and a deepening sense of dependence upon God. We trust that we and you may come out of these fires of affliction refined and purified, more conformed to the will of God and more fit for the service of men.

Many things encourage us. The success of our Missionary Centenary Fund, the wonderful liberality that has maintained and increased our Foreign Missionary income in this trying year, the progress of our Home Missionary work as well as the extraordinary blessing that has rested on our chaplains in the Army and Navy. For these encouragements we give constant thanks to the Head of the Church. We are resolved to devote ourselves more fully to His work. Our faith has been strengthened by His gracious succour. No foe has been permitted to invade our land, and the whole Empire has been knit together as one man in its grim struggle against despotic barbarism. We are seeking to stand fast in this evil day and through its dark hours to bear witness to the boundless mercy and grace offered to the whole world through the Cross of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour.

You have shared our baptism of woe, and in the wonderful Memorial Service for Methodist soldiers and sailors held during the Conference, your gallant dead were lovingly remembered. We pray that right speedily we may rejoice together in the blessing of an honourable peace and a rich outpouring of the Spirit. For these things God will be inquired of by the House of Israel. Let us not cease to pray and labour till these glorious results are achieved and until all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Believe us, on behalf of the Conference, yours affectionately,

R. W. MOSS, President.

To the President and the Methodist Church of Australasia.

Dearly Beloved Brethren,—

Our Conference now in session at Birmingham desired us to convey to you, and to the great Methodist Church of Australasia of which you are the honoured head, the assurance of its deep and abiding affection and regard. We thank God for the century of heroic service and sacrifice in the Southern World, which you and we have shared together and over which we all rejoice and give thanks.

The great war into which we were so unwillingly plunged a year ago by the deep-laid schemes of Germany has brought grievous sorrows to our homes. To the President and Conference of the Methodist Church of New Zealand.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

Our Conference now in session at Birmingham desired us to assure you of the deep affection and goodwill that we cherish for yourself and the Methodist Church of New Zealand, whose growth and spiritual prosperity cause us to give thanks to God on every remembrance of you.

III. GENERAL REPORT.

The Committee regrets the loss of some large and important Schools, chiefly owing to structural defects of so serious a nature as to make it quite impracticable to bring them up to modern requirements. In no case, however, has a school been given up where the Wesleyan children would not have within their reach a school provided by a Local Education Authority.

The Committee desires it to be known that its services are always at the disposal of Managers and others interested in the maintenance of our Connexional Day Schools, and that it is in a position to assist them in their communications with Local Education Authorities and the Board of Education, especially by interviews with the Board.

As was to be expected, the working of Westminster College was largely affected by the outbreak of war. Immediately it became apparent that the country would need the services of large numbers of young men, Dr. Workman communicated with all the ex-students who were not too old to join the Colours. Meetings were convened at the College, and the month of August, usually devoted to rest, became one of the busiest months of the year. The outcome of the untiring efforts of the Principal and others is that to-day Westminster College is proud to be represented in His Majesty's Forces by no less than 270 Old W's, and the number is being steadily added to. The Committee rejoices in this splendid response.

Other subjects dealt with in the Report are: (a) Training Colleges and Military Services; (b) Retirement of Mr. Leigh Smith, M.A.; (c) Annual Meeting of the Education Fund; (d) "Suggestions for the consideration of Teachers"; (e) Elementary Education (Defective and Epileptic Children) Act, 1914; (f) Education (Provision of Meals) Act, 1914; (g) Education (Provision of Meals) (Ireland) Act, 1914; (h) Statistics in regard to Education; (i) The Westminster and Southlands College Reports. There are also included a List of Wesleyan Day Schools and statistical table; appendices relating to examinations of the Students in training; an Alphabetical List of the Teachers trained in the Colleges, with Obituaries of Teachers who have died during the year; and the Roll of Old W's who have joined the King's Forces.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT FOR WESLEYAN SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

Report.

The activities of the Board during the year have been many and important. The war, as was inevitable, affected the number of pupils, while the increased price of almost all articles of consumption intensified the financial problems which embarrass boarding school administration. The Board, however, is thankful to be able to report that the Schools under its control have suffered less than might have been expected, while their efficiency has been fully maintained as evidenced by the reports of H.M. Inspectors, and by the successes obtained in external examinations. The Head Masters and their Staffs have worked with unwearying diligence and very satisfactory results. In two of the Schools important changes have taken place. Dr. Arthur Vinter, after thirty-five years' service ably and faithfully rendered as Head Master of Woodhouse Grove School, resigned his post in the summer of 1914, and was succeeded by Mr. Wilfrid J. Walker, M.A., in the following September. The new Head Master has made an excellent start with every prospect of a successful career. On February 2, 1915, the late Head Master, after a painful illness, passed away. (For resolution adopted see "Special Resolutions," p. 89.)

The East Anglian School, Bury St. Edmund's, continues to prosper. Even the war has not reduced its numbers, for while several scholars were on that account withdrawn, others whose names were on a waiting list immediately took the vacated places and still the waiting list was not exhausted. The popularity of the school is undoubtedly owing to its Head Master, Samuel Leigh, Esq., B.A., J.P. For 34 years he has consecrated himself with singleness of purpose to its service, and his memory will always be honourably associated with its history. Unfortunately Mr. Leigh's health has been unsatisfactory for several years, and during last year a serious operation had to be performed. This, in the Head Master's view, necessitated his resignation, a view in which the Board has most reluctantly concurred. (For resolution adopted see "Special Resolutions," p. 89.)

Since Mr. Leigh's resignation Mr. Walter Newman, M.A.

(the Vice-Master), has been offered the post of Head Master and has accepted it, and under his direction and inspiration the East Anglian School may be confidently expected to hold its own.

Truro College retains its high position among the Educational Institutions in Cornwall. The Board of Education recently made a full inspection and have issued an exhaustive report. It bears witness to the fine influence of Mr. Herbert W. Vinter, M.A., the Head Master, and to the efficiency of the College.

Besides the three schools already named and which are under the control of the Board, there are several others with which a definite although less complete connexion is maintained. Queenswood, Clapham Park, is one of the most successful boarding schools for girls in the kingdom. The Kent Colleges situate at Folkestone and Canterbury—the former for girls and the latter for boys—are both doing excellent educational work with steadily growing success. West Cornwall College for girls at Penzance and the Jersey Ladies' College are admirable and successful centres of education.

Another school with which the Board of Management has become associated is situate at Colwyn Bay and known as Rydal Mount.

The Head Master, Mr. G. F. A. Osborn, M.A., having tendered his resignation, it was resolved to ask the Conference of 1915 to appoint the Rev. Alfred J. Costain, M.A., as Head Master of the School, to enter on his duties in September next. Mr. Costain has had three years' experience in teaching at The Leys School, where he won the confidence and affection of the boys and powerfully influenced their lives. He is well known in the North of England, and those who know him best are most persuaded that he possesses the temperament and attainments, and the educational and religious enthusiasm which the head of a Boys' School requires, and which give the greatest promise of success in the post under consideration.

Reports of the Head Masters.

The following Reports, furnished by the Head Masters, show that during the year the Schools have been carried on with much success, and that a high moral tone pervades the School life:

1. East Anglian School.

NUMBER OF PUPILS.—December, 1914: Boarders, 97; day boys, 16.

STAFF.—In September, Mr. O. Fox, B.A., was succeeded by Mr. B. N. Parker (Int. Arts., London), a trained and certificated teacher of Westminster Training College, who has also spent a year in France.

EXAMINATION RESULTS.—Cambridge Locals—Seniors, First Class Honours, E. J. Sterne, distinguished in Religious Knowledge, English, Mathematics (6th in Kingdom) and Chemistry. Third Class Honours, H. P. Burgess and R. Goodman. Passed, H. Miles, G. Goult, F. Marshall, A. H. Potter. Juniors, thirteen passed. A. C. Fowler, distinguished in Drawing (8th in Kingdom).

London Matriculation (June)—E. G. Etheridge.

DISCIPLINE.—The discipline has been entirely satisfactory.

(Signed) SAMUEL LEIGH.

2. Truro College.

NUMBER OF PUPILS.—The total for December, 1914, was 145; of these 60 were boarders and 85 day boys.

HEALTH.—With the exception of a mild epidemic in the Spring Term the health of the School has been good.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Regular instruction is given in the School Gymnasium in addition to the ordinary School games.

MORAL TONE.—Continues satisfactory.

EXAMINATION RESULTS.—In the Cambridge Senior Local Examination in December, 1913, H. R. Moffat gained Second Class Honours. In the same examination in July, 1914, First Class Honours, F. F. Marriott (distinction in Religious Knowledge (26th) and English History) and L. P. Ingram. Second Class Honours, H. C. Rickard. Third Class Honours, J. C. Akester, distinction in English History (5th), V. A. Collins, distinction in English History (25th), and F. E. Gilpin, distinction in Religious Knowledge. Pass Division, four. Five were exempted from the whole of Part II. of the Previous Examination of the University of Cambridge, and one from the Additional Subjects. Six boys passed in spoken French. Six in honours with five distinctions is a good record. On the result of this Examination five obtained the London Matriculation Certificate.

In the Cambridge Junior Examination—Second Class Honours, R. P. Austin, distinction in French (33rd). Third Class Honours, F. H. Tregea, distinction in Religious Knowledge, and H. P. Bennett, distinction in Religious Knowledge (26th), and Geography—the first place in the whole country. Pass Division, twelve. Four passed in spoken French.

Woolwich Entrance Examination.—G. R. Gilpin took the 25th place with 10,371 marks. Second in English and Third in French.

Senior Foundation Scholarship. — St. Paul's School, London, value £25 per annum for three years, was won by F. F. Marriott.

Old Boys.—J. K. Peel, Second Class, Part I., History Tripos; W. H. Tregea, B.Sc. (Engineering), and J. H. Wellington, B.A. (London).

(Signed) HERBERT W. VINTER.

3. Woodhouse Grove School.

General.—The buildings, since the alterations, are so admirably disposed that there is a maximum of efficiency during school hours, and the discipline has been made correspondingly easy. The dining-hall is bright and cheerful, and its walls have received the portraits of nearly all the former Governors and Head Masters. A handsome photographic enlargement of Dr. Vinter was presented to the School by the Masters and Boys in July, 1914, and hangs in the School Hall. The two new class rooms for the Junior Department and the new junior bedrooms prove a great boon to the little boys.

Examination Successes.—We are glad to note the success of the following Old Boys during the year 1914:

At Cambridge University—F. C. Happold obtained Second Class Honours in the History Tripos. W. D. Scott, First in the May Examination at Emmanuel College in his Second year, gaining a Scholarship of £40 a year; also winner of a Goldsmiths' Exhibition of £50 a year.

At Leeds University—J. A. Hartley, B.Sc., First Class Honours in Chemistry. W. H. Dean, Inter. Arts Examination.

At Liverpool University—G. H. Pearson, M.B. and M.Ch., Second Class Honours with distinction in Surgery; he has since been appointed resident House-Surgeon to the Liverpool Infirmary under Dr. Thompson.

The Examination Successes in the School for the year were as follows:

Cambridge Local Examinations. Seniors, December 1913—Honours, Class III., G. G. Middleton. July 1914—Honours, Class III., H. Parkinson. Pass, G. Clarke, T. W. Harrison, G. H. Heninghem, J. H. Moorhouse, H. C. Petch, J. F. D. Shrewsbury, A. Spangenberg, R. N. Wildman, F. A. Wilson, A. T. Woodcock. Middleton and Parkinson obtained exemption from the London and Northern Matriculation Examinations.

Junior, December 1913—Pass, M. Woods. July 1914—Honours, Class II., G. R. Morley. Pass, G. A. Beckett, H. Butterworth, P. Butterworth, C. E. Field, C. B. Grainger, J. A. Grimshaw, R. Harburn, J. Longbottom, H. Marsden, A. H. Morley, F. W. Schofield, P. B. Townsend, H. C. Thornton, J. H. West. Over age, A. F. Barker.

REPORTS OF THE DIRECTORS OF MIDDLE-CLASS SCHOOLS.

1. Cornwall Wesleyan Methodist Girls' School Association, Limited.

In presenting their Thirty-first Annual Report the Directors regret to announce the decease of one of their number, Mr. Alfred Lanyon, and also of the Company's Financial Secretary, Mr. W. Bettany. The protracted illness of our Honorary Secretary, Mr. G. P. Bazeley, has been much felt on the Board.

The number of pupils is somewhat less than last year, but having regard to the very abnormal circumstances of the year, the Directors consider the present number fairly satisfactory.

The record of health has been good except for a few cases of measles. In addition to the usual periodical sanitary inspection, there has been a special inspection this year. Considerable improvements have been made in the buildings, externally and internally, and a common room for the elder girls had been allocated.

The high standard of tuition has been fully maintained. The Directors sent the Mistress of Physical Exercises for a course of study under Herr Junker at Silkeborg, Denmark. Specially good results were obtained in the Cambridge Local Examinations, one candidate winning the Royal Geographical Society's silver medal for the best papers in that subject. Other distinctions were gained, and the girls did very well in religious knowledge.

For the first time in its history the College has been visited by H.M. Inspectors with a view to its being placed on the efficient list of schools recognised by the Board of Education.

The Directors regret that it is impossible to recommend the payment of a dividend this year.

The retiring Directors are Messrs. Alfred Lanyon (deceased) and W. J. Bazeley. Mr. Bazeley is eligible for re-election. Messrs. J. Vivian Thomas, J. H. Tonking, and W. H. Trounson, have been elected by the Directors to fill vacancies on the Board, and their names will be submitted to the Annual General Meeting for confirmation.

Royal Academy and Royal College of Music School Examination: Higher Division, 4; Lower Division, 3; Elementary Division, 8; Primary Division, 2. London Institute of Plain Needlework, 15 Certificates.

General Report.

The buildings have been maintained in a good state of repair, and the Directors again think that it is not necessary to write off anything for depreciation for the past year.

With regard to furniture the Directors have written off for depreciation:

Kent College, Canterbury—5 per cent., £68 7*s.* 5*d.*

Kent College, Folkestone—5 per cent., £60 18*s.* 4*d.*

Although the number of pupils has been adversely affected by the war, the shareholders will be pleased to note that there has been an increase in the profits at each College. The net profit available is £429 13*s.* 10*d.*, and the Directors recommend that a dividend at the rate of 2½ per cent., free of income tax, be declared out of this, which will absorb £312 7*s.* 6*d.*, leaving a balance of £117 6*s.* 4*d.* to be carried forward.

The retiring Directors are Mr. S. Harvey, Mr. A. J. Baker, Mr. B. Coveney, and Mr. C. Ruglys, who are eligible for re-election.

There is a vacancy on the Board caused by the death of Mr. J. Lovick.

The Auditors, Messrs. Champness, Corderoy & Co., retire, and are eligible for re-election.

By order of the Board,
J. STAINER, Chairman.
ARTHUR ATKINSON, Secretary.

3. Jersey Ladies' College Company, Limited.

I.—Financial.

The Council present the Profit and Loss Account and the Balance Sheet for the year ended December 31, 1914, duly audited, and report as follows:

The net profit for the year 1914 amounts to £74 5*s.* 8*d.*, which with £4 16*s.* 9*d.* brought from Profit and Loss Account, 1913, makes a total of £79 2*s.* 5*d.*, which amount the Council propose to carry forward.

II.—Scholastic.

The Lady Principal reports: I am glad to be able to report favourably on the work of the School during the last year; the thoroughness of the work was specially noted by the Oxford Examiner appointed to examine the School last summer.

In July, Dorothy Ashcroft took her M.A. degree (Edinburgh) with First Class Honours in English Literature.

In the Cambridge Higher Examination, Edith Quarrie gained First Class Honours in Group B (French and German) with distinction in Oral French.

In the Oxford Local Senior Examination, M. Mirehouse obtained First Class Honours; F. Le Quesne passed in Divinity, Latin, Greek, French, and Mathematics, gained Third Class Honours and exemption from either Oxford Responsions or the Cambridge Previous Examinations; L. H. Scrymgeour, B. A. Bichard, and V. K. Rose were also placed in the same Honours list, L. H. Scrymgeour obtaining distinction in French, while I. A. Goldsworthy and E. Le Seelleur were also successful.

In the Examinations of the Royal Drawing Society, fifty-three papers were successful, of which twenty-four obtained Honours.

In the Concours des Lauréats, Cherry Le Breton Simmons obtained a Prize with a score of 92 per cent. (Degré Primaire) and N. Guiton obtained "mention" with 87 per cent. of marks.

The outbreak of war has naturally affected our boarders, but the number of day pupils is more than maintained.

The health of the School has been excellent throughout the year.

J. F. GIFFARD, Chairman.
JOHN R. ELLIS, Hon. Secretary.

4. Queenswood School, Limited.

The Directors have pleasure in presenting their Twentieth Annual Report to the Shareholders.

Notwithstanding the European War the School has been full throughout the year, and there is a waiting list of pupils who desire to be admitted.

The Education results and the high position taken by the School have been well maintained. The Directors have pleasure in testifying to the excellence of the services rendered by the Principal and her staff.

The accounts for the year show a net profit of £1,178 9s. 4d., and the Directors recommend the payment of the usual dividend of 5 per cent., free of income tax, on the paid-up capital of the Company, and in accordance with Article No. 4 will propose that the surplus profits be devoted to the upkeep and further improvement of the School.

The Directors regret to report the resignation of Mr. Isaac C. Griffith, who has been a Director of the Company since its formation, and they desire to put on record their appreciation of the services rendered by him to the School.

The Directors who will retire this year in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association are Rev. A. S. Geden, M.A., D.D., the Rev. E. D. Green, M.A., and Mr. C. C. Sutch, who are eligible and will be proposed for re-election.

The Auditors, Messrs. J. H. Champness, Corderoy & Co., retire from office, but offer themselves for re-election.

Rydal Mount School.

Report of the Governors, 1914-15.

The Rydal Mount School was inspected in March, 1914, by H.M. Inspectors from the Welsh Department of the Board of Education. The visit occupied two days, and four Inspectors were present, including the Chief Inspector of Education for Wales. The official Report is a large octavo document of fourteen closely printed pages, and is of a most exhaustive character, entering into the greatest detail in respect of the instruction in the several subjects taken in the School. It would be hard to imagine a Report that should speak in more glowing terms in respect of the premises, the equipment, the staff, and the teaching. The Report is divided into three sections: the first deals with the instrument of government, the constitution of the Governing Body, the number of tutors and pupils. The amount of the fee is recorded; for pupils entering at an early age the boarding fee is under £80 per annum. In the second part an exhaustive summary is included of the number of pupils for the last five years, of the ages of the scholars, and of the classes in life from which the boys are drawn. It is noticeable that the largest number of boys comes from families described as wholesale manufacturers. This indication of the value of the commercial side of the School needs only to be widely known to attract large numbers of pupils from Lancashire and the adjoining counties who have in view a commercial career of the highest type. The next largest class is termed professional; this again is strong evidence that the School, in addition to the commercial side, provides an attractive and efficient classical and professional education. The Governors are sparing no pains to develop the School on these approved lines. Recently a considerable sum of money was spent on equipment in order that Science as applied to industry might be more efficiently taught.

The official Government Report describes the buildings "as beautifully situated between the rapidly growing seaside resort of Colwyn Bay and the wooded heights behind." The grounds cover between ten and eleven acres. The class-rooms are exceedingly comfortable, quiet, and well furnished. There is an excellent library. The assembly hall is imposing. The laboratories are convenient and well equipped. The bedrooms are large, lofty, and airy, with wide floor space in the middle of each room. Situated in a town famous for its salubrity and quiet within its own ample grounds, "with buildings on which great skill and a generous expenditure have been bestowed," with its spacious rooms and class-rooms, the School appeals at once to every visitor "as a refined and happy home."

The Governing Body are gratified to find that the Inspectors speak in such high terms of the tutors, all of whom are Honours men, six out of nine being from Oxford or Cambridge. The Governors notice with approval the appreciative manner in which the Head Master is spoken of in the Report, and especially of the cordial feeling that exists between the Head Master and his colleagues, and between all the tutors and their pupils.

In respect of the subjects taught in the school, and which were minutely examined by the Inspectors, the Report is in every sense eminently satisfactory.

The general conclusions of the Inspectors will be noted with great satisfaction by all who are interested in the Rydal Mount School, which became so famous under its noble founder, the late T. G. Osborn, and its position promises to be maintained under the efficient Headmastership of his son, who succeeded him. The Report speaks of the "great and assiduous care" taken of the boys, that the School is more like a home than a school, although at the same time discipline is well maintained. The teaching in the classroom is "conscientious and inspiring," the games are given their appropriate place in the life of the School. The amenities of the grounds, the beauty of the buildings, the natural charms of the neighbourhood, become an unconscious but a very important part of the boys' education. The "spotless" cleanliness of the bedrooms, the "wise" care given to food arrangements, and the "belief in open-air recreation" in the healthy home of the School "are striking characteristics." Special mention is made of the behaviour of the boys, and the happiness and manliness which pervade the School. The Report concludes with the statement that the individual attention which is given to the pupils constitutes one of the most valuable features of the School.

The Governors are of opinion that the time has arrived when Rydal Mount should pass under the control of the Board of Management for Secondary Schools, and that the estate should be conveyed to the Trustees of "The Wesleyan Methodist Secondary Schools Trust Deed, 1903." They requested the existing Trustees to take the necessary steps to effect this transfer.

The Trustees, in accordance with the provision contained in paragraph 36 of "The Scheme for the Constitution and Management of the School adopted by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, 1905," that "The Trustees shall, at the request of the Governing Body, execute any legal assurance or other document which may be required in order to carry out any mortgage, sale, or lease of the property of the School," at a meeting held June 17, 1915, resolved: "That the Rydal Mount School property, Colwyn Bay, be conveyed to the Trustees appointed under the Wesleyan Methodist Secondary Schools Trust Deed, 1903; and directs that the necessary legal document be prepared to give effect to this resolution."

The Head Master, Mr. G. F. A. Osborn, M A., having tendered his resignation, the Governors recorded their high estimate of his abilities and attainments, and of the single-minded devotion with which he had served the School both as teacher and Head Master.

It was also resolved to ask the Conference of 1915 to appoint the Rev. Alfred J. Costain, M.A., as Head Master of the School, to enter on his duties in September next. Mr. Costain has had three years' experience in teaching at The Leys School, where he won the confidence and affection of the boys and powerfully influenced their lives. He is well known in the North of England, and those who know him best are most persuaded that he possesses the temperament and attainments, and the educational and religious enthusiasm which the head of a Boys' School requires, and which give the greatest promise of success in the post under consideration.

The Leys School.

The Public Schools, like all else, have been profoundly affected by the war. The Universities are empty. Old Boys are not aiming at academic success. The Leys has a few fragmentary distinctions—among them a couple of first-class honours degrees, the Whewell Scholarship and a Doctorate in Letters at Cambridge, and a Scholarship at Oxford.

In the School itself the natural leaders instead of staying on have taken commissions. Happily, thoroughly good deputies have been forthcoming. Good work has been done in all the Forms and an average number of successes has been gained in the usual examinations. But the tests of the year are those of spirit and tone. Each has felt he must do his share; discipline and diligence have never been better. Games have been continued, but the Officers' Training Corps has taken first place and has done much hard work. Various funds for war help have benefited by the boys' self-denial, while their usual engagements to old-established work have been maintained. They gave up their Swimming Bath in the winter for the benefit of the soldiers. The grounds and buildings have been used for public needs of the war where it could be done without damage to school work.

The Leys has taken its share in the splendid self-sacrifices which have characterised all the Public Schools. It is young amongst them, and it has only 1800 Old Boys living. Of these very few indeed are professional soldiers; but by Midsummer Day 520 had joined the colours. One of these is a Brigadier-General, several have been mentioned in despatches, and thirteen have laid down their lives.

It is pleasing to record that at a period when obviously the Public Schools are likely to suffer numerically, the entry during the past year has been the best for a dozen years.

W. T. A. BARBER, Head Master.

Queen's College, Taunton, Limited.

It was expected that the war would cause a reduction in the number of our scholars, so it is gratifying to report that these have been more than maintained, there being at present 144 Boarders and 16 Day Boys as against 144 Boarders and 12 Day Boys a year ago.

Two Masters and 228 Old Boys have joined the Forces, of whom two, viz. : Lieut. J. P. Worton and Sergeant T. Dowsett, have unfortunately been killed in action. The Cadet Corps with 120 members has been recognised by the War Office and is now attached to the 5th Battalion Somerset Light Infantry.

The advance in the cost of provisions and other requirements caused some anxiety, but a small additional fee for each pupil which parents and guardians readily conceded enabled the Directors to balance accounts without stint, whilst maintaining the premises in a thorough state of repair.

The health of the boys has again been excellent throughout the year, whilst for over two years the school has been free from all epidemic disease.

The Scholastic results for the year have been as follows:

School Scholarships.

The Holloway Scholarship of £5 5*s*., for Science.—G. A. Pitt.

The Reed Scholarship of £5 5*s*., for Modern Languages.—H. L. Brampton.

The Heaver Scholarship of £5 5*s*., for the best candidate in the Oxford Local Examination.—A. G. Chumberlain.

The Wallis Scholarship of £5 5s., for English Literature, (under sixteen years of age).—A. T. Chenhalls.
A School Scholarship of £30.—C. Shepherd.
Old Boys' Scholarship of £20.—C. K. Slack.
Sibly Scholarship of £20.—R. Brown and E. S. Herbert.
Devon County Scholarship of £30.—R. Brown.

University of London.

Matriculation Examination.—H. W. V. Tilley, R. Brown, G. H. Bland, A. L. Hale, A. W. Duthie.

University of Cambridge.

Matriculation Examination.—A. Q. Mills, E. Tagoe, M. Akiwumi.

University of Oxford (Local Examinations).

Quite a number of candidates passed in the Senior, Junior and Preliminary Divisions.

On February 23 last, the President of the Conference, the Rev. Dinsdale T. Young, paid his official visit and expressed great satisfaction with the management of the school and with its scholastic record.

The Rev. T. D. Barnes, an Old Boy, and the Rev. A. B. Duncalfe have conducted fortnightly services in hall, and have impressed us by their earnest addresses.

In November the Prefects held the Annual Foreign Missionary Meeting and the speeches were of exceptional interest.

In response to a suggestion of the Rev. W. Hodson Smith, two Prefects have undertaken on behalf of the School to collect and forward an annual subscription towards the National Children's Home and Orphanage.

Two little Belgian Refugees joined us last term.

The Whitsuntide gathering of Old Boys was postponed this year.

The Old Boys' Scholarship continues to grow in value.

The Conference at the request of the Governing Body appoints Rev. Thomas H. Barratt, B.A., and Mr. Ernest Hutchings as Directors.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES, SEPTEMBER, 1914.

There are no specially new features to report this year. The Trustees have again to regret that the smallness of the endowment compels them to reject deserving cases. But they have received welcome evidence of the help which their small grants have brought to young Methodists who without them could hardly have borne the financial strain of a University course.

At the Trustees' Annual Meeting in October the applications for grants were considered. One candidate received a grant for the third time, and four for the second, amounting to £45 in all, and twelve new applicants received £115, making a total amount awarded of £160. Eleven men and six women students were helped, of whom three are studying at each of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Manchester, and one each at London, Leeds, Aberystwyth, Liverpool, Reading, and Durham. Two others, owing to the war, have deferred their acceptance of the grant until a later date. Twelve applications were refused, most of which the Trustees would have gladly placed on their list of awards if only the available money had been a few score of pounds more. The Trustees regret to say that no addition has been made to their capital during the year. The need becomes more and more apparent as time goes on. In the various branches of the teaching profession the possession of a degree makes more and more difference to the prospects of our young people, who should be our most valuable workers in time to come. Legacies or other additions to capital will certainly bear rich fruit in the future; but the Trustees will welcome even small annual subscriptions that will enlarge the amount they can give to the many deserving applicants whose cases are laid before them. They are glad to record that one former recipient is subscribing one guinea per annum for five years in gratitude for the assistance rendered from the Fund. Applicants should note that the latest date for sending in applications is September 1.

General Report—1914-1915.

The War and Sunday-school Work.—When the Report for last year was prepared there was no prophet in our midst who could foretell that our nation would shortly be plunged into all the bitterness and pain of the greatest war the world has ever known. In common with nearly every other phase of the nation's life, our work has inevitably suffered. In many places premises have been commandeered, either wholly or in part, and there are very few schools that have not lost, for the time, the services of some of the most competent officials and teachers, as well as the presence of many elder scholars. It is at once saddening and gladdening to see on the school Roll of Honour the names of those who are the hope of the Church. Alas, that in some cases we must change the tense of the verb and say, "who were the hope of our Church"; for the Home call has come to them full early, and they have made the great sacrifice for country, honour, and liberty. We had said the "greatest sacrifice" until we remembered the mothers and the wives. To these we send a message of tender, prayerful sympathy.

We are thankful to know, and thus publicly to recognise, the splendid way in which the elect women of our Church have stepped in to fill the gaps made in the school staff. In many instances we know this has involved the sacrifice of that leisure which advancing years demand. There is a firm resolve that God's work shall not suffer, and that the childhood and youth of the nation shall receive, with even greater earnestness than before, instruction concerning the Christian life.

Decrease in Number of Scholars.—We greatly regret to have to report, for the ninth time, a serious decrease in the number of scholars. This decrease of 16,846, added to those of the last eight years, means that since 1905 we have lost 90,618 scholars. As a partial, though only a partial, explanation of this decrease, may be mentioned the lack of a uniform method of dealing with those who have joined His Majesty's Forces. In some schools their names have been retained, and a special mark has been given to show that though not present at school they were not absent from duty, whilst in others the names have been removed from the register. The average attendance is proportionately somewhat better.

Letters to Scholars in H.M. Forces.—During the year we have issued two letters to those who have enlisted, the first to be sent on enlistment, the second for those who are either at the Front or under orders for immediate sailing. It is a joy to know how largely these letters have been circulated, and how greatly they have been appreciated by their recipients.

Responsive War Services.—The two responsive War Services have also met with a wide acceptance, and, on the testimony of many superintendents, have supplied a largely felt want.

Boys' Committee.—The Boys' Committee has continued its useful work, though its energies have been much curtailed by the fact that its principal officers have joined His Majesty's Forces. It has, therefore, been found advisable to dispense with two meetings which otherwise would have been held. We are glad to report that Corporal Holmes, formerly Lieutenant of the Boys' Life Brigade in connexion with the Great Central Hall, Bermondsey, has been awarded the Victoria Cross.

Girls' Committee.—The Girls' Committee has come into existence during the year. There is every prospect of this Committee rendering good service and giving guidance to those who feel the call of girlhood. The circular which it has issued is by no means complete or final. The Committee is gathering information from those who are actually working amongst girls, and when it has received and fully collated this, it proposes to issue a larger circular.

Mr. W. Frank Freeman's Sunday-school Tour in Australia and New Zealand.—Our honorary lecturer, Mr. W. Frank Freeman, is still on his Sunday-school tour round the world. We are glad to know that his services in Australia and New Zealand have been very highly appreciated. He was in New Zealand during the sitting of the Conference, and was promptly made a member thereof. The following resolution has been received from the Secretary of the Conference :—

> "That the Conference highly appreciated the presence of Mr. W. F. Freeman at its sessions, and records its sense of indebtedness to him for his valuable suggestions to the Committee dealing with Sunday-school affairs. His visit to the Dominion has been of considerable assistance to Sunday-school teachers and officers, and we trust that every possible advantage will be taken of the remaining portion of his visit by organising meetings and lectures wherever possible."

Mr. R. H. Hugill.—Mr. Hugill is proving an increasingly valuable asset to the Department. During the year his services were given free of all charge to the Carlisle and East Anglia Districts, and the experiment was so successful that the same benefit has been offered to the agricultural Circuits of the Bristol and Bath and the smaller Circuits of the Newcastle Districts. It is happily becoming the practice for the District Councils to apply for the services of Mr. Hugill for from a fortnight to a month at a time, and to arrange for a series of visits to the places where circumstances prove that such visitation is needed.

Village School Grants Scheme.—During last year a scheme has been formulated from which many of our smaller village schools will derive great benefit. This is printed in extenso in the Sunday School Department Report. For the satisfactory working of this we must rely upon the sympathetic co-operation of the Circuit Councils, as it is particularly difficult to reach the village schools without such assistance.

Circuit Councils.—During the year there has been a considerable increase in the number of Circuit Councils formed in obedience to the Conference Legislation. If the schedules may be trusted, fully 85 per cent. of our Circuits in England have now their Councils in working order. In some cases the full possibilities of the Circuit Council have not been recognised. For instance, if the income of the Circuit Council were increased, it would, as a central body, be able to help many of its poorer schools to purchase Bibles, Hymnals and appliances which the schools sadly need. In every such case the Department treats the purchase as "available for a grant." Thus the workers at the small schools are not only greatly encouraged, but they are enabled to see that there is some practical benefit to be obtained from taking part in the meetings of the Circuit Council.

Subscriptions.—We are glad to note that the subscriptions received from the Circuits still continue to increase, and though the amount of increase is not large, it is an indication of progress. There is also a slight increase in individual subscriptions. A legacy of £200 (less duty) has been received from the estate of the late Miss E. McKittrick, of Huddersfield.

Teachers' Examinations.—It has been necessary to discontinue the Correspondence Classes in connexion with the Teachers Training Board. So few teachers were taking advantage of them that the results did not justify the expenditure involved. For the examinations 116 have presented themselves, and among these are candidates from Ceylon and the West Indies.

Scholars' Examination.—The report of the Scholars' Examination Board is exceedingly encouraging, there being an advance in the number of schools participating of 52, and of scholars entering of 1,345. We are very grateful to District Examination Secretaries, and to all Examiners who have loyally helped in this work.

Programme of Advance.—The beneficial results that were confidently anticipated from the Programme of Advance have not been realised. When conditions are more favourable we hope to "sound the advance."

Distribution of Hunter's "Familiar Talks" to newly-appointed Teachers.—The free distribution of Hunter's Familiar Talks to newly-appointed teachers is still very popular and of great help, not only to the teachers, but to the schools in which they work. This year the number reached a total of 1,370.

Long Service Certificates.—To our Veteran Workers 339 Long Service Certificates have been issued. A number of village schools have availed themselves of our free grants of Secretaries' Books and Class Registers.

Grants.—Whatever decreases we have had in other directions, there have been none in the number of applications for the Furniture and Equipment Grants, nor in the appreciation of the help afforded by the grants made. During the year we have given to our schools in money or in goods £1,339 12*s.* 4*d.* We have had under consideration the necessity of temporarily suspending grants during the progress of the war, and have reluctantly decided that for the present the giving of grants must cease. These grants are made from the profits of the business, and this source of income is very adversely affected by the conditions that obtain. It is not, however, proposed that the suspension shall affect those schools that have already made application, or that, prior to June 17th, gave notice of their intention so to do. This suspension will not apply to Library Grants, nor to grants under the Village School scheme.

Trade Returns.—The trade returns show a decrease of slightly over £1,000. This decrease is entirely within the last six months of the financial year.

The Methodist School Hymnal. S.S. Anniversary Selections.—During the year an edition of the Methodist School Hymnal with Tunes, in pocket size, has been issued. In connexion with the Methodist Publishing House, No. 1 of the "New Series of Hymns and Tunes for Anniversary Services" has been published, and has met with steadily growing acceptance; it will undoubtedly increase in popularity as it becomes more widely known. The second series, which is now passing through the press, equals, if it does not excel, the first. The two selections "A" and "B," taken exclusively from the Methodist School Hymnal, have had, and still have, a very large sale.

"All British" Pictures.—The "All British" pictures are growing in favour. The Home Lesson Leaflet and the Bible Stamps, which are miniatures of the larger pictures, are widely used; the former by our more alert schools, and the latter by the League of Young Worshippers.

Enlistment in H.M. Forces of Members of Staff.—Seven members of the staff have enlisted, and as some of the number had been employed for many years, it has been no easy matter to conduct the business. Those who remain have worked with commendable loyalty, by which confusion and inconvenience to customers have been avoided. In the case of those who have given to the Department some years of service it has been arranged that the young men shall suffer no pecuniary loss by their patriotic action, and should they return and desire to take up their work under the Department they will find their places open for them.

We pray that God's blessing may rest upon all who are faithfully seeking the glory of the King and the extension of His Kingdom.

If it please the Master, may the joy of the reaper consciously crown the toil of the sower.

Report of the Boys' Committee, 1915.

The Boys' Committee has only met once during the past year, owing to the fact that a very large proportion of the members of the Committee is on active service with His Majesty's Forces, but the Committee is glad to report that work with boys throughout the Church is making most satisfactory progress. There never was a time during this generation when work with boys was more necessary. The boys themselves are eager to be led, and the Church has begun to realise its duty in this respect.

On Sunday afternoon, July 19, 1914, at Oxford Place Chapel, Leeds, the second annual Conference service for boys was held. The chapel was full, and the service will long be remembered by all who were present. One of the Hon. Secretaries of the Committee, Mr. Sydney H. Morgan, presided, and the Rev. J. Williams Butcher and Mr. Alfred Angus, B.Sc., riveted the attention of the lads by their earnest addresses.

Two circular letters were issued by the Committee soon after the outbreak of war—one to workers, indicating the line work should take under the new conditions, and the other written by Colonel Sir John Barnsley to the boys of Methodism.

Several new District Boys' Committees have been formed, and have done some energetic pioneer work. All the organisations for boys report exceptionally large increases in the number of Companies formed during the past year. The Committee rejoices that so large a number of their workers and "old boys" have rallied at the country's call and are risking their lives in her defence.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF THE

NATIONAL CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

(Founded by Dr. Stephenson.)

Our first word must be one of deep gratitude to God for His unfailing help during a year of extraordinary strain and difficulty. As a result of the war we have been confronted with grave and difficult problems, but we have had the assurance that God has been with us, and we are thankful for His manifest presence and help. We are also grateful to those who love our work and know its value for their renewed generous support. At the outbreak of the war our income was seriously threatened, and for several weeks the situation was extremely trying. Our friends, however, have nobly responded to our appeal, and we take this opportunity of thanking them for their timely assistance.

The national value of our work becomes increasingly manifest. The Home has proved itself to be a strong arm of national service. Motherless children of our brave soldiers and sailors, children of Belgian refugees, orphan children of men who have fallen in battle, and others rendered helpless and destitute through the war, have been welcomed into our care. We are proud to have been able to render this help to the little ones, and the doors of the Home are ever open to welcome those who so greatly need our help and care.

The following are a few typical cases of children admitted into the Home during the year :—

1. Girls of 4 and 6. Motherless. Father on Active Service. No relative able to assist them.

2. Boy of 9, twins of 7, girl of 5, and twins of 3. Motherless. Father on Active Service.

3. Girl of 11. Both parents dead. The girl was left with an aunt who has three sons at the war, and she cannot now maintain the girl.

4. Girl of 7. Motherless. Father left with three children dependent; he is of indifferent character. Child was sadly neglected, and home conditions thoroughly bad.

5. Boy of 13. Father, who was a soldier, is crippled and disabled. Boy was practically homeless.

6. Boy of 13. Father deserted. Mother left with five young children. Boy is unruly and in need of training.

7. Boy of 13. Father is a soldier. Boy charged with house-breaking and committed to the Home by a magistrate.
8. Girl of 14. Mother is in an asylum owing to husband's brutality.
9. Boy of 10. Found wandering and homeless.
10. Boy of 14. Both parents in prison.
11. Girl of 2. Mother an epileptic.
12. Boy of 3. Father, a sergeant in the Royal Engineers, who was in receipt of long service and good conduct medals, died in 1912. Mother left with several young children.
13. Girl of 5. Fatherless. Mother has a large family of young children.
14. Four motherless children. Father at the Front.
15. Boy of 8. Father died of consumption. Mother very delicate and dependent upon parish relief.
16. Boy of 10. Father a soldier. Boy, in absence of father from home, got into mischief.

We have been delighted with the response made by so many of our Old Boys to the call of the Nation and Empire. A large number of them are on Active Service or in Training, several having joined the Canadian Contingents. It is a joy to learn that they are acquitting themselves like men. We are proud of them. Some of them have laid down their lives in battle on land and sea, and whilst we mourn their loss we rejoice that they gave themselves so willingly, and yielded up their lives heroically in the service of their King, Country and Empire.

The Branches.—The number of children in our care on March 31 was 2,260. Of these, 548 have been received during the year; 507 have left for situations or have been returned to their friends. The total number of children received since the commencement of the work is 11,039.

We rejoice to be able to report a year of successful work at all the Branches of the Home. Our community has settled very happily at the new Branch at Harpenden. The situation of this Branch, with its delightful surroundings, is proving of immense benefit so far as the health of the children is concerned. In regard to the several trades and industries, increased and improved facilities have been provided. We have been unable to meet the need for certain developments to the extent we desired. We trust, however, that the necessary funds may soon be forthcoming that we may be in a position to erect additional Houses and a Hospital which are increasingly urgent and important. Equally urgent is the need for further extension at Bramhope. The erection of more Houses at these and other centres would enable us not only to render more effective service to the children already in the Home but also to admit many more on whose behalf appeals are earnestly made to us. We are most anxious to meet the growing need.

We have been greatly encouraged by the results of our Sanatorium work at Harpenden. In a number of instances the scourge of consumption has been arrested, and the children have been completely restored to health. The beneficence of this part of our work is rapidly growing with succeeding years.

The reports received from our Certified Industrial Branch at Farnborough are wholly encouraging. Many of the lads who come to us from unfavourable surroundings are now doing well. It is a joy to observe their progress—physical, intellectual and moral. Some of them have definitely yielded their lives to Christ. The reports of the Government officials with respect to all the Branches of the Home are altogether satisfactory.

At the other centres, e.g. Edgworth, Birmingham, Frodsham, Chipping Norton, Oxted, Alverstoke, Cardiff, and Ramsey, we are continuing our labours with excellent results. The new Branch at Doddington (Kent) is a most valuable acquisition to the Home.

Special attention is being given to the training of our children in useful industries. We recognise more than ever the importance of the Home as a training-ground where our girls and boys can be prepared to fill positions with satisfaction and success. We have made much progress in this direction of late, and we hope to be able to extend the facilities for such training in the coming days. We feel it to be our duty to give our children the best possible chance of making their way in the world when they leave the Home.

During the year the Governors, Sisters and Staff have again given themselves to their work with whole-hearted devotion. The general tone throughout the Home is excellent, and we find our greatest joy in the fact that so many of our girls and boys are trying to live Christian lives.

We are very thankful for the generous support that has been rendered by the friends of the Methodist Church during the years, especially for the way in which they have helped us to tide over the difficulties of the year just passed. The work of the Home justifies itself with an ever-increasing emphasis. It is a beautiful Christ-like philanthropy. To-day it is full of beneficence and possibility, and is worthy of the utmost we can all do for it. For continued needful assistance we look to our friends with confidence and hope.

APPENDIX VI.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

Since August the work of the Temperance Committee has been dominated by the war. Plans for the development of Band of Hope and Abstainers' League work matured in the preceding summer had necessarily to be modified. It became the chief business of the Committee to seize each opportunity which the war presented for Temperance work.

Temperance Work in the Army.—The first specific opening for additional Temperance work was in the camps of the New Army. The Committee offered to undertake the direction of Temperance work in the Army throughout the war, and the Army and Navy Board accepted the suggestion. There are now working under the direction of the Army and Navy Board about 100 Chaplains and 550 "officiating clergyman." The Temperance Committee undertook to furnish these brethren with all the Temperance literature and equipment needed for the prosecution of Temperance work in the camps. Suitable placards, posters, pledge-cards and leaflets were prepared and supplied gratis. Very large quantities of Temperance literature were thus issued. A sum of £395 was raised and expended in this and kindred ways. By the courtesy of the Sunday-School Department lanterns were also loaned to the Chaplains in five camps to aid in their Temperance and recreational work. The whole endeavour proved splendidly successful.

The constant movement of troops, and the frequent changes in chaplaincy arrangements, made the collection of statistics of pledge-signing impossible; but facts like the following illustrate the work done. The superintendent of the Surrey and North Hants Mission reported in May that over 800 new pledges had been signed by soldiers in his immediate neighbourhood. The Rev. Colin A. Roberts reported at the same time the signing of over 1,800 pledges in connexion with his work in the Aldershot Command. Our Chaplain at Codford, the Rev. Geo. E. Southall, wrote that when two battalions left that camp for the front "all the Wesleyans were pledged abstainers."

An equally interesting and valuable effort was the placing of our Sunday Schools and other Church premises, in the neighbourhood of military camps, at the service of the soldiers as refreshment and recreation rooms. It can be safely stated that wherever a camp was established, there our Methodist Trust property was used in this way. The movement was spontaneous, springing from the good-will of our people towards the men who were answering their country's call. The Temperance Committee readily furnished pledge-signing literature, and made particulars of good work done in one place available to those who were attempting similar services elsewhere.

The social provision thus made for the troops at Ilkley and Ben Rhydding may be taken as typical of what was done in scores of places. The Rev. H. C. J. Sidnell, B.A., B.D., reported to the Halifax and Bradford Synod:

> "Since February 8th the 17th Service Battalion Prince of Wales' Own West Yorkshire Regiment (full strength nearly 1,400) has been stationed in Ilkley, and since March 30th the 210th Company Royal Engineers (about 250). A Central Committee was formed upon which all the Churches and various social organisations were represented. Four Soldiers' Institutes were opened at first, and the number has now increased to seven. The Wesleyan Assembly Hall was taken as the Staff Headquarters for the 17th West Yorkshire Battalion. The main Hall is run as one of the Soldiers' Clubs. Games, music, papers, writing materials are provided free, and refreshments are served at a low charge. Concerts are given every week. The arrangements were so well in hand that within an hour or two of the somewhat unexpected arrival of an advance party the Club was open and has been open every day since.

"Recently some of the soldiers were billeted at Ben Rhydding. Our Wesleyan School was promptly opened for them, and has been run so far with marked success. Excellent use has been made of the Temperance and anti-gambling literature prepared by the Connexional Temperance Committee. Directly and indirectly through the use of the Pledge Cards and Posters over 200 pledges have been taken, most of them the double pledge against drinking and gambling. The officers are delighted with the equipment and efficiency of the Institutes, and have remarked that some of the men are pinning up their Pledge Cards on the walls of their billets.

"No undue pressure has been brought to bear upon the soldiers. Some of the men themselves have worked quietly but very effectively amongst their comrades. Several of the soldiers are local preachers and have taken services and spoken at Bands of Hope in the Circuit."

Early in the war it became known that large quantities of rum were being dispatched to the Continent for the use of the troops at the front. The Committee repeatedly brought the matter before the Army Medical Board, and finally obtained an assurance that the rum would not be served out as a beverage but dispensed under medical orders only.

In June of the present year the Army and Navy Board received urgent representations that the provision of a Soldiers' Home in the great British Camp established at Le Havre was necessary to the development of our Evangelistic and Temperance Work. The Secretary of the Army and Navy Board appealed to the Temperance Committee to provide the Home. The Committee accepted the responsibility. Arrangements have already been made for its erection at a cost of about £400, and also for the development of Methodist Gospel preaching and Temperance work in connexion with it.

War-Time Legislation.—Throughout the autumn and winter the Committee of the Temperance Department kept in close touch with the Government Department responsible for the administration of the liquor laws and the shaping of new legislative proposals.

The Intoxicating Liquor (Temporary Restriction) Act, passed in the early weeks of the war, conferred limited powers on Justices to restrict hours for the sale of drink. The Defence of the Realm Act placed in the hands of military authorities drastic powers in respect of the liquor traffic. The Committee co-operated with local workers in efforts to secure the application of the new Acts, and through its Bureau of Free Legal Information gave frequent advice on points of law. As the need for larger powers to grapple with the drink evil in other than military areas became clear, the Committee sought, in conjunction with other bodies, to persuade the Government of the necessity for further legislation.

Evidence that industries essential to the successful prosecution of the war were hindered by drinking habits finally compelled the Government to submit new legislation. The action of the Committee from this point was dictated by the consideration that the Government's new scheme was placed before the country in the name of national necessity and not primarily as a measure of Temperance Reform. While the proposals were not those which Temperance reformers had repeatedly urged, the Committee frankly recognised that in an hour of national peril it was right not to increase the difficulties of the Government by hostile criticism. The Committee cordially supported that part of the Government scheme which aimed to provide sustaining food and non-alcoholic refreshments for the workers in munitions and military areas, and seaports.

The King's Example.—Side by side with the attempt to deal with the drink evil by legislation, the work of moral suasion has gone forward unceasingly. The appeal for total abstinence was powerfully reinforced by the declaration of His Majesty the King that, in view of national interests, no alcoholic liquor would be used in the Royal Household. The King's example was intended to evoke a national response. It naturally fell to the Churches to sustain the Royal appeal. To give a lead to our whole Church the Committee of Privileges met, acknowledged with respectful gratitude the action of His Majesty, and appealed to "the people called Methodists" to unite in support of the King's example. The Temperance Committee was enabled by the generosity of a few friends to supply to all the Circuits, gratis, "King's" Pledge Sheets, Pledge Cards and other requisites. A vigorous campaign resulted. Large numbers of those who had not hitherto been total abstainers followed the King's example in abstinence from all alcoholic liquors throughout the war, while abstainers took the opportunity of affirming afresh their determination to refrain from strong drink.

The May Synods emphatically endorsed the movement, in some cases all the members of the Synods signifying their intention of adhering to the practice of total abstinence in war-time. The resolution of the Liverpool Synod is indicative of the mind of our Church on this question :—

> "The Synod expresses its gratitude to the King for his noble example of total abstinence, and urges the ministers, officers, and people of our Church to follow the King's high example.
> "It is the firm and considered belief of the Synod that we shall not have a sober nation until we furnish the example of a Church of Total Abstainers."

The wide extent of the movement is indicated by the huge quantities of "King's Pledge" literature called for by the Circuits. In April and May over 6,000 "King's Example" Posters, 10,000 "King's" Pledge Sheets for signature in Church lobbies, and 700,000 "King's" Pledge Cards were despatched from the Temperance Office. A "King's Pledge" Roll was designed so that the names of those who took the "King's Pledge" could be entered thereon, and the Roll displayed in lobby, vestry, or school. Nearly 5,000 Rolls were sent from the Temperance Office. This means that in hundreds of Societies Total Abstinence Rolls were formed, bearing the names of practically all our people. Where united afforts were made by all the Churches our people heartily threw in their lot, rendering willing service. In many places definite attempts were made to win the outsider by street pledge-signing campaigns, and by "King's Pledge" canvasses in mills and factories. In these ways large bodies of recruits were won for the cause of total abstinence. A fine effort by the workers of Springfield Hall, Wandsworth, is typical of many: in the course of a month's Temperance campaign 1,418 pledges were obtained—800 in the hall, 307 at open-air meetings, and 311 in the course of a house-to-house canvass.

Growth of the Abstainers' League.—In the earlier months of the war organised Temperance work was adversely affected by war conditions. In many Churches regular Temperance meetings were disorganised. Hundreds of the best workers enlisted. The services of others who had hitherto been active in the Temperance cause were claimed by Red Cross and similar organisations. Despite these drawbacks the Committee is glad to report another large increase in Abstainers' League membership. The Young Abstainers' Section now numbers 66,007, the Adult Abstainers' Section 91,081, a total membership of 157,088.

This is an increase of 22,722 members on the preceding year. There are also 227 additional branches. There are now Branches of the League in 2,267 of our Churches.

The three Lancashire Districts once more report the largest League membership: Bolton, 12,669; Manchester, 11,362; Liverpool, 9,990. The three largest Circuit returns of League membership are Bolton Mission, 2,456; Leeds Mission, 2,272; Liverpool (Bootle), 1,936.

The three League Challenge Shields have been won this year by northern Societies. The Charles Garrett Challenge Shield, held by the League Branch reporting the largest number of members, is won for the second year by Oxford Place, Leeds, with 1,832 Abstainers' League members. The Hugh Price Hughes Shield, held by the Branch with the largest League membership in proportion to local Church membership, went to St. Anne's, in the Stockport (Tiviot Dale) Circuit. The Church membership at St. Anne's is 21, the number of Abstainers' League members no less than 212. The John Wesley Shield, held yearly by the Branch showing the largest proportionate increase in membership, was won by Thornton Hall, in the Hull Mission. In 1914 Thornton Hall returned 117 members, in 1915 its membership had grown to 1,428. These three awards indicate the fine spirit of Temperance aggression characteristic of many Circuits.

Temperance Council of the Christian Churches.—The vital importance of careful preparation to secure that the Temperance lessons of war-time shall be turned to national profit when peace returns has led to the formation of a Temperance Council of the Christian Churches of England and Wales. The Council is representative of the following denominations or denominational Temperance organisations: Baptist Total Abstinence Association, Catholic Total Abstinence League of the Cross, Church of England Temperance Society, Presbyterian Church of England, Presbyterian Church of Wales Total Abstinence Society, Primitive Methodist Temperance League, the Salvation Army, Society of Friends, United Methodist Temperance Committee, Wesleyan Methodist Temperance Committee. Its purpose is to obtain legislative and other Temperance Reforms. The Council is now definitely constituted. The Connexional Temperance Committee appointed representatives to the Council, and asks the Conference to approve this endeavour to secure Temperance legislation by united Christian action of a strictly non-party character.

Juvenile Temperance Work.—The adverse effect of the war was strongly marked in Juvenile Temperance Work. In many places our Sunday-school and other premises were placed at the service of the troops as refreshment and recreation rooms. Excellent and essential as was this service, in certain places it prevented the holding of regular Band of Hope Meetings. The ranks of Band of Hope workers were also depleted by enlistment and by war duties at home. As a consequence, the Band of Hope Movement suffered arrest, not only in our own Church, but in all denominations. The numerical returns for this year can only be presented as provisional. The Temperance Committee propose, in the coming autumn, to seek the co-operation of Circuit Sunday-School Councils with a view to the more complete enrolment of our scholars as abstainers, while efforts will be continued to foster the Band of Hope Movement in its present difficulties.

Temperance Propaganda.—The Connexional Temperance Secretary and the lay Temperance Advocates, Mr. H. Wilson and Mr. R. J. Denholm, have been actively engaged throughout the Connexion holding workers' conventions and addressing Abstainers' League Rallies and other public demonstrations. About 200 Circuits were visited during the year by representatives of the Department. The interest quickened in Temperance work by the events of the war often assured large and enthusiastic audiences.

Notwithstanding the unsettled state of public life there has been a considerable increase in the provision and use of Temperance literature. The Temperance Lending Library has been extended, and now comprises practically all the best works on this and some kindred social subjects. Books are lent without charge to Methodist Temperance workers; during the past year 212 books have been borrowed, about one-fourth being purchased by the borrowers. Three Temperance Study Circles have been conducted by Mr. R. J. Denholm for Band of Hope members, young people, and senior workers respectively. A Temperance Poster Station scheme has been launched, providing for the sum of 5*s.* per year two new Temperance posters per month, or for 9*s.* per year four posters per month. A promising beginning of this scheme can be reported.

Betting and Gambling.—A good deal of work has been done during the year to counter the evils of betting and gambling. Information on points of law has been furnished to inquirers through the Bureau of Free Legal Information. Articles dealing with the subject have been published in the Pioneer. To meet the needs of our chaplains and "officiating clergymen" a patriotic pledge against betting and gambling, designed for use in the camps of the new Army, was prepared; many thousands were circulated, and numbers of signatures obtained. Other literature on the subject was prepared and circulated.

The Army authorities, at the instance of the Army and Navy Board of our Church, called the attention of officers throughout the Northern Command to the King's Regulation "forbidding gambling in garrisons and camps."

Losses by Death.—Tne Committee has suffered the loss through death of three valuable members. The Rev. Thomas J. Thorpe, who represented the Lord's Day Observance Committee, was an untiring worker in the cause of Temperance; Mr. T. Porter Smith, of Burnley, gave the strength of his working life to the crusade against drink, and had for many years borne a useful share in the Committee's work; Mr. D. Carty Hughes was the lay representative appointed by the Welsh Assembly, and an ardent worker in the cause of Temperance in the Principality.

APPENDIX VII.

THE LONDON MISSION AND EXTENSION FUND.

The Committee has met quarterly during the year and has been largely attended. A number of Sub-Committees have been held for dealing with Finance, Sites and Plans, Appointments, Circuits in North and North-East London, and various other matters.

Sites and Buildings Section.

The last Conference approved, in the most cordial manner, of the New Regulations for the Administration of this Fund, and also of the proposal to create a new Fund (see Minutes, 1914, p. 40). It was hoped that it would be possible to commence at once to organise this new movement and appeal, but the many emergencies created for our Church by the great European war have compelled the Committee to hold it in abeyance for a time. After full consideration of the situation so unexpectedly created it was felt that the work of the Committee should consist in continuing the visitation of the Middle Belt and difficult areas, and in putting forth special efforts to maintain our Church life in all parts of London.

Circuits in North and North-East London.—A Sub-Committee is co-operating with the Committee appointed last Conference to consider the various Chapels and Circuits in this area, and special attention is being given to the Highbury, Caledonian Road, Kentish Town and other problems.

Hackney.—Through the efforts of the Committee and the Trustees of Richmond Road, Hackney, an extension of the lease of this Chapel for 3, 5 or 7 years has been secured.

Southall and Uxbridge Mission—A most promising commencement has been made in this new Mission Area, which contains a large and rapidly growing industrial population. Plans have been approved for the erection of a large new Hall capable of holding nearly 2,000 people, together with a number of suitable rooms for Sunday-school work and Christian Social work of many kinds. This new enterprise will cost more than £20,000, but great generosity has already been displayed, and the project deserves the most generous support of the Methodist people.

A New Site has been secured in the same Mission at Hayes Station.

The complete List of Sites held by the Committee in view of future developments is as follows :—Balham (Tooting Circuit), Pinner (Watford Circuit), Northwood (Watford Circuit), New Eltham (Chislehurst Circuit), Chingford (Clapton Circuit), Southfields (Wandsworth Circuit), Clock House (Bromley Circuit), Widmore (Bromley Circuit), Kenley (Croydon, London Road Circuit), Woodside Green (Croydon, South Norwood Circuit), Radlett (St. Albans Circuit), Tolworth (Kingston-on-Thames Circuit), Collindale Avenue (Finchley and Hendon Circuit), Mill Hill (Finchley and Hendon Circuit), Hendon (Finchley and Hendon Circuit), Northfields Lane (Ealing and Acton Circuit), Pitshanger (Ealing and Acton Circuit), Southall (Ealing and Acton Circuit), Upminster (Ilford Circuit), Chadwell Heath (Ilford Circuit), East Sheen (Richmond Circuit), Leybourne Road Gardens, Kew (Richmond Circuit), Wembley (Kilburn and Hampstead Circuit), Golder's Green (Kilburn and Hampstead Circuit), Mare Street (Hackney Circuit), Epsom (Sutton Circuit), Bandon Hill (Sutton Circuit), East Barnet (New Barnet Circuit), Bush Hill Park (Tottenham Circuit), Hayes Station (Southall and Uxbridge Mission).

Temporary Iron Chapels or Schools have been erected on some of these sites.

These sites are held by Trustees on behalf of our Church, and the London Mission and Extension Fund has paid, during the year, a portion of the interest to the extent of £367 10s.

Work and Workers' Section.

Open Air Work in London.—The Training School for Preachers and Speakers in the Open Air was suspended during the winter owing to the fact that a large number of Students had joined the King's Forces. The following Centres, however, have been organised during the summer for Open Air Preaching: Hyde Park, Regent's Park, Victoria Park and East London, Hampstead Heath, Bermondsey, Tooting Broadway, Clapham Common.

The Branches of the London Mission.—In all the 30 Centres of the London Mission new financial and moral difficulties began to reveal themselves immediately after the outbreak of war. These urgent problems have been met by our Ministers, Sisters of the People, and the voluntary workers in the most devoted and self-sacrificing way. The utmost economy has been exercised in working these various branches during the year. At the same time the most strenuous efforts have been made to carry on the work of rescue, shelter, and salvation. It has been a thoroughly successful year so far as congregations and spiritual results are concerned.

Very special efforts have been put forth so as to raise the necessary income, and if possible deal with the debt on the Central Fund. The Committee recognises the generous response given by Circuits and Chapels to the effective and self-denying efforts put forth during the year by Rev. C. Ensor Walters, who has devoted his time and energy to this section of the work.

APPENDIX VIII.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE CHAPEL COMMITTEE, 1915.

The Committee is glad to report that on the whole the Income has been well maintained. It was hardly expected that the Fund would reach the figure which was reached last year, as there was an increase reported of £210 19*s.* 2*d.* The result, however, for the year is highly satisfactory considering the strain caused by the War.

The total income from Collections and Subscriptions is £10,099 18*s.* 0*d.*, being a decrease of £162 8*s.* 3*d.* Notwithstanding this decrease, the Income is some £40 better than two years ago, and there is every reason to believe that, but for the War, there would have been a further increase.

Great economy has been exercised in the working expenses, resulting in a saving of £229 7*s.* 8*d.* on the year, so that the amount at the disposal of the Committee is slightly above that of last year.

For the first time for many years it has been possible to deal with all applications for grants within the current year. There are no outstanding cases. It has also been possible to complete the Reserve Fund of £30,000, which has been created as supplementary to the Century Fund. This is a great relief to the Committee, as it was feared the Fund would not be completed for several years. All grants promised are now provided for, both from the Ordinary and from the Special Fund. This very satisfactory state of things is, of course, due to the fact that very few Chapel schemes are being proceeded with owing to the War. When the War, however, is over, there will probably be a severe strain on the resources of the Committee.

The Interest on Loans and Investments has more than met the entire cost of the Department.

The total new expenditure sanctioned under Schedule A is £99,032, which is £148,037 less than last year. The number of cases is 202 as against 289 last year. The number of new Chapels to be erected is 18, a decrease of 23 as compared with last year. Of these 8 are to be built in places where previously there was no Methodist Chapel, and 10 supersede former erections.

The additional accommodation provided in the new Chapels is 2,233 sittings, as against 7,231 last year. The enlargements provide 517 additional sittings, making the total additional accommodation 2,750, as against 8,069 last year. The average cost per sitting is £5 12*s.*, last year it was £6. The total debt on the entire outlay is $34\frac{4}{10}$ per cent., as against $24\frac{5}{10}$ per cent. last year. The debt on Chapels alone is $19\frac{8}{10}$ per cent., as against $18\frac{6}{10}$ per cent. last year.

The number of alterations and enlargements sanctioned this year is 83 as against 107 last year, and the cost £34,812 as against £46,924. Many of these alterations include Schools, and most of the New Chapel cases also include Schools. In addition 15 Schools have been separately sanctioned at a cost of £10,155, a decrease in the amount sanctioned of £50,256 as compared with last year. The increase in outlay under the head of modifications is £13,477.

In the return of cases completed under Schedule B, there are 212 cases representing an outlay of £157,714. Of these, 30 are Chapels costing £60,199. There are 50 cases in which the conditions have not been fulfilled, as against 60 last year; of these 11 are Chapels as against 18 last year. The debt on the entire outlay on completed cases works out at $28\frac{9}{10}$ per cent., as against 32 per cent. last year. There are 7 irregular cases, representing in all an outlay of £1,878.

The new Chapels returned as completed number 30; of these 14, to accommodate 5,496 hearers, have been erected in places where previously there were no Wesleyan Methodist Chapels, and 16, with 4,026 sittings, supersede former erections, which provided 3,857 sittings. The total additional accommodation provided in the new Chapels is therefore 5,665 sittings. The Chapel enlargements provide 452 additional sittings, making the total additional accommodation represented by these completed returns 6,117 sittings.

The amount raised locally for new erections and enlargements is £98,182. The amount actually expended both for new Erections and Relief of Debt is £239,275. Of this amount £171,285 has been raised locally, and if the Grants be added, the amount actually raised is £179,748. Last year it was £338,100. In eight years the Methodist people have completed cases of Chapels and Schools, etc., and Relief of Debt, which represent an outlay of £4,163,000.

During the year the Committee has settled 105 cases of Relief of Debt by grants amounting to £4,003, discharging £37,628 of debt. This is a decrease of 68 cases as compared with last year, and £2,730 in the amount of grants paid. The amount of debt discharged also shows a decrease of £36,647 on last year.

Loans have been advanced without interest in 20 cases amounting to £4,455, thereby discharging £11,690 of debt. This is a decrease of 7 cases, and £7,207 in the amount of debt discharged by the aid of Loans. The total debt paid off by Loans and Grants is £49,318, a decrease of £43,854.

The debt paid off by local efforts exclusively is £32,243, being £6,723 less than was paid off locally last year. The total debt paid off during the year is £81,561, which is very satisfactory under all the circumstances. The total debt discharged since 1854 is £3,892,483.

There are 9.241 Trusts making returns, an increase of 44 as compared with last year. The debt, exclusive of the capitalised value of ground-rent is £1,516,809, being £120,396 more than last year. This is wholly explained by the inclusion for the first time in these returns of the debt on the new Hall at Westminster, which is largely covered by rental. There are 5,995 Trusts free from debt. The total income reported is £699,373. There are 3,649 Trusts contributing £52,623 to Circuit Funds, an increase of 1 Trust and a decrease of £278 in the amount contributed.

The number of Legal Documents that have passed through the office during the year is 1,488, of which 309 were renewals under Fowler's Act, all of which have been registered.

Twentieth Century Fund.—The following is a summary of the Century Fund cases already settled to May 31, 1915. In addition to these, Grants have been paid by instalments in many cases the cost of which is not taken into account.

No.		Cost.	Debt.
669	New Chapels . . .	£2,780,823	£719,604

36	Ministers' Houses . .	31,925	6,849
1,252		£3,542,019	£899,297

The total amount of Grants paid to May 31, 1915, is £337,574.

The Debt on the entire outlay, after deducting £259,571 covered by rental, is £639,726, being slightly over 18 per cent.

Income of the Fund.

The Ordinary Income of the Fund from Collections and Subscriptions for the year ending May 31, 1915, is £10,099 18*s.* 0*d.*, being an increase on the year of £162 8*s.* 3*d.*

The following are the particulars:

	Amount.			Decrease.

Grants Fund.

The sum of £4,003 has been paid in Grants for Relief of Debt, and £2,310 to New Erections. The amount in hand on the Relief and General Account was, on May 31, £12,941 17s. 6d., and the amount in hand on Erections Grants' Fund was £9,450. These amounts are sufficient to provide for the Grants promised up to May 31, both for Relief of Debt and for new Erections.

Loans Fund.

The Capital of the Loans Fund is: Relief Loan Fund (A) £46,000; Erections Loan Fund (C), £45,115 12s.

During the year the sum of £4,445 has been paid in new Loans on the Relief Account. The Loan Instalments repaid on this account have amounted to £6,511 19s. 7d., and £958 10s. on the Erections Fund Account. The repayment of 24 Loans on both accounts has been completed during the year. There are now 277 Loans in operation. The balances of unpaid Loans on May 31 were: Relief Fund (A), £43,331 6s. 8d.; Erections' Fund (C), £2,939 15s.

APPENDIX XI.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE FOR PROMOTING THE DUE OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

In presenting its Annual Report to the Conference, your Committee feels bound to mention first the great loss it, and the whole Connexion, have sustained in the sudden death of the Rev. Thomas J. Thorpe, its senior Secretary. Mr. Thorpe had held this office for ten years, and during the whole time had rendered to the cause most devoted and untiring service. Only two days before his unexpected removal, he was present at a meeting of the Committee, and conducted the business in his usual unobtrusive but effective fashion. Mr. Thorpe had expressed last year his wish to retire from office, but had consented to retain his position for this year, in order that his successor might be initiated into the duties, and at the meeting referred to he gladly agreed to retain an unofficial seat on the Committee, which he had served so long. His faithful and genial colleagueship will be greatly missed.

Your Committee has met thrice during the year. At its first meeting, its attention was drawn, both by private letter and by public resolution, to the pressing question of the publication and sale of newspapers on the Lord's Day. Your Committee gave long and careful consideration to the question in many aspects, and especially in view of the extreme tension of the public mind owing to the war. Ultimately it was unanimously agreed to issue a declaration to the Methodist public that the Sunday publication of newspapers during the war can only be countenanced in view of the national issues at stake, of which new phases might occur daily. At the same time it urged upon our people the duty of self-denial, alike in the interests of the spirit of calm, and because every trespass upon the sanctity of the Lord's Day should be strenuously resisted. The Committee also called upon the Methodist people everywhere to exercise their influence with the public authorities to put in force the powers they already possessed to suppress the crying of newspapers and other goods in the streets on the Lord's Day.

Early in the present year a new phase of the question developed itself, in the issue of two Sunday picture papers, backed by the influence and material support of two great publishing houses. Your Committee is gravely concerned at this new departure, against which a spirited protest was made by its Ministerial Secretary by letters in the daily and Methodist press. The Committee recommends that the Conference should take all possible steps to make an effective protest against this totally unnecessary and unjustifiable infringement of the peace of the Lord's Day.

Your Committee has sought this year by public advertisement to call the attention of Ministers and Local Preachers to "Lord's Day Sunday"—the Sunday after Easter—and it has good reason to believe that the change of method proved effective. The shadow of the war has been over every department of our work during the year, but your Committee trusts that it may soon be removed, and that the serious spirit in which, it may be hoped, the nation will begin its new life, under widely changed conditions, will among other things manifest itself in a deeper reverence for the Day of Rest.

APPENDIX XII.

LOCAL PREACHERS' AFFAIRS.

Report of the Committee.

From the statistical returns printed on another page of this report, it will be seen that there is an actual decrease on the year of forty-five fully accredited Local Preachers in the Connexion. The number reported is 19,418, and 1,515 on trial, 38 more than a year ago. While the Committee regrets that it has to report a decrease, it is thankful that, in spite of the difficulties caused by the war, the number is so well maintained.

The Annual Examinations, which have never appeared to arouse the interest they deserve, have been seriously affected by the war. Only 40 out of a total of 19,000 Local Preachers sat for the Examination last March. Thirty-seven passed the Examination, which consists both of a theological and homiletical section. In the former section 6 took honours, 20 were in the first division, and 11 in the second; and in the homiletic section 11 took honours, 18 passed in the first division, and 8 in the second.

Next year's Examination—the twentieth in succession—falls on Monday, March 6, 1916. The text-books are Moule's Ephesians (Cambridge Bible), and Clapperton's Essentials of Theology, chapters 5 to 11.

Mr. Edward R. Lightwood, B.A., and the Rev. Thomas R. James, B.A., are the appointed examiners.

The facilities provided in the nature of Correspondence Classes, and the purchase of books from the recommended list at two-thirds of the published price, continue to be used in an encouraging manner.

The Committee deeply mourns the loss of their Ministerial Secretary, the Rev. John Bell. With the exception of a few months in the earliest history of the Committee, he had acted as Secretary during the whole period of the Committee's existence. His devotion and faithfulness have been of the greatest help to the work of the Committee, and his name will be long remembered and cherished in connexion with all that makes for the welfare of Local Preachers.

The Committee also mourns the loss of Mr. A. R. Kelley, one of the lay members of the Committee. He served the Committee for many years and always displayed the warmest sympathy with Local Preachers and their work.

The following suggestion to Conference last year from the First and Third London Synods was remitted to the Committee for consideration and report:

> "That it is desirable that steps should be taken to secure the better organisation of Local Preachers throughout the Connexion, so that their services may be available outside their own Circuits to assist those districts where there is difficulty in providing adequate pulpit supplies."
> "The Synod asks Conference to instruct the Local Preachers' Connexional Committee to prepare a scheme with that object in view."

The following is the reply:

The matter has received the careful attention of the Committee and the following scheme of organisation is recommended:

1. Connexional Organisation. The Connexional Local Preachers' Committee shall appoint annually an Organisation Committee which shall be empowered to make arrangements to enable duly qualified Local Preachers to supply pulpits outside their own Circuits. This Committee shall be known as the Connexional Local Preachers' Organisation Committee.

2. The Organisation Committee shall make its own financial arrangements, shall be responsible to the Connexional Committee, and shall consist of ten Ministerial and ten Lay Members.

3. District Organisation. In each district where it is necessary for Circuits to secure outside pulpit supplies, the Synod shall instruct the District Local Preachers' Committee to make suitable arrangements for Local Preachers to supply Pulpits outside their own Circuits.

4. The District Organisation Committee shall appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer.

5. In order that strong Circuits may render the most effective help to others, and that Local Preachers in such Circuits may be given the widest opportunities of service, it is recommended that District Local Preachers' Committees be directed to co-operate with each other.

6. The Connexional Local Preachers' Organisation Committee shall communicate with the Committee for each District in order to advise those Committees in making adequate arrangements for pulpit supplies throughout their Districts. In any District where the Committee is unable to make all necessary provision, the Connexional Organisation Committee may assist any Circuit when desired to do so by the Superintendent Minister of that Circuit.

7. The Connexional Organisation Committee shall from time to time at its discretion hold a Conference at which the general work of the Committee may be discussed. Such Conference shall consist of the Members of the Connexional Organisation Committee, and one Ministerial and one Lay Representative from each District Committee.

Review of the Year.

General Results.—It need scarcely be said that the year has been one of exceptional difficulty. Figures are almost meaningless in view of the great upheaval caused by the war. The following facts are, however, worth consideration.

Financially we have ground for encouragement. Notwithstanding all difficulties, our position at the close of the year is slightly better than in the beginning.

Numerically we show a decrease of 104 branches of the Guild and 12,634 members, but it is necessary to take into account—

(1) That hundreds of Guilds have been unable to meet regularly, in consequence of the premises being requisitioned for military purposes.

(2) Overtime in the mills and workshops has made it impossible for thousands of members to attend their Guild meetings.

(3) Large numbers of our Guild young men have joined the Forces, including in some instances the whole staff of active secretaries.

(4) There has been great diversity of method in making the returns. In most instances where Guilds have been temporarily suspended, the superintendents have reported them, taking a percentage off the membership; but we know of many instances of Guilds which, under precisely similar circumstances, have not been returned at all, though their members still regard themselves as belonging to the movement, and have evidenced their loyalty in some cases by sending the usual contribution to our funds.

Under these circumstances we are compelled to judge the work by other standards than those of statistics. Among many gratifying features we may name the following:—

The District and Sectional Rallies held during the winter have been exceptionally large and characterised by remarkable spiritual power.

The circulation of The Guild has kept up exceedingly well, and the interest of our readers has never been more evident.

Our District and Sectional Secretaries in many districts are full of hope. The Rev. Allen Holt, of Liverpool, says, "Though our returns for the year show a decrease we believe that there is a distinct advance in the enthusiasm of our young people. In many of our societies the Wesley Guild is one of the strongest links binding our young people to the Church. The spirit of comradeship is still one of the most cheering features of our work." The Rev. P. H. Taylor, of Bolton, writes, "There is ground for hope that there will be considerable improvement next year." The Rev. H. G. Wilkinson, Secretary of the Nottingham and Derby District, one of the few districts reporting an increase, says, "The activities of the Wesley Guild have been well maintained notwithstanding the abnormal conditions under which the work has been done . . . and our returns show an increase in the numbers of both Senior and Junior Guilds with a gratifying advance in our membership."

Others might be quoted, and the experience of those who have the most intimate knowledge of the movement give us confidence that when, after the war is over, the time comes for rallying our forces, there will be a magnificent response from young Methodism.

The Guild Questionary.—In order to get a clear knowledge of what our Guilds were doing under the exceptional circumstances of the time, a Guild Questionary was sent out from headquarters in February. The topics dealt with were "The Guild and the War," "The Devotional Evening," "Work Done by the Guild," "The Guild Hospital," and "The Magazine." Over a thousand replies were received, and from these we have gathered much interesting and helpful information.

1. Practically the whole of our Guilds have been doing some sort of work to help the Army and Navy. In many instances the Guild has taken charge of the rooms set apart for the service of our soldiers. In some instances fine temperance work has been done among the men. Our Methodist girls have done splendidly in making the various garments that have been needed by the troops.

2. The Devotional Evening is still, with rare exceptions, the strongest and most effective evening of the Guild; but the number making use of the Headquarters Devotional Programme is much smaller than it ought to be.

3. The Christian Service Department appears to be the weakest point in many Guilds. While a good proportion are doing excellent work, helping the Church and training their young people for service, a very large number seem to regard the Guild as little more than a weekly meeting. There is room in this direction for great development, and we hope that this may be encouraged by "The Worker's Guide" which has been prepared to help our young people during the coming year.

4. The number of Guilds doing anything to support the Wesley Guild Hospital in West Africa is disappointingly small, being only about one-fifth of the number from which replies were received.

5. The Guild steadily maintains its popularity. More than two-thirds of the Guilds replying report it to be in vigorous circulation.

6. The final question: "Have you any suggestion for the improvement of the Wesley Guild?" has yielded very little fruit, most of our correspondents being of the opinion that it is difficult to improve upon the Guild as it is if it be properly worked.

The Guild and the War.—One of the outstanding features of the year is the number of Guilders who have joined the colours.

From the information supplied by the Questionaries, from the actual names enrolled on our list at Headquarters, and in other ways, we estimate that at least 15,000 young men have entered the Army from this source alone.

A letter of cheer and encouragement has been sent to every Guilder who has enlisted whose name and address has been sent to Headquarters. Many replies have been received. At first they came from the training camps; more recently from the base in France; and just lately from Guilders in the very firing line. It is interesting to know that some of our brave young fellows took part in the naval battle off the Falkland Isles and in the historic conflict for Hill 60. Other letters have reached us from various hospitals, and not a few of our young Methodist soldiers have given their lives for their country.

At the very commencement of the war a large number of our best workers—able, devoted, business-like secretaries of large and important Guilds—answered the Great Call. One member of the Central Council, Mr. Clifford Streat, is with the Forces; Mr. Dalton Vasey, a valued member of the London Council, is acting as Instructor at Aldershot; and Mr. Rowse Mitchell, the energetic Secretary of the Devonport and Plymouth Council, is engaged in Red Cross Work.

It is noticeable that our young Methodists have entered upon their new life with a clear consciousness of what they are doing. Not in the spirit of mere adventure—though it is a great adventure—but animated by the highest patriotism and by deeply religious spirit, they have consecrated themselves to the service of their country. We have reason to believe that the emphasis laid during recent years upon the subject of Citizenship and the duties it involves has had its effect in preparing many of our young Methodists for the tremendous responsibility that has been laid upon them.

Their letters are full of manly Christian faith and courage. They realise the presence of God even on the battlefield, and face without a murmur the hardships and perils of the campaign.

The Wesley Guild Badge has proved useful in a number of very interesting ways both at home and at the front.

The Guild on the Foreign Field.—There is an increase of twenty-seven Senior Guilds and eight Junior Branches on the Foreign Field, and stimulating letters have been received from our foreign Secretaries, particularly from Ceylon and the West Indies. During the year we have received information that the Wesley Guild has been adopted as the official Young People's Society of the Methodist Church of New Zealand. It has been the recognised society of the Methodist Church in South Africa for a good many years, and it is gratifying to know that the Junior Guild is making steady progress in the South African Churches.

The Wesley Guild Hospital.—The amount contributed by our Guilds during the year 1914 toward the maintenance of Medical Missions in West Africa is £347 1*s.* 4*d.*

New arrangements have been made with the Mission House by which all amounts for this object, from whatever source they may be received, will be credited to the Circuit account; but it is desirable that all moneys should be sent through Circuit channels.

Dr. Stephens is now at home on furlough, and will be addressing many of our Guilds during his visit.

Guild Holidays and Holiday Evangelism.—The outbreak of war in the summer of 1914 made it necessary to set aside nearly all our holiday arrangements, and it has not been considered desirable to draw up any programme for the present year.

Our holiday centre at Moorhurst, near Grange-over-Sands, has, however, remained open, and has proved a very great boon to many who were in need of a quiet and restful retreat during the year. Young people's parties were arranged for Easter and Whitsuntide and met with gratifying success.

Our experiment in Holiday Evangelism in 1914 thoroughly justified itself, though the outbreak of hostilities on the Continent cut short the stay of one or two workers. The missioners were Rev. W. A. Bryan Jones, Rev. W. J. Bull, Mr. A. Bowen, Mr. Gardener, Mr. B. Wilson Haigh, Mr. F. L. Jenkinson, Mr. T. M. Price, and Mr. Prince. They made the Wye Valley their scene of operations, and met with a warm welcome on the part of the villagers.

When normal times return it will be well worth while to develop the idea illustrated by this venture.

Other Young People's Societies.—The new column for the entry of "Young People's Societies other than the Wesley Guild" is evidencing the fact that a large amount of work for the young hitherto unrecorded is being carried on in our Church.

It is important to note that only about two-thirds of these societies are alternatives to the Wesley Guild. A large proportion are societies of an altogether different type, existing side by side with the Guild, and often worked by its members. Among these may be named a Missionary Ship League, the Knights of King Arthur, the Young Worshippers' League, Wesley Study Circles, the Young Leaguers' Union, and Bible Classes of various types. It will be noted that in our returns we differentiate between the two kinds of society.

Work for Boys and Girls.—The Girls' Committee met early in the year and appointed Mrs. Wenyon as Secretary. Mr. Sydney Morgan continues to be the Secretary of the Boys' Committee. (See Appendix on Sunday School Work.)

Arrangements have been made for a Boys' Service and a Girls' Service in connexion with the Birmingham Conference.

Mrs. Wenyon reports on behalf of the Girls' Committee as follows: "The Girls' Committee which has been in existence for a few months has issued a small booklet which has been distributed among all the bigger Sunday Schools of Methodism. In it is epitomised work among girls that is already going on. Later on there will be a larger booklet with much fuller information. The Committee also sent round a letter asking girls to make comforts for our soldiers and sailors; this has met with a generous response for which Mr. Bateson was very grateful.

"Our aim is to see established in every Church some specific work for girls; to capture them when they are leaving the Sunday School and are not attached to the Church. We are anxious to find out how many Churches, and which, have no such institution. Suggestions as to how to get this information will be gratefully received by the Secretary."

The Junior Guild.—The Junior Guild reports an increase of nine Guilds and 597 members.

REPORT OF THE WESLEY DEACONESS INSTITUTE.

Like all other branches of the Church's activity, the work of the Wesley Deaconess Institute has been severely tested by the effects of the great war. At the first shock it seemed as if a considerable proportion of the work was threatened with collapse, but it soon became apparent that the Churches were in no mind to give up their Deaconesses because of war strain, and after ten months' experience of war, the Committee have to report that the number of Deaconesses now engaged in work in our circuits and missions is fully maintained, and has, indeed, slightly increased.

At the moment of the meeting of the Committee, every available Deaconess is wanted for service, and there has been no failure on the part of any Church to provide for the support of a Deaconess in its employment.

The war strain has made it apparent that our Churches do not regard their Deaconesses as luxuries to be dispensed with in hard times, but as valuable helpers who are all the more needed when difficulties increase.

The services of the Deaconess in comforting the hearts of sorrowful people, and finding strength for the weak, and guidance for those who are sorely perplexed, are needed more than ever in the crisis through which the nation is passing, and are appreciated very highly by those to whom they are given. The girl life of England has been in much need of the kind of help which our Deaconesses render so well, and it would be impossible to estimate the full value to the nation of the influence that has been exerted by them in favour of courage, self-control, purity, and patience.

With regard to the financial support required for the maintenance of the College and Headquarters work at Ilkley, the report is not so completely satisfactory.

The Committee, however, desire to acknowledge with sincere gratitude that their Lady Associates and Subscribers have stood by them faithfully, and that no serious diminution of income from these sources has to be reported.

Part of the income of the Committee, however, has always been precarious, and has depended upon the holding of public meetings, the receipt of special donations, legacies and other occasional and incalculable gifts. This kind of income has largely failed during the year.

On the other side of the account, the strictest economy has been practised, but all the savings thereby made have been swallowed up by the increased cost of living. The result is that the Committee find at the end of the year that the debt of £392 7s. 10d., with which the year began, has been increased by £335 14s. 5d., making a total indebtedness of £728 2s. 3d.

This debt, unless it be promptly removed, threatens to be a serious hindrance to the work, and although the Committee are entirely reluctant to make any special appeal at such a time as this they recognise that it is necessary to seek the removal of this burden of debt at the earliest possible moment.

The Committee desire most respectfully to repeat again to the Conference their conviction that the work needs a Connexional contribution of from £300 to £500 a year, to put its finances on a satisfactory basis.

The scheme for providing additional bedrooms at Ilkley has necessarily been postponed because of the war, and the Committee regretfully recognise that it must still stand over.

The Committee have great satisfaction in reporting to the Conference that the work of the Deaconesses, both at home and abroad, calls out the high encomiums of the ministers and people amongst whom they are labouring, and that the Deaconesses themselves continue to gain a secure place in the esteem and goodwill of our people everywhere.

The work in West Africa has been maintained during the year, and the Committee are glad to learn from the Rev. Wm. Goudie, who has recently visited the West African stations, that his visits have confirmed his high opinion of the service rendered in the Girls' Schools at Freetown, Cape Coast Castle, Aburi, and Lagos.

The College life has been satisfactory during the year, and the Deaconess Convocation which met at Grosvenor Street, Manchester, has been a good and helpful one.

There has been one death during the year, that of Sister Kathleen Durant, a Deaconess greatly beloved.

The roll of the members of the Order is now composed as follows:—

Deaconesses fully recognised	184
Deaconesses fully recognised at Convocation	14
Deaconess-Probationers	45

METHODIST CONCERTED ACTION COMMITTEE.

CONSTITUTION:

Wesleyan Reform Union	1
Independent Methodists	1

Objects.

CO-OPERATION: (1) In Mutual Defence; (2) in Christian, Moral, and Social Work, independent of all party associations and political creeds; (3) in the Prevention of the unnecessary multiplication of Chapels, especially in small places; (4) in the fraternal Development of Methodism in the thousands of villages and small towns where it has at present no existence.

The Committee met on April 14, 1915, the Rev. Andrew Crombie in the Chair. Representatives from the Methodist Churches were present.

1. The Secretary reported that he had received a request that the Rev. S. Horton and J. E. Thorp should be heard in respect to the Newton Abbot resolution passed at the last meeting of the Committee. Unfortunately Mr. Horton was unable to come, but Mr. Thorp addressed the meeting at considerable length. After a long and careful conversation it was resolved :

"That having further considered the case of Newton Abbot, we deeply regret that there has been a misunderstanding with regard to the Primitive Methodists entering the town. We are convinced that there has been no breach of faith on their part in the course they have taken, but in view of all the facts of the case we think it would promote the best interests of Methodism if the advice of the General Committee to the Primitive Methodist Church were acted upon and our Torquay friends withdraw from the position into which they unwittingly entered."

It was further resolved :

1. That in future any resolution passed in this Committee shall be forwarded by the Secretary of the Committee to the denominational secretaries. It shall be the duty of the denominational secretaries to forward any resolutions to the local friends in the Circuits.

2. The Conference is strongly of the opinion that any resolutions passed in connexion with the Concerted Action Committee ought to appear in the published Minutes of the various Conferences.

3. That in future, the Secretary shall state the business to be considered at the Committee on the notices calling the meeting.

4. That if there be any need to consult local friends in respect to any business which may come before the Concerted Action Committee, this duty shall devolve upon the denominational secretaries.

THE METHODIST BUREAU.

During the past year 3,667 cases of removal have been reported to the Methodist Bureau. This number has been made up as follows: 3,475 Members and 192 Adherents. The following tables show the results obtained in connexion with these cases:

The Committee rejoices in the excellent results which have attended the work of the Bureau this year, but desires to point out that at present the Bureau only deals with about one-sixth of the entire cases of removal in the Connexion. If the same results that have been obtained in the Bureau cases could have been realised in connexion with the whole of the removals, then there would have been a considerable increase of membership this year instead of a decrease. The Committee, therefore, requests the Conference to repeat its former declaration in respect of the work of the Bureau, requiring all Ministers, on the removal of any member, to send to the Bureau Committee full details of the name of the member and the Circuit to which he is removing. It further asks the Conference to direct that in the September Synods the Chairmen of Districts shall call attention to this regulation.

APPENDIX XVIII.

SPIRITUAL ADVANCE, LAY WORKERS' COLLEGE, AND SOUTH YORKSHIRE COALFIELD.

Report on Spiritual Advance.

At the September Synods the Conference resolutions on Spiritual Advance received careful consideration. But everywhere it was felt that under the unexpected conditions brought about by the war it was impracticable to carry out the programme in all its details; while on the other hand exceptional opportunities for social and evangelistic effort not contemplated in the programme were offered by the new situation.

The year's experience has confirmed this judgment. The vast numbers of young men in the new armies have formed a most promising and fruitful field of Christian work. Wherever troops have been quartered our people have made praiseworthy efforts to minister both to their material comfort and spiritual profit. Some of our workers who have enlisted have been greatly honoured of God. The value of their sterling character and their manly witness for Christ is incalculable. Detailed report of this side of the work belongs to another department. Here, however, grateful acknowledgment should be made of the encouragement and edification which our Churches, especially in country districts, have received from the chivalrous manner in which many of our members, both officers and men, have, so far as their military duties would permit, thrown themselves into the life of the Societies in the places where they were temporarily stationed.

Few Circuits have been able to carry out the full Conference programme. In particular, difficulty has been experienced in arranging for special evangelistic services. The serious depletion of the Churches through the absence on military duty of so many effective workers, and the preoccupation of mind occasioned by the War, are alleged as the principal reasons. In the few places in which Missions have been held they have been accompanied by a gracious revival. The efforts of the Connexional Evangelists have met with much success. The Committee was able to secure the services of Gipsy Smith, who conducted missions in Douglas, Nottingham, Bristol, Gloucester, Lewisham, and certain towns in the Kent District. In every place there were many conversions. Douglas and Lewisham were scenes of great spiritual power.

A more general effort was made in the "Come to Church Campaign," in some places independently, but more generally in conjunction with other Churches. The special literature provided proved very serviceable and was largely employed. Unfortunately the weather on the chosen Sundays was unfavourable, but in many places the congregations were much larger than usual. Nevertheless, it must be admitted that there is little evidence of permanent increase in the number of worshippers.

The Synod Reports give no indication as to how far the direction of Conference was observed to bring before the congregations the duty and obligation of Church membership. In any case the response has not been sufficient fully to repair the losses of the year.

Yet the effort and experience of the Campaign have been by no means unfruitful. In the direction in which the eye was looking there are not the visible results which were hoped for, but without doubt the life of the Church has been quickened, its witness revived and extended, and its sense of the presence of its Lord deepened and strengthened.

Lay Workers' College, Gospel Cars, etc.

Notwithstanding the war, the work of the College has been well maintained. During the first two terms we had practically our normal number of men, but before the third began quite a number had enlisted, and we were reduced from 72 in October to 41 by the end of June. The exceptional circumstances of war conditions have induced a deeper sense of seriousness, and led to a corresponding strenuousness in work. The spiritual tone has been deep and strong, and in all the activities of the College there has been a sense of urgency and responsibility.

During the year we have had 78 different Students, and though of varying capacity, there has been every evidence of earnestness and fidelity. The health of the College has been good.

In the ten years since the College was opened, we have had 918 students. Of these, 172 have entered the Home Ministry; 8 have entered the Irish Ministry; 16 have entered other Ministries in England; 97 have gone to the United States; 98 have gone to Canada and Newfoundland; 76 have gone to Australia; 6 have gone to New Zealand; 6 have gone to South Africa; 1 has gone to the China Inland Mission; 69 have become Lay Agents; 10 have died; 359 have returned to their circuits.

The evangelistic activities have been greatly blessed. Missioners have conducted Special Services throughout the autumn and winter, and many of our Evangelists have been labouring in circuits where there were places of exceptional difficulty. Some of our Agents spent three or four months in a group of villages visiting, preaching, and organising, and in many cases their efforts have been blessed to the revival of God's work.

We have three Gospel Cars, and they, too, enable us to do evangelistic work in places where it would otherwise be impossible. At South Kirkby, Mr. Tempest has lived in a Car since last September, and he has had the joy of seeing one of the most glorious revivals ever known in the history of Methodism. Scores of colliers have been converted, and many a Lazarus has come forth out of his grave a living witness to the power of Christ and His resurrection. The Cars are used in the summer for travelling Evangelism. Mr. H. H. Roberts and his wife are going from village to village on a tour that will extend from the beginning of May to the end of August, and everywhere signs and wonders are following them in their labours. Another Car is being used in the same way by two Lady Evangelists in the Eastern Counties. We are anxious to extend and develop the evangelistic side of our work, and if our funds will allow it we shall take an early opportunity to multiply agencies of this kind.

The financial side of our work has been a cause for great thankfulness. Once again we are able to close our year's account without debt, and we have been able to undertake several improvements and repairs. God has given us the confidence and the affection of His people, and we have many touching examples of sacrificial love in memory of Thomas Champness and Thomas Cook.

This is a great inheritance, and we believe that the future has greater possibilities and opportunities for us than ever we have known in the past.

South Yorkshire Coalfield Report.

The year has been one of revival and encouragement. Progress has been made all along the line, and spiritual results have been seen in all parts of the Mission. The open-air services conducted by the Rev. Josiah Mee and Captain Davis, with the help of the motor-car, continued to meet with great success. Whole households were brought to God. There was spiritual awakening wherever they went, and the problem was how this work was to be sustained and consolidated. At South Kirkby a splendid example of building up a Society has been witnessed. In Mr. Tempest exactly the type of man for this work was found, and his ministry has been greatly blessed, especially among the young men. The Chairman of the District (Rev. S. Chadwick), who continues to take the deepest interest in every department of the Coalfields Mission and knows the work at South Kirkby thoroughly, says: "It is a bit of the most remarkable soul-saving work that I have seen in thirty years, and it is spreading; other places are catching fire."

Other parts of the Coalfield have also shown great activity both in evangelism and erection of buildings. The Commission has dealt with building schemes on business lines, each case being carefully considered, and financial assistance, generally one-third of the outlay, being promised from the available funds of the Commission, in addition to the ordinary assistance of the Chapel Committee. Every Circuit within the Coalfield area has prepared for a forward movement. Some cases, Carcroft for example, have submitted plans and begun to build. In October the ordinary promises, not including the Home Mission and Chapel Committees' promises, amounted to £4,633. It was decided to use the fund actually in the hands of the treasurer (Mr. B. G. Wood), but not to overdraw on the bank. There is a great demand for Lay Agents. The Commission therefore decided to work the fund of the Mission in two parts, viz. an Agency Fund and a Building Fund. By this means provision will be made to meet varying local needs. An excellent map of the Coalfield District, prepared by the Primitive Methodists, has been provided for every member of the Commission.

The Missioner, Rev. Josiah Mee, whose remarkable energy and devotion have become known and honoured throughout the whole Mission area, was reluctantly compelled to cease his labours before Christmas. The Commission rejoices to hear of his recovery, and earnestly prays that he may be able to resume his labours after Conference.

The Commission expresses its deep gratitude to Mr. Mee's helpers and evangelists who have carried on the work with such devotion in his absence. Most valuable help has been rendered by the Cliff College evangelists, acting under the direction of Mr. Chadwick. Special mention should be made of the long and highly successful work of Captain Davis. For the last fifteen years he has devoted his special gifts and remarkable zeal to evangelistic work, five of which have been spent in strenuous labour in the South Yorkshire Coalfield.

We have every reason to rejoice over the year's work, and to look forward with confidence and hope to the future. This distressing war has somewhat interfered with the progress of the work, but when peace is declared, we are persuaded a great advance in every department of the Mission will be made.

APPENDIX XIX.

METHODISM IN SOUTH WALES.

The South Wales Commission met at Wesley Chapel, Cardiff, on June 18, 1915.

Following upon the efforts reported to the last Conference, deputations from the Commission have visited the Brynmawr and Tredegar Quarterly Meetings in reference to the proposed scheme of union between the Welsh and English Circuits in these areas. While, however, in each case the English Circuit was ready to consider favourably any re-arrangement that would reduce overlapping, and contribute to efficiency and economy on the part of Methodism as a whole, the Commission regrets to report that the Quarterly Meetings of the Brynmawr (Welsh) and Tredegar (Welsh) Circuits rejected the proposals made.

The recommendation of the Commission that a District

Missionary should be appointed for the promotion of evangelistic and pioneer work among the new populations has been under the consideration of the Cardiff and Swansea Synod and the Home Mission Committee during the year, but it has not been possible as yet to agree either upon the character of the appointment or the apportionment of financial responsibility. The whole matter has been referred to the further consideration of the Synod and the Home Mission Committee, with the earnest hope that some practical scheme may be devised.

After a careful review of the position and prospects of the work of the Commission, the following resolution was unanimously adopted :—

> "The Commission appointed to inquire into the condition, working, and outlook of Wesleyan Methodism in South Wales has made careful investigation respecting the work of our Church in the Cardiff and Swansea and South Wales Districts, and through its Sub-Committees and visitations has gathered valuable information upon the whole subject. It is convinced of the imperative necessity for some drastic changes in the existing arrangements and methods of working, particularly in relation to the overlapping between Welsh and English Circuits, and the evangelisation of the new and growing industrial populations of the District.
> "While viewing with sympathy the efforts of the Welsh Assembly to promote the movement of 'One Methodism' throughout the Principality, the Commission regrets that it has been found impossible to secure any fusion of Welsh and English work in the particular circuits in South Wales where flagrant conditions of overlapping exist, and where reasonable proposals on bi-lingual lines have been made.
> "The Commission is persuaded that the proposed Extension Fund, approved by the Conference, is essential if evangelistic and aggressive movements on behalf of the new populations are to be undertaken. The lack of any promise of adequate local financial support—the first condition of any successful appeal to the Connexion as a whole—renders it impossible to proceed with the scheme at present.

"In view of these facts it is recommended that the Commission shall be discharged by the Conference. While it is felt, however, that no useful purpose can be served by its re-appointment, the Commission is impressed by the necessity for continued guidance and help by the Home Mission Committee and the Conference in seeking to meet the moral and spiritual needs of the great industrial population of the areas which have been under consideration."

APPENDIX XXI.

BOOK AFFAIRS.—Annual Report, 1914-15.

The past year represents one of the most difficult and trying business years the publishing world has ever known. In common with other houses, we have felt the results flowing from the great world war now being waged.

The sales for the year 1914-15 amount to £54,929 13*s.* 7*d.*, being a decrease on the previous year of £3,708 6*s.* 3*d.* In spite of this decrease in turnover, the Board is grateful to be able to report that they are in a position to maintain and slightly increase the grants of last year.

In the year 1913-14 the total grants made amounted to £2,550; this year, with the grants recommended, the total amounts to £2,766 10*s.* 10*d.* This sum is made up of the following items:

1. Grants already made—
Irish Conference	200	0	0
Temperance Committee	50	0	0
War Grants (including £140 to the work of the Army and Navy Committee) ...	216	10	10
2. Grants recommended—

In addition to these grants the Board recommends that out of the profits of the year £500 be placed to the Building Reserve and £331 11*s.* be carried forward to the profits of next year. For such results in so terrible a year the Board is profoundly thankful.

The coming year threatens to be even more trying than the past has been, and it is very clear that if the help which the Publishing House has given in the past to the funds which deal with aged preachers is to be continued, the sympathy and support of the brethren must be given without stint. The Board believes that this will be the case, and hence it faces the work of the year with trust and confidence.

The recommendation of the Conference calling the attention of the Board of Management to the desirability of issuing some timely and concise publications on the privilege and duty of Sabbath observance is under the consideration of the Board.

Prisons Committee Report.

Early in the Connexional year the Committee suffered a severe loss in the passing of the Rev. R. W. Allen, M.V.O., who, for the six years in which he acted as its Secretary, discharged the duties of the office with the zest of youth, the patience and sagacity of a veteran, and the wide knowledge of an expert. To his zeal it is due that Wesleyan Ministers are now recognised as Chaplains, and in the performance of their spiritual work enjoy equal rights with the Chaplains of other Churches.

A further loss has been sustained in the death of the Rev. John Bell, who, on the death of the Rev. R. W. Allen, took up the duties of Secretary, and displayed in their discharge the acumen, sympathy, and dispatch which characterised all his work for the Department.

During the year the prison population has been much below the average. The number of Wesleyan prisoners has happily been reduced by about one-half. Nevertheless, the Chaplains have been assiduous in their attention to their duties. Their ministrations are well received by the prisoners, and some cases of remarkable conversion have taken place.

As was anticipated, the Capitation Grants are in the great majority of cases very small.

Once again grateful acknowledgment must be made of the valuable help rendered by the Discharged Prisoners' Aid Society.

APPENDIX XXIII.

METHODIST SETTLEMENT IN LONDON.

Report of the Committee.

The work of the Settlement during the past year has been carried on under very serious difficulties on account of the war. Owing to the national demand the Settlement has been denuded of Residents, and it is impossible to look forward to any substantial improvement in this state of things until peace has been restored. This, however, affects the Settlement adversely in two ways. It involves a great loss of income, and it means that our enterprises are carried on with increasing strain owing to the shortage of workers. There have been 9 Residents at the Settlement and 10 at the Women's House.

We may again point out what excellent arrangements are made by the Settlement to provide for young men who come up to London for professional and business work. It also affords invaluable opportunities for men desiring to enter the Ministry and to gain experience in practical work.

The Retirement of Miss Simmons.

We regret to report that after more than twenty years of honorary and invaluable service Miss Mary Simmons has found it necessary to resign the Headship of the Women's House, though she will continue to take part in our work and will reside at St. George's House. It is impossible to do justice to the services Miss Simmons has rendered throughout this long period to every branch of the Settlement work, and especially in the development of our organisations for women and children. Temporary arrangements have been made for carrying on the work without the appointment of a new Head until the end of the war.

The Settlement and the War.

Some hundreds of men who have been connected with the Settlement have joined the Forces. Our Division of the St. John Ambulance Brigade has joined the R.A.M.C. practically en masse. Nearly 150 old members of our Company of the Boys' Brigade are serving with the Forces, and one of them, Corporal Holmes, has won the V.C. Many others have gone from other centres and organisations of the Settlement. In other forms of national service the Settlement has been well to the front. Our representatives have given very active help to both the Central and the Ward Committees of the Prince of Wales's Fund. The Settlement building has been utilised as a centre of administration both for this Fund and for the Soldiers' and Sailors' Association. Special classes in Ambulance and Nursing work were carried on throughout the winter.

Our Concerts were made to raise considerable sums in aid of the Prince of Wales's Fund and of the Belgian Repatriation Fund. On the other hand, the war has forced us to suspend some of our agencies. It has been out of the question to hold a Picture Exhibition. The Old Boys' Club has only revealed its existence by the fact that groups of its members have foregathered at the Settlement whenever they have had leave from the camps where they are serving. Many other enterprises have suffered by the absence of the men.

Evangelism.

The evangelistic work of the Settlement is carried out principally in connexion with the South London Mission, and this aspect of the work is reported in the Agenda of the South London Mission. Classes for Biblical and Theological Training have been held regularly at the Settlement during the Session with a view to meeting the needs of local preachers, Sunday-school teachers, and mission workers. Advice has been given in sermon preparation and theological books have been studied. The Warden has conducted a Theological Class every Saturday evening.

Adult Bible Schools for men and women are conducted at the Settlement, and have proved very helpful. A Bible Class has been held on Sunday afternoons during the winter.

Temperance Work has been carried on through numerous organisations for men, women, and children, which have also provided counter-attractions to the public-house in the form of temperance clubs and societies.

Educational Work.

During the Session there have been 1,009 entries for our Evening Classes. The following is the list:

Art.—Photography, 17; Art Needlework, 10.

Commercial and Civil Service.—Accountancy and Book-keeping, 48; Shorthand, 88; Typewriting, 8; Typewriting Practice, 5; Handwriting and Orthography, 16; Geography, 12; Précis and Indexing, 13; Digesting Returns, 10; Composition, 16; History, 12.

Gymnastic Instruction and Practice.—Men, 24; Women, 37.

University Extension Lectures.—"Men and Movements of Modern Europe."—Autumn, 43; Winter, 32; Summer, 28.

Languages and Literature.—Elocution (Advanced), 15; Elocution (Elementary), 23; English Grammar, 41; French (Advanced), 24; French (Elementary), 54; Greek, 5; Latin, 6; Literary Reading Circle, 6.

Mathematics.—Arithmetic, 34; Algebra, 2; Science, 2.

Music.—Choral Society (Members and Associates), 71; Girls' Choir, 30; Violin, 76; Mandoline Class, 12; Mandoline Band, 4; String Band, 20.

Technical.—Ambulance, First Aid, 54; Nursing, 20; Brigade, 21; Handwork, 12; Dressmaking, 22.

Bible Study.—The Epistle to the Ephesians, 4.

During the winter months there have been popular lectures and concerts every Saturday evening. Among those who gave lectures were Dr. Kimmins, Dr. Borland, Dr. Theodore Burnett, Dr. Salter, the Rev. J. H. Ritson, and Mr. J. H. Leigh.

The Choral Society, under the honorary directorship of Dr. J. E. Borland, and conducted by Mr. Richard J. C. Chanter, maintains its high level. Among the works performed were Stanford's "The Revenge," Bridge's "Song of the English," Coleridge-Taylor's "Hiawatha," and Mendelssohn's "Elijah." At the last concert about 500 children of the L.C.C. Elementary School took part in the choruses.

The London County Council has continued its annual grant of £425 in aid of the educational work of the Settlement, and a grant of £52 8*s*. has been received from the Board of Education.

The Workers' Educational Association have also held a very successful class for Nature Study.

Our Social Work.

St. George's House is a Temperance public-house carried on by the Settlement. It is open every evening and forms a centre for social work along the waterside. Meetings for Women and Children's clubs and playhours are also held at St. George's House. A Primary Sunday School is also carried on.

Beatrice House is a centre of work among women, and the workers are in touch with over 150 mothers of families. Three Women's Socials meet here every week. A Girls' Club is held here twice weekly, also two Playhours for Children. Beatrice House is also a Registry Office for young servants, and good work is done in helping and advising them.

Three Schools for Mothers are held: one at St. George's House, one at Beatrice House, and the third at the Great Central Hall, Bermondsey. Increased care is being given to these schools. The attendance is good, and the mothers benefit greatly by the instruction given by our Nurses. One of our lady workers is Hon. Superintendent. The medical supervision of these schools and their management has been highly approved by the Inspector of the Board of Education.

At the Day Nursery care is taken of a number of children between the ages of four weeks and four years, while the mothers are at work. It is managed by a special Committee, and is largely supported by funds from The Westminster Gazette. This institution has also made great progress in efficiency during the past year.

The Free Kindergarten is carried on daily in the buildings of the Boys' Institute for children between the ages of two and a half and six years of age. The children benefit greatly by the training they receive. This work is recognised by the Board of Education.

Five Girls' Clubs are held in connexion with the Settlement. Lectures have been given on Temperance, First Aid, Hygiene, etc., and the leaders make it a point to come into personal touch with all the members, and are thus able to help them over many difficult places in their lives.

The Settlement Company of the Boys' Brigade has carried on its work throughout the year, but with increased difficulty, as Captain N. A. Lewis joined the Forces last autumn. The Company has again won the South London Battalion Colour.

Owing probably, however, to the fact that most of our boys are working overtime in connexion with the war, the Company failed to hold the Daily Telegraph Shield. Services have been held on Sunday evening, and also a number of Church Parades. The Summer Camp was held at New Romney last August.

The Boys' Institute, in connexion with the Boys' Brigade, continues to do good work, and is open every evening of the week until the cricket season begins.

Four Boys' Clubs are carried on weekly. The influence of the leaders over these boys, some of whom come from very very poor homes, is invaluable.

The Annual Flower Show was held as usual. Most of the County Council Schools in the district took part. The exhibits numbered considerably over 1,000.

The Ambulance Brigade.—As has already been stated, practically all the members of the Bermondsey and Rotherhithe Division of the St. John Ambulance Brigade have joined the Forces.

Societies for the Promotion of Thrift are carried on in connexion with the Settlement. The State Insurance Section in connexion with our Dividing Benefit Societies makes good progress. The membership is nearly 4,000.

Local Administration and Philanthropy.

The Settlement has maintained its influence and activity in local administration.

The London County Council.—The Rev. Dr. J. Scott Lidgett continues to act as one of the Representatives of Rotherhithe on the London County Council, and also as a member of the London Education Committee, including a number of its Sub-Committees.

Dr. Lidgett has continued to act as a member of the Governing Body of the Borough Polytechnic, and of Herold's Institute. A number of members of the Settlement have continued to act as Managers both of the Council Schools and of the Non-provided Schools of the Borough, on the Local Advisory Committee for Secondary Schools, and have done active work on the School Care Committees. Two Residents are also members of the local School Attendance Committees. Reference has already been made to the services of Residents on the various War Committees of this Borough.

The Settlement also has been represented on the Committee of the Invalid Kitchen, the Bermondsey Committee for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, and the Distress Committee under the Bermondsey Borough Council. A number of our workers are represented upon the Local Juvenile Advisory Committee of the Labour Exchange.

Bermondsey Metropolitan Borough Council.—Two of our Settlement workers are members of this Council.

Poor Law.—Miss Simmons, the head of our Women's Settlement, continues to act as Poor Law Guardian for the Parish of Bermondsey, and does excellent service as a member of the Schools Committee and Infirmary, Finance, and Workhouse Committees. The Ladies' Committee, of which Miss Simmons is chairman, helps girls coming into the lying-in ward of the workhouse. Some of our lady Residents have been able to help these girls to find work, and so get a fresh start in life.

The Metropolitan Association for Befriending Young Servants.—A lady Resident is responsible for the local work of this Association, and she conducts a local Registry Office. Situations have been found for 54 girls, and 208 have been regularly visited. Lodgings have been found for 4 homeless girls, and 15 have been helped by grants of clothing. One has been trained for service.

The Association for Befriending Boys looks after those who are placed out in situations from the various Poor Law Schools of London. The Bishop of London is President of this Association, and the Rev. Dr. J. Scott Lidgett is Chairman of the Council and also of the Executive Committee. One of our Residents keeps in touch with the boys who are placed out in this district. The Bermondsey Board of Guardians is represented on the Council by Miss Simmons.

Children's Country Holidays Fund.—Secretaries for both the Bermondsey and Rotherhithe Committees of this Fund are provided by the Settlement. Unhappily, owing to the war only half the usual number of children were sent last year and are being sent this year.

Women's Holiday Fund.—The local Secretaryship of this Fund is filled by one of our lady Residents. The various religious organisations of the district are represented on the Local Committee, which has its headquarters at the Settlement, and 109 women were sent away for a fortnight to the country or seaside.

Nursing Work.—The responsibility for the Queen's Jubilee Nursing in Rotherhithe rests upon the Settlement, though we have a local Committee to assist us. Our two District Nurses have attended 318 patients during the year, and have paid 5,067 visits.

A Centre for the Treatment of Minor Ailments of School Children is carried on daily at the Settlement, the work being supported by a grant from the London County Council. A Centre for the Dental Care of Children was opened last November, and is being carried on with great success.

Assistance is given by the Settlement from time to time to many philanthropic agencies in the district.

Relief of Distress.—Our Settlement workers take an active part in dealing with the poverty of the district.

Free Legal Advice.—During the past year Mr. J. C. Lidgett, B.A., LL.B., has undertaken this work, and many poor applicants have been helped to obtain justice which would otherwise have been impossible through lack of the necessary legal knowledge.

Finance.—The balance-sheet up to June 30, 1914, showed a deficiency of £129 17*s.* 9*d.* The war is likely to cause a severe financial crisis for the Settlement. We must appeal to the generous sympathy of our friends to help us to tide over this anxious time.

APPENDIX XXIV.

THE METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

Owing to the special circumstances in which the War has placed Great Britain and the Colonies during the year, it has not been deemed necessary to hold a meeting of the Brotherhood Committee.

The state of the various Colonies and the uncertainty and irregularity of shipping has affected emigration to all parts of the world. We have, however, been of service to many friends, so that since last Report we have dealt with the removal abroad of 280 persons, involving about 600 letters of enquiry and introduction.

APPENDIX XXV.

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL PURITY COMMITTEE.

Since the outbreak of war the Committee has carefully watched the national situation and taken action from time to time in the interest of public morality.

APPENDIX XXVI.

CLASS LEADERS' COMMITTEE.

The Committee is able for the first time to present statistics showing the number of Classes led by Ministerial, Lay and Women Leaders respectively. Discrepancies in the totals are due to the fact that no returns at all are available from seven circuits, and that in many others the schedule has been variously interpreted. The returns however do give a general view as to the number of lay leaders in connexion with our Church. Several Synods urge that the returns cannot give us a true view of the condition of the Classes unless another question is added:

"How many of these Classes do not meet?"

It is perfectly evident from the returns to hand that much greater attention is now being given to the Class Meeting Fellowship of our Church. The Synods are urging that alike through the pulpit and the circuit magazines there should be systematic teaching as to the duty and privilege of Christian Fellowship, and that the public Recognition Meeting for new Members should be loyally observed. It is felt, too, that in smaller country places the week-night service might with advantage be made a fellowship meeting, led by the minister.

The Conference regulation respecting the Annual Circuit Meeting of Leaders is duly observed in a considerable majority of the Circuits, and again and again the reports speak with gratitude of the result of such meetings. The Committee is of opinion that so long as the direction to hold this meeting remains among the Standing Orders of the Conference—as the Committee strongly hopes it will—it should be respected.

The most cheering feature of the year's work is the continued progress of the Junior Society. New Classes are constantly being formed and a copy of His Sons and Daughters is sent to the newly appointed leader whenever application is made.

Seven District Gatherings for Class Leaders have been held, in the Bristol, Macclesfield, Liverpool and Hull Districts respectively. The tea-table conferences, particularly, have proved to be times of real inspiration.

The Committee has heard with joy the proposal to hold a Summer School for Leaders at some central and convenient location during 1916. It believes that there are great possibilities in connexion with this movement.

The circulation of the "Class Leaders' Companion" and the "Junior Leaders' Annual" has been well maintained during the year, and the other literature provided by the Committee is still in steady demand. The "Class Leaders' Companion" for the coming year is being recast, and it is hoped that the Meditations, being simple, practical, and illustrative, will be of still larger service to a growing number of Leaders. The "Annual" again has proved to be of untold help to a considerable proportion of the Leaders of Junior Society Classes.

The financial statement for the year shows a balance in hand of £58. The Committee is grateful for the way in which its work has been maintained and supported during the year.

APPENDIX XXVII.

COMMITTEE ON METHODIST LAW AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE Committee has met twice during the year, on November 6, 1914, and March 19, 1915. On each occasion there has been a large attendance.

The following subjects, having been referred by the Conference to the Committee, have been fully considered.

I. A communication from the Coventry Circuit.

II. The question of the meaning and use of the phrase "General Superintendent."

I. A communication from the Coventry Circuit.

The communication suggested the desirability of making it clear, by the addition of some words if necessary, "that the Standing Order relating to the steps to be taken when a Local Preacher is declared bankrupt applies to Local Preachers who are Managing Directors of Limited Liability Companies which fail to pay their creditors in full."

The Committee decided to advise the Conference to append to the Standing Order the following note:

> N.B.—This regulation applies also to a Local Preacher who is a Director of a Company which is in similar financial circumstances.

The regulation will then read as follows:

> A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher, until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan (1895, p. 314).
> N.B.—This regulation applies also to a Local Preacher who is a Director of a Company which is in similar financial circumstances (1915, p. 440).

II. The question of the meaning and use of the phrase "General Superintendent."

At the first meeting of the Committee, after prolonged consideration of the origin, meaning, and use of the title "General Superintendent," a Sub-Committee was appointed to bring up a report on "the use of this term in the past, and its meaning as arising out of that use." The Sub-Committee prepared its report and presented it to the Committee at its second meeting. The report was fully considered, and was adopted as the Committee's report to the Conference.

Report.

As the Committee has not been able to find that the Conference has given a definition of the term "General Superintendent," the use of the term "in the past," and, especially, "its meaning as arising out of that use," must be judged by the consideration of facts and suggestions gathered from various sources.

First.—The use of the term "General Superintendent" in the past.

The first example of the use of the term "Superintendent" by the Methodists is to be found in Wesley's appointment of Dr. Coke and Francis Asbury, in 1784, as "Superintendents in North America." It is probable that Wesley took the title from the Moravian Church, in which the bishops were then called "General Superintendents." It seems clear that by adopting this title he indicated that Coke and Asbury were set apart to a special office, and that they were to exercise a general supervision over the Societies in America.

It was not long before the full title "General Superintendent" came into use. In 1795, William Black, having been a "Presiding Elder" in Nova Scotia for some years, was appointed as "General Assistant" to the British Dominions in America. In 1799 the name of the office was changed to "General Superintendent," and William Black held the position, almost uninterruptedly, until 1811.

It is important to note that, in 1806, the Foreign Stations were divided into Districts, and Chairmen were appointed to them. In 1807 the name of William Black appears as the Chairman of the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick District.

In addition, he is appointed as the "General Superintendent" of the District. This is the first instance of appointment to the two offices in combination. William Black continues to be so appointed until 1811. The origin of the double title now in general use in the Foreign Mission Stations must be traced back to 1807.

The significance of the title "Superintendent" and "General Superintendent" may be seen from a consideration of the case of Dr. Coke. In 1796 he was appointed by the Conference as "the Superintendent of the West India Missionaries." In 1798 the Conference appointed him "the Superintendent of the Foreign Missions," such appointment being annually made until 1803. In 1804 he was appointed "General Superintendent of the Irish, Welsh, West India and Newfoundland Missions," the appointment being renewed until 1812. It is important to note that this title shows that he was not only the "General Superintendent" of Foreign Missions, but also of the Home Missions in Ireland and Wales. In 1813 he was appointed "the General Superintendent" of "all our Missions." In 1814, the year of his death, his name appears in the Minutes of Conference in connexion with Ceylon, and he is appointed "the General Superintendent of our Asiatic Missions."

After a temporary disappearance of the term it again occurs in the Minutes of Conference in connexion with the Mission in France, William Toase being appointed in 1818, as the "General Superintendent of the French Mission under the direction of the Committee."

After 1818 the term came into more frequent use owing to the growth of Foreign Missions. In 1819 Barnabas Shaw was appointed the "General Superintendent of the South African Stations." From 1820 to 1822 the term occurs not only in connexion with the work in South Africa but also in Australasia. It then disappears for a time. The reason for its discontinuance may be found in the fact that, after the division of the Foreign Stations into Districts in 1806, the organisation of the Districts at home and abroad was gradually assimilated so far as possible. But the arrangement concerning the appointment of "General Superintendents," having been in abeyance for some years, was resumed. In 1834 a "General Superintendent" was appointed in connexion with the Canadian Missions; and, in 1836, the title "Chairman of the District and General Superintendent" came into prominent use in the Missions in India, Ceylon, Africa, and Australasia. In 1844 in the West Indies, where the term "General Superintendent" had been laid aside for several years, a "Chairman of the District and General Superintendent" was appointed to the Jamaica District. After 1846, the conjoint titles came into common use in all the Foreign Mission Districts.

Secondly.—The meaning of the term "General Superintendent" as arising out of its use.

By the "meaning of the term," we understand that the Conference wishes to be provided with materials which will enable it to ascertain the powers and duties of a General Superintendent.

I. A little light is to be obtained from the Minutes of Conference. In 1810, when William Black was Chairman and General Superintendent of the Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Newfoundland District, power was given to him by the Conference to alter the appointment of one of the Preachers who had been stationed in Halifax. If he judged it proper he might allow that Preacher to remain in Halifax, or he might appoint him to another Circuit "till the next Conference."

In 1843 an important change is noticeable in the Australasian Mission stations. In succession to John Waterhouse, Walter Lawry is appointed Chairman of the New Zealand District. He is stationed at Auckland. He is also appointed as the General Superintendent of the Missions in New Zealand, and as "Visiter of the Missions in the Friendly Islands and Feejee." The Friendly Islands and Feejee were at that time two separate Districts, each having its own Chairman. It is also to be noted that two Deputy Chairmen were appointed to the New Zealand District, one to the Northern and the other to the Southern section. This arrangement suggests that Deputy Chairmen were provided in order that they might act in the New Zealand District when the Chairman of that District was visiting the Friendly and Feejee Islands. In 1851 a change took place. Walter Lawry was appointed Chairman of the New Zealand District and General Superintendent of the Missions in New Zealand and in the Friendly and Feejee Islands. It should be stated that the office of "Visiter" also appears for several years in the Minutes of Conference in connexion with the West African Missions.

From the foregoing facts it seems clear that the office of General Superintendent differs from that of a Chairman of a District; and that, by the authority of the Conference, a General Superintendent may have power given to him, under certain circumstances, to alter appointments, and to take the oversight of Missions in specified areas.

II. The information gained from the Minutes of Conference is valuable, but it needs to be supplemented by an examination of other documents. The contents of these documents assist us to understand the way in which General Superintendents have exercised the powers of their office under the direction of the Missionary Committee. It is well known that the Missionary Committee acts for the Conference in Foreign Missionary affairs during the intervals of its annual sessions. The action of the Committee is guided by definite rules passed by the Conference, by long-established usage, and by its own "Regulations" from time to time revised and published. As the definite rules of the Conference relating to General Superintendents are difficult to discover, the Committee has endeavoured to ascertain, first, the usage in the case of General Superintendents, and secondly, the present Regulations of the Missionary Committee concerning them.

1. Walter Lawry was appointed the General Superintendent of the Missions in New Zealand and in the Friendly and Feejee Islands in 1851. About that time a letter was written to him from the Mission House containing "Instructions" concerning the duties of his office. From this letter, a copy of which is preserved in the Mission House, we select points which throw light on the subject of this investigation. At the time when it was written every Foreign District was placed under a General Superintendent and Chairman, and the letter expressly affirms that the powers of a General Superintendent are of "a nature not previously included in the office of a Chairman." Referring to the discontinuance of the office from 1823 to 1833, it points out that such discontinuance led to great irregularities arising from "the absence of that immediate and efficient control which the office of General Superintendent is intended to supply," and that the office had been restored in order that such control might again be exercised.

Dealing with the principles on which the government of the Foreign Mission work proceeds, the letter shows that the General Committee of the Missionary Society, with respect to the Missionaries abroad, stands in the place of the Conference, inasmuch as the Conference has entrusted the Committee with the general management of the Foreign Missions, and has arranged that the Committee "may delegate or depute its power, or any part thereof, to be exercised by its Agent on the spot," such Agent having "full opportunities of knowing local circumstances and the case of every Preacher because he resides among them." It is also stated that, apart from all other considerations, the proper control of the finances of the foreign Districts by an Agent responsible directly to the Committee renders the appointment of a General Superintendent necessary. After laying down these principles, definite instructions are given on the following matters:

(1) The appointments of the Preachers are left, in the main, with the General Superintendent. He is instructed to discourage all unnecessary removals of the Missionaries from one station to another.

(2) In all matters of finance he is to consider himself as the responsible representative of the Missionary Committee, and nothing must be expended without his vigilant oversight and sanction.

(3) In the intervals of the District Meetings he has discretionary power to visit, when he deems it necessary, any part of his charge; and, in consultation with such senior Missionaries as may be within reach, to take such steps as the exigencies of the case may render imperative or very desirable.

(4) The Schools are placed under his superintendence in the intervals of the regular District Meetings; and

(5) He is to fix the time and place of holding the District Meetings from year to year.

The "Instructions" to Walter Lawry shed light on the duties of the office of a General Superintendent, but it is necessary to compare ancient usage with the usage of the present time in order to ascertain if any vital changes have taken place since the letter to Walter Lawry was written.

The following statement, made in Committee, describes the usage at the present day:

(1) The Committee endeavours to carry out the usual organisation of Methodism on the Foreign Field so far as it can be made to fit the circumstances existing there. There are, therefore, regularly organised Circuits as at Home, and Districts with a Chairman in charge of each. But there are in the Foreign Field vast unevangelised areas beyond the bounds of our organised Districts, and one great object of a Missionary Society is to push on into those areas with the message of the Gospel. A Chairman's responsibility is limited to his District. For the policy of advance some one must have powers that extend beyond the boundaries of a District; and for this policy a General Superintendent is needed.

(2) All the work abroad is, by the will of the Conference, under the Missionary Committee, which has its responsibilities for all that goes on there. The General Superintendent is the representative of the Committee. The Chairman of the District can only be the ecclesiastical head according to the Discipline of Methodism. The two offices of Chairman and Superintendent are usually united in the same man, but not necessarily so.

(3) The Superintendents of Mission Circuits are often of necessity Probationers, or Native Ministers. Where that is the case it is highly advisable that some one should have the right of general oversight in a way that is not needed in this country.

(4) The General Superintendent, as the representative of the Committee, may take action in any Circuit on behalf of the Committee beyond the action which a Chairman is entitled to take, but subject always to a right of appeal to the Missionary Committee and the Conference.

When the foregoing statement is compared with the letter to Walter Lawry it will be seen that the usage of the present and of the past does not show any essential difference in principle, or in the application of that principle.

2. When we turn from "usage" to "regulations," the investigation into the powers and duties of General Superintendents is greatly assisted by a book recently published by the Missionary Committee. In 1912 the Conference resolved that the general lines of organisation and administration should be printed in a "Book of Regulations," and issued officially to all members of the Missionary Committee and Council, and all Missionaries on the Field. In an edition of this book published in 1914, there are several regulations relating to the powers and duties of General Superintendents. In this official handbook it is stated that the Chairman and General Superintendent of the District is the Agent and Representative of the General Committee and is responsible to that Committee and to the Conference for the due administration of discipline, and for the proper working of our organisation in the District over which he presides (p. 21); and that he has authority, if he should judge it necessary, to suspend a Missionary, Ministerial or lay, pending the decision regarding him of the Conference or the General Committee (p. 8). It is also declared that the General Superintendent is responsible to the General Committee for all the work of the District, and has authority to intervene in the administration of any Station, subject always to appeal to the General Committee (p. 7); he has power to appoint, and in some specified instances to change the appointments of Missionaries (p. 7); in the intervals between the meetings of the Local Committees he has authority, in cases of emergency, to exercise any of the powers of the Local Committee (p. 21); and, as the Representative of the General Committee, he controls the finance of his District (pp. 10, 21–23). Further details of administration within the province of the General Superintendent are set forth in the book. They are all governed by the principles which have determined the long-established usage of the General Committee.

III. As a rule the appointment of a Chairman and General Superintendent is confined to the Foreign Missionary Districts. To this rule there is one exception. In 1908 a Chairman and General Superintendent was appointed to the Zetland District.

The Mission to the Shetland Isles has, from its commencement, occupied a special position. In 1823 the District first appeared on the Stations, and a Chairman was appointed. The Mission owed its origin to Dr. Adam Clarke; and during the earlier years of its history it was, in the main, maintained by subscriptions which he gathered. Until his death, in 1832, he exercised, by the authority of the Conference, special powers of supervision over the work. On two occasions he visited the Islands, meeting all the Preachers; and, as he says in one of his letters, making "provisional arrangements and appointments which are for the Conference to ratify." From 1824 to 1832 a note appears in the Minutes of Conference in which his exceptional position is indicated. He is requested to correspond regularly with the Preachers in the Shetland Isles, and to give them such advices and directions as he may deem necessary. In addition, he is authorised to receive donations for the support of the Preachers, which donations are to be regularly paid, on account, to the Treasurer of the Contingent Fund. The Note in the Minutes of Conference gives an official sanction for the constant supervision he exercised over the work in the Islands. It will be seen, also, that from the first, that work was closely connected with the Contingent Fund.

In 1862 the Zetland Isles were attached to the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District; but a resolution was passed by the Conference that Zetland should be regarded as part of the Home Mission Field, and that the Ministers stationed there should correspond with the Secretary of the Home Missionary Committee and supply him and the Chairman of the District with reports of the state of the work (Minutes, 1862, vol. xv., p. 327). In 1869 Zetland, as a separate District, once more appears on the Stations. It is placed "under the supervision of the Home Missionary Committee," and there is an intimation that subscriptions especially in aid of the work may be paid to the Treasurers of the Home Mission and Contingent Fund (1869, vol. xvii., pp. 528, 529). From 1869 to the present time the Zetland District has continued to be "under the supervision of the Home Mission Committee." These facts show that Zetland, for many years, has occupied a unique position among the Home Districts.

The supervision of the District by the Home Mission Committee has been exercised in various ways:

1. The Islands have been regularly visited by a representative of the Department, when everything has been examined relating to the work in the District, the state of the Circuits, the work of the Ministers, the position of the Trusts, and the condition of the fabrics of Churches and Manses.

2. When vacancies occur in appointments, it has been the province of the Department to issue invitations to fill them.

3. The finances of the District have been under the supervision of the Committee. It it necessary to note that 75 per cent. of the stipends of the Ministers in Zetland is paid by the Home Mission Fund, and that the fund also pays four-fifths of the salaries of the Lay Evangelists employed there. These subsidies have been sent to the Chairman of the District, who has not only paid but has also engaged the Evangelists.

In 1908 the Home Mission Committee, being convinced of the necessity of a closer and more continuous supervision of the work in the Islands, determined to ask the Conference to allow the Chairman of the District to be, also, called a General Superintendent. The reasons urged were:

1. To create a more adequate degree of correspondence between the office and the duties belonging to it than the title Chairman of the District, in its usual acceptation, implies; and

2. To strengthen and make clearer the relations between him and the Circuits without interfering with their ordinary administration.

3. In view of the fact that the Superintendents of the Circuits in the Islands were sometimes Probationers, or young men just ordained, the Home Mission Committee felt that the proposed new arrangement was not only necessary but imperative.

4. In addition, the Committee was of opinion that it was essential to have some responsible person residing in the District, who should act as the Representative of the Committee, who could be appealed to when necessary, and who could exercise a controlling hand to protect the Committee from movements and schemes that might prove embarrassing.

The Conference, having considered the matter, appointed a Chairman and General Superintendent to the Zetland District, and the appointment has been continued to the present time.

When the powers and authorities of General Superintendents on the Foreign Field are compared with those possessed by the General Superintendent of the Zetland District, resemblances and differences are evident. In each case the officer is the Representative of a Committee appointed by the Conference. During the intervals of the annual sessions of the Conference these Committees have to bear the responsibilities of management and administration with which they have been charged by the Conference. In each case they have found it necessary to ask the Conference to appoint a Representative of the Committee resident in the several Districts. The powers of supervision entrusted to these Representatives are in some respects similar, but, in the case of the Foreign Mission Stations, the distance of those Stations from the Home base has made it necessary to confer on the Representatives of the Foreign Missionary Committee powers of discipline and administration which are not possessed by the Representative of the Home Mission Committee in Zetland. In the case of the Foreign Districts these powers are defined in the "Book of Regulations." They are such as may be promptly applied in order that irregularities may be checked and mischief prevented. The right of appeal to the General Committee and the Conference, however, is carefully guarded. The Home Mission Committee has not asked for such exceptional powers in the case of Zetland, the ordinary methods of administration in cases of discipline being deemed sufficient. Further, it is also important to note that the right to appoint Ministers to Zetland, and to make necessary changes in appointments during the intervals of the annual sessions of the Conference, is reserved to the Conference, and must be exercised in Zetland in conformity with the regulations determining its exercise in the other Home Districts.

In presenting its Report, the Committee desires to say that it has strictly confined itself to the task of carrying out its instructions. It has endeavoured to ascertain the facts concerning the use and meaning of the phrase "General Superintendent," and has no resolution on this subject to submit to the Conference.

APPENDIX XXVIII.

REVISED REGULATIONS IN REGARD TO THE CONSTITUTION, ETC., OF THE CONFERENCE, ADAPTED TO THE CHANGED ORDER OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS.

I. Relation of the Representative to the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

1. If any Resolutions shall be adopted by the Representative and Pastoral Sessions respectively, which, in the judgment of the President, are in conflict with each other, such Resolutions shall not be confirmed by the Legal Conference; but shall be reported accordingly to the respective Sessions of the next Conference (1889, p. 291).

2. The Conference in its Pastoral Session shall have power to consider and decide . . . all propositions for the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Conference in its Representative Session, so far as questions of finance are concerned.

3. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any resolutions of District Synods, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference in its Pastoral or its Representative Session, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively.

4. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the Session of the Conference to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

II. The Representative Session of the Conference.

1. The Conference, when considering such matters as are hereinafter declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen, acting conjointly, shall consist of the President of the Conference and of 300 Ministers and 300 Laymen.

(1) The Ministerial members of the Conference, when the Lay Representatives are present, shall be, in addition to the President and all other members of the Legal Conference for the time being who shall have declared at the May Meeting of the District Synod their intention to attend the Conference:

(i) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference who is not a member of the Legal Conference.

(ii) All Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain who are not members of the Legal Conference.

(iii) Eight Ministers in Full Connexion, stationed in Foreign Districts, who may be in England at the time of the sitting of the Conference, to be chosen by the Missionary Committee.

(iv) If in any year any Department would not, in the judgment of the Conference, be adequately represented by members of the Legal Conference, provision shall be made for the Ministerial Representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

(v) The remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Laymen, shall be elected at the Annual Meetings in May of the District Synods in Great Britain, as follows:

The Ministerial Members of each District Synod shall elect by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express their desire to attend the Conference, so many Ministers as were allocated by the preceding Conference to represent the District in the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen (1886, p. 199; 1890, p. 324).

N.B.—The newly elected members of the Legal Conference in each year shall be members of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

(2) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference or by the May Meeting of the District Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference or nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. Duly qualified and elected women shall be eligible as Lay Representatives to the Conference.

(i) One-fifth of the Lay Representatives shall be elected annually by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. This number shall in all cases include the Lay Treasurers for the time being of the following General Connexional Funds, namely, the Missionary Society, the General Chapel Fund, the Ministers' Children's Fund in both its sections, the Home Mission Fund, the Theological Institution Fund, the Education Fund, the Auxiliary Fund, the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Extension of Methodism Fund, the National Children's Home and Orphanage, the London Mission, the Temperance Committee, the Local Preachers' Committee, and the Sunday School Department.

N.B.—In future appointments not more than one Lay Treasurer of any Connexional Fund shall be an ex officio Member of the Representative Session of the Conference. For the present the Treasurer of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund and of the London Mission, which are now united as "The London Mission and Extension Fund," shall be ex officio Members of the Conference (Minutes, 1909, p. 112).

One-third of the remaining number elected by the Conference shall retire annually, and the Lay Representatives so retiring shall not be immediately eligible for re-election by the Conference (1880, pp. 334, 335).

(ii) For the present, the election of the remaining Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meetings of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. The Circuit Stewards of each Circuit shall be called upon at the March Quarterly Meeting to declare their ability and willingness to attend the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District Synod in May, or the contrary. If they, or either of them, shall declare inability or unwillingness to attend the said District Synod, the Quarterly Meeting shall have the right of electing, by and from its own members by open vote or by ballot, after nomination by Lay Members of the Meeting, a Representative or Representatives, to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created (1893, p. 319).

(iii) The number of Laymen to be elected in each District shall be determined by each preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers and Laymen.

2. For Order and Form of Business to be transacted by the Conference, see Appendix XXIX.

3. The deliberations of the Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen, shall be confined to the duly appointed members of that Conference; but any Minister permitted by the District Synod to attend the Conference when composed of Ministers only, may be present during the Sessions of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; and the Lay Members of Connexional Committees may be present during the proceedings of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. Seats for the purpose shall be reserved for such Ministers and Laymen. The admission of any other persons shall be determined and arranged according to circumstances at the discretion of the Conference.

III. Formal Constitution of the Conference.

The constitution of the Conference shall be the first business of the Conference. The retiring President shall occupy the chair until his successor is elected.

A. Elections to the Legal Conference.

1. All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its Representative Session, and such vacancies shall be filled up by election by the Legal Conference on the ground of seniority (1899, p. 241).

The election shall be based on a list of twelve ministers in full work, who have travelled not less than thirty-six years, such list to be the result of a ballot taken at the Pastoral Session of the previous year (Minutes, 1909, p. 361).

2. The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the Meeting of the Conference in its Pastoral Session, and such vacancies shall then be filled up by election by the Legal Conference after nomination (1899, pp. 241, 242).

3. In regard to these vacancies the Legal Conference shall formally declare by separate vote that certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference, cease to be members of the Legal Hundred, and that their places have to be filled up (Journal, 1877).

4. All ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher for admission into the number of the Hundred, and the Hundred shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a Member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least fourteen years (Journal, 1814, 1815, 1869).

5. Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal Hundred, another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form.

B. Nomination and Election of the President and Secretary.

1. All Ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right to vote in the nomination of the President and Secretary of the ensuing Conference.

2. The nomination of the President and Secretary shall be made by ballot vote by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference.

3. The number of one hundred Members of the Legal Conference having been completed by the filling up of vacancies caused by death, or by absence for two successive years without dispensation, the Legal Conference shall proceed to choose its President and Secretary.

4. The Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the person nominated to the office of President and the person nominated to the office of Secretary by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference (1899, p. 242).

5. If the Legal Conference shall at any time negative either of the nominations of the preceding Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister for the office in question; and the result of that nomination shall be submitted to the decision of the Legal Conference.

6. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of President be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of President in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

7. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of Secretary be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of Secretary in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

8. If, in the event of the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of the President, the Minister nominated by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference to the office of Secretary should be chosen to be President of the Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall nominate another Minister by ballot vote to the office of Secretary of the Conference, and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

APPENDIX XXIX.

ORDER AND FORM OF THE BUSINESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

THE following is the ORDER OF BUSINESS, as appointed by the Conference, subject to such modification as may hereafter be found necessary or convenient.

(a) Before each Conference, the Stationing Committee shall meet in London in connexion with the Annual Meeting of the Home Mission Committee, and shall prepare and issue the First Draft of the Stations of Ministers. The Committee shall meet again in the Conference town on the Tuesday morning preceding the Representative Session and on the Saturday during the Pastoral Session.

(b) The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Wednesday afternoon, the day on which the Conference assembles.

I. Representative Session.

The Representative Session commences on the Wednesday of the first week of the Conference, at 6 o'clock p.m.

1. APPENDIX XXX.

(See Advertisement in Insurance Section.)

The Company was established in 1872, with the sanction and commendation of the Conference, for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by fire. Nearly nine-tenths of the entire trust property of the Connexion are insured in the Company. Insurances under the Workmen's Compensation Act 1906, etc., are now granted, and policies indemnifying Trustees and School Authorities in respect of accidents to Scholars, etc., are also issued. The whole of the profits are held in trust for the benefit of the Connexion, and grants, amounting altogether to £47,900, have been made to the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund. The Funds in hand exceed £130,000, being ten times the Annual Premium Income.

The Net Premium Income for the year ending July 15, 1915, was £13,006, and the Revenue from Interest and Dividends, etc., £5,428; total, £18,434. The total outlay for Losses, Expenses, etc., amounted to £11,220; and the Grant to the Worn-out Ministers' Fund to £3,000.

APPENDIX XXXIII.

REPORT ON EDUCATIONAL STANDARD FOR CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

The Conference in both Sessions received and adopted this Report.

Proposals submitted by the Committee in reference to the following Resolution of Conference :

> The Conference directs the Committee to consider the desirability of fixing an educational standard which shall be required of all Students entering the Theological Institution, and to suggest a method that may be adopted to meet the case of Candidates specially desirable on other grounds with a view to assist them to acquire the necessary qualification. (Minutes of Conference, 1912, p. 63).

Attention is called to the fact that this is a resolution of the Conference in its Representative Session, and that it deals only with a standard to be fixed for admission to the Theological Institution. The question of receiving Candidates for the Ministry, although intimately connected with it, is a distinct issue and lies wholly within the sphere of the Pastoral Session of Conference.

Suggestions are made as to—

> The desirability of fixing a standard.
> The standard to be fixed.
> The method of assisting specially desirable candidates to reach the standard fixed.

1. The Desirability of Fixing an Educational Standard.

(1) It affords a test of the candidate's determination to prepare himself for his calling, and of power to apply himself to given subjects of study.

(2) It would greatly enhance the value of the course of study at the Colleges, saving much time and making possible a higher degree of educational efficiency ; in many cases it would approximate closely in value educationally to a fourth year of residence.

(3) The official statement of subjects set for examination has hitherto been vague: it has presented no definite point of attainment at which to aim.

(4) Experience has shown that the majority of really desirable candidates have quite sufficient natural ability to reach the proposed standard without undue hardship.

(5) Facilities for reaching such a standard are to-day easily within the reach of every prospective candidate.

(6) The attainment of an educational standard is the ordinary and well-understood requirement for admission to training for all the higher callings of life, particularly where any form of teaching is involved.

2. Syllabus for Standard Required.

(1) English Language, Literature, and History.

a. English Grammar and Analysis (Nesfield's Outline of English Grammar, 1s. 6d.).

A short English Essay.

b. General Outline of English Literature (Stopford Brooke's Primer, 1s.).

Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar and Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.

c. English History.

The New Learning, The Reformation and Puritan England (J. R. Green's Shorter History, pages 297–586).

(2) Elementary Mathematics.

Arithmetic.

Algebra (Elementary).

The subjects of Euclid, Book I.

(3) Elementary Logic (Jevons' Primer of Logic, 1s.).

(4) A Science Subject (Elementary).

(5) Latin.

Macmillan's Shorter Latin Course by Cook, Pts. I and II.

Cæsar: de Bello Gallico, Book V., chaps. 1–27.

(6) Greek.

Clapperton's First Steps in New Testament Greek, 1*s.* 6*d.*
St. Mark, chap. iv.

(1) is compulsory for all Candidates taking this examination. From (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6), a Candidate shall select two subjects for examination.

N.B.—Candidates are strongly recommended to select (6) as one of their subjects, because of its importance in relation to the curriculum of the Theological Colleges, and to the whole work of the Ministry.

3. Recommendations.

(1) The examination to test a Candidate's ability to reach the standard fixed by the Conference shall be taken as the "A" section of the present Literary Paper set at the July Committee. A "pass" representing 50 per cent. of the total marks possible for that section shall ordinarily be required; but it is understood that all Candidates will appear before the July Committee, whose judgment on each shall be recorded.

(2) A Candidate who, having failed to reach the required educational standard, shows exceptional preaching power, may, after review of all the circumstances, be specially recommended by the July Committee.

(3) The Committee is not prepared at present to suggest to the Conference any method "to meet the case of Candidates specially desirable on other [than educational] grounds with a view to assist them to acquire the necessary qualification": but the Representative Session of the Conference is asked to appoint a Committee to consider the cases of such Candidates as shall need financial assistance, and to give advice upon the means of securing the education required.

(4) In order that no intending Candidates for the ministry may be put to a disadvantage the Conference directs that the foregoing regulations shall not come into operation for the present.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST MINISTERS AND PROBATIONERS

IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND

ON THE COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS

UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

1. The figures in the first column mark the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuit denote the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the year of annual appointment.

2. This list has been compiled for the purpose of convenient reference; no pains have been spared to ensure accuracy, but it is not to be considered official.
